

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2174

Married at First Sight Chapter 2174—"When you're pregnant, you actually need to move more. You can't lie on the bed every day. That's not conducive to childbirth." Zachary didn't agree to her but didn't refuse her either. He just said: "I'll go to the hospital for an examination tomorrow, and I'll talk about it after I ask the doctor. But you don't want to do things that are tiring."

Serenity: "What tiring things can I do? I don't have to go up the mountain or work in the fields. It's just to take care of my small business. At most, I need to run a little more. I will also pay attention to my physical condition. If I feel ill, Definitely rest first.

Anyway, you can't let Jasmine do anything like Mr. Bucham."

Zachary spoke for Josh: "Miss Sox goes to work in the bookstore every day, why doesn't Josh do anything for her?"

Serenity: "You mean that I can only go back to work in the bookstore every day in the future?"

Zachary: "When I knew you, you were running a bookstore."

Serenity: "..."

Zachary: "The business of dredging vegetables and fruits is in Wiltspoon. You can take care of it. If you need to go on a business trip, try to let Elisa go. She really can't get away. If you need to go, just tell me and I will accompany you."

"Alright." Serenity agreed to him.

Zachary was a little more generous than Josh, at least he would agree with her to take care of the company's affairs.

Unlike Josh, who only agreed with Jasmine to guard the bookstore.

As the couple talked all the way, they felt that the journey was very short.

Soon returned to the city.

Zachary drove Serenity straight to the restaurants near Brynfield. In the past, Serenity packed breakfast at the nearby vegetable market.

However, due to time constraints, the majority of those breakfast restaurants, including Liberty's All You Can Eat, had closed their doors.

In the end, Serenity's craving for a bowl of noodle soup with a lot of sauerkraut and peanuts was satisfied at the SN snack shop.

Zachary didn't eat.

He was sitting opposite his beloved wife, lovingly watching her eat.

Seeing her eating with gusto, he couldn't help but think of the time when he was just married.

The couple was in the running-in period.

It's also a time to develop relationships.

Zachary: "Is it tasty?"

"Sauerkraut is delicious, it's the taste I want to eat." Serenity had a great time eating.

Zachary said with a smile: "The boss added a lot of sauerkraut for you. I can smell the sour taste of sauerkraut even if I don't eat it."

Serenity: "It's only delicious if it's sour. It doesn't taste sour at all, but it doesn't taste good."

"It seems that you like to eat sour. The old man always says that sour is hot, so is my daughter hopeless?"

Zachary felt that he had become greedy.

When his wife was not pregnant, he thought it would be good if she could conceive. He liked both men and women.

When his wife became pregnant, he thought again, let's have a daughter, he wanted a daughter as lovely as Avah.

Every time he saw Ben holding his daughter in his arms, Zachary felt envious and jealous.

Serenity: "It is inaccurate to judge a boy or girl based on the preferences of a pregnant woman. During her pregnancy with Sonny, my sister enjoyed spicy foods. She was unable to eat without spicy food. Her mother-in-law and eldest aunt occasionally muttered that she must have given birth to a daughter because she became so fond of spicy foods."

Zachary: "As you can see, Sonny is a genuine son."

Serenity: "Thus, this is inaccurate. There is no need to speculate whether it is a son or a daughter. When I'm pregnant, it's already clear whether I'll have a son or a daughter."

Zachary: "Anyway, whether it's a son or a daughter, I like them all. They are the babies we have been looking forward to for a year."

Although Serenity also wanted to have a daughter as lovely as Avah, if it was a son, she would like it just the same.