Married at First Sight Chapter 2122-Kathryn grew up in her adoptive parents' home, and she was always bullied. It would be nice to have enough to eat, so she wouldn't dare to be picky about food.

Even if she later made money by herself, became a big boss, had a net worth of tens of millions, and had eaten delicacies from mountains and seas, she was still not picky about food, she could eat simple food, and she could accept delicacies from mountains and seas.

In Farrell's house, the food was also very good.

But because she was not picky about food, the kitchen did not prepare her favorite dishes every time.

She was not picky about food, but she also had special favorite dishes.

The kitchen was ignoring her.

Every day when the big family eats together, on the dining table, there must be dishes that her mother liked to eat, and then there was Shiloh's, and everyone else had at least one favorite dish, but she, the real daughter of the Farrell family, Not getting attention from the kitchen.

Kathryn didn't care, but she could see it.

Not in a hurry.

Let's wait until she completely controlled the Farrell family.

Everyone had a powerful side.

She didn't blame the people in the kitchen for taking advantage of the wind and holding her mother and Shiloh.

Mrs. Queen smiled and said, "It's a good girl who isn't picky about food. Miss Farrell is a good girl at first glance. I like girls like you."

Mrs. Queen didn't know what Matriarch Farrell thought. Matriarch Farrell didn't love her own daughter. But she loved Shiloh, who was not related by blood.

Shiloh's biological father was still the culprit for exchanging the two children.

If it was her, she would have driven Shiloh back to her hometown in the countryside long ago, and that was Shiloh's real home.

Kathryn smiled shyly.

Under Mrs. Queen's urging, Hayden led Kathryn out of the main house.

Queen's old house occupied a large area, and the scenery in both the front yard and the backyard was good, much better than Hayden's villa in the Yuvinn villa area.

Hayden took Kathryn around the front yard, then led her to the back yard, and said to Kathryn: "There are many scenic trees in the back yard, and it's cool. Walking on the tree-lined path is not so hot."

"This weather is really hot." Kathryn answered. "It's almost October, and it's still hot."

Hayden said: "Ms. Farrell, it's not fake."

The two walked side by side, Kathryn would turn her head to look at Hayden from time to time, and said with a smile: "Mr. Queen, you're really pretty, no wonder Mr. York likes you so much, in order to pursue you, he even gave up his face."

When mentioning Kevin, Hayden had a headache, she said: "That piece of brown sugar has lost face a long time ago, he has no shame at all!"

Kevin said that shameless people couldn't catch up with their wives, and their brothers were all shameless when they pursued the woman they believed in, which dumbfounded Hayden.

Kathryn smiled and said: "Mr. York is also very good, and Mr. Queen, if you're a woman, the two of you are really a good match when you are together.

Mr. York is also very suitable for you, Mr. Queen. Mr. Queen, you have a calm temper and you're a practical person. You don't like to talk much, but Mr. York is a chatterbox. The two of you complement each other so that you won't be bored."

Hayden was speechless.

"It's a pity, Mr. Queen, you're a man. I don't think you like the appearance of the same s-e-x. Mr. York chases after you so closely. I'm afraid he will be disappointed in the end. There are also your parents. Mr. York took your parents Have you taken them all?"

The attitude of Donald and his wife towards Kevin was the same as that of their own son-in-law.

This must had been taken down by Kevin.

No wonder Donald and his wife didn't come forward to stop Kevin from pursuing and pestering Hayden.

Hayden rarely complained, “That’s right, my parents were so coaxed by him that they don’t even remember their last names, they like him so much, they love him, and when he comes over, my brother and I have to stand aside.”
