

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2147

Married at First Sight Chapter 2147-When Serenity woke up, it was already the next morning.

She opened her eyes and saw herself lying on the bed, a little confused.

Wasn't she in the car?

How long did she sleep for?

Turning her head, seeing the sleeping man beside her, she turned sideways and looked at Zachary quietly.

Looking at Zachary, she couldn't help reaching out to touch his face.

This excellent man belonged to her!

Such thoughts made Serenity feel sweet.

She wanted to move closer to kiss his face, but Zachary opened his eyes. When he saw her leaning over, he guessed what she was going to do, so he closed his eyes again.

Serenity smiled lowly, "Wake up."

Zachary: "I didn't wake up. I was dreaming. I dreamed that my wife wanted to kiss me. I'll wake up after she finishes kissing."

Serenity chuckled.

Zachary: "I've already talked, but I still say I haven't woken up. I'm talking in my sleep."

Serenity was not shy either, she turned over and pressed on his body, bent down, and kissed him on the lips. Zachary pressed her head with one hand, trying to deepen the kiss, but she moved her lips away, and then she printed a few small kisses on his face.

Serenity: "You can wake up."

Zachary opened his eyes, not very satisfied, he also poked Serenity's red lips, and said: "If I had known you were going to kiss me, I would have slept a little longer, and I would wake up again when you stripped me naked."

Serenity fell off him, reached out and pinched his face lightly, "I won't take your clothes off when you're asleep, unlike you, when people fall asleep, they all..."

Zachary hugged her into his arms and smiled softly, "I only do it once in a while."

Serenity: "What time is it? How long have I been asleep?"

Zachary took the phone and looked at the time, and said, "It's still early, it's not even seven o'clock."

Serenity: "It's bright outside."

"Recently, don't run around and take more time to rest. Even Sonny will say that you are always sleepy at such a young age. It is because you haven't rested well and your sleep time has been reduced. When you came back last night, you were in the car with me. I talked for a few minutes, and you were asleep.

When I got home, I carried you out of the car, but you didn't respond, and fell into a deep sleep. In the past, I just picked you up, and you would wake up. I put you back on the bed last night, and you were still asleep. It can be seen that you are tired and panicked, and you are also very sleepy."

Serenity stuck out her tongue playfully, "I don't know, I just feel heavy eyelids, sleepy, and squint my eyes when I think about it, who knows that I sleep so fast, I'm usually too busy, I don't have enough rest time, it's true, I all have dark circles."

Zachary: "Isn't that right? My heart aches when I see it. Serenity, you are already very powerful. The vegetable and fruit company founded by the three of you is on the right track. There are more and more workers and vehicles. You don't have to worry about the sales of the vegetable market. You have even won a lot of orders from neighboring cities. My mother is still in charge of our family's small businesses. Don't take them from my mother all at once. That way Mom is bored at home.

You can just study and study, and leave it to my mother for a few more years. I also have professional managers to take care of the businesses of our husband and wife. You just need to know how much business we have, and you don't have to do everything yourself.

Seeing you tired makes my heart ache."

Marrying a self-reliant and self-reliant wife was a good thing, but seeing his wife struggling to climb up and sacrifice so much in order to be worthy of him, Zachary was so stressed that she would rather have no ambition and be a young mistress at home with peace of mind.

Unfortunately, Serenity would never be able to be a full-time young mistress.

Her sister's failed marriage made her firmly believe that women must have a job and maintain financial independence, whether before or after marriage.

Recommended Novels

