Married at First Sight Chapter 2133-Decades have passed, and they are about the same age. Maybe they are being tortured by life now, and they are probably also grandmas or grandmas. They are busy taking care of their grandchildren every day. any threat to her.

Matriarch Farrell intercepted the people, and after warning those people, she was not worried that the two nieces would come back to settle accounts with her and fight for power.

Anyway, she had also been the head of the family for decades, holding the power of the Farrell family, even if she could find two nieces, what would they use to compete with her?

She could have arranged for someone to throw away the two nieces if they were capable, and now she could have someone send them away forever!

Of course, Matriarch Farrell still hoped that the two nieces would have a bad time, so that she could fool them by telling a lie and giving them a little favor.

She wiped out all the evidence of what happened back then, and killed those who knew about it. There was no evidence, even if everyone in Jensburg said that she climbed to the position of Matriarch because she killed her elder sister and younger sister.

For decades, who could send her to prison?

Her husband's family didn't know what happened back then, because she was unmarried at that time.

"Shiloh, if Mr. Queen is really gay, you don't have to bother about it. Change to another one. There are so many families in Jensburg, as long as you are not from those big families, Mom will find a way to help you if you like it."

Shiloh thought about Hayden's appearance. Looking at Jensburg, there was no one as good-looking as Hayden. She had admired him for many years, and she couldn't give up.

She decided to find an opportunity to test whether Hayden was indifferent to women.

If Hayden was really indifferent to women, it meant that he was really gay, no matter how much she liked him, she had to give up.

She couldn't just stick to that face and be a widow for the rest of her life. Besides, even if she wanted to be a widow, Hayden might not marry her.

In the swimming pool on the top floor of Fortress Hotel, Kevin was swimming around like a fish.

Hayden stood by the pool and looked at him. She hadn't swum for a long time and couldn't let go.

"Hayden, are you going to stand here and watch me swim? There is a changing room there, and a new swimsuit is also given to you. You go in and change into your swimsuit and come out, and you can go into the water. As I said, it's just me and you."

His secrecy work was still very good.

On his turf, if he couldn't keep her privacy, it would be slapping him in the face.

"Comfortable?" Hayden asked him a question.

Kevin smiled, his smile was so brilliant under the light that Hayden was dazzled when he looked at her.

Kevin: "I said it's very comfortable, but you can't feel it. You should go into the water and try it yourself. Swimming here on a hot day is cool, refreshing, and extremely comfortable."

Hayden silently watched Kevin swimming over. After Kevin finished talking to her, he swam away like a fish again.

Looking down at the new swimsuit Kevin gave her, it was a woman's swimsuit.

If she went into the dressing room to change, she had to put on a woman's swimsuit, which she had never worn in her entire life.

Did she wear it or not?

Hayden felt that Kevin did it on purpose, delicately coaxing her to come to swim, and then forcing her to change into women's clothes.

However, if she really went into the water, she could only change into a women's swimsuit. She couldn't just come out wearing only an old bottom like him, right?

It's all here, if she didn't go into the water, she would come in vain.

Furthermore, Kevin already knew that she was a woman.

After thinking this way, Hayden put down her burden, hugged the swimsuit that Kevin stuffed for her, and walked to the dressing room.

There was also a new outfit in the women's changing room, not only a long skirt, but also new underwear.

Seeing the new suit, Hayden was sure that Kevin had already arranged it, otherwise he would not have prepared a new suit here.

"Cunning as a fox." Hayden muttered.

Kevin swam back to the pool when Hayden was going to the dressing room, sat by the pool and waited for her to come out.

He was looking forward to her womenswear.
