

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2223

Married at First Sight Chapter 2223-Serenity picked up a new dish that her sister specially brought over for her to taste, eating it until her eyes shined.

Serenity nodded while eating.

“Seren, eat slowly, don’t swallow.”

Seeing how much her sister likes to eat, Liberty smiled and said, “I signed up for a cooking class and then practiced on my own when I returned home. Mr. Lewis tried the food for me. He claimed that they were delicious, so I’ve brought them for you to try. With Grandma York’s words, I feel relieved.”

“Sister, you are the best!” Serenity gave Liberty a thumbs up.

Her sister was becoming more and more like a strong woman.

Originally, her sister was a very good person.

At the beginning, she was deceived by lard, so she resigned and went home to become a full-time wife. She was busy with housework and raising children all day, completely out of touch with society.

Her sister had returned to work; oh, her sister was now her own boss, bravely entering the business world.

As long as an excellent person gave her time to recover, she would still be excellent.

Liberty blushed a little, “Sister, I have to keep working hard. I will also assist in the kitchen when the new restaurant opens tomorrow. The two chefs that I hired are also excellent. I believe that under the leadership of the three of us, customer will be satisfied. “

Her ambition was to own a large restaurant, and chain restaurants were prevalent in Wiltspoon and across the nation.

Hope one day, she could achieve her goal.

“Ring ring ring...”

Liberty's cell phone rang.

She took out her mobile phone and looked at the caller ID. It was Duncan calling.

"It's Mr. Lewis."

Liberty generously told everyone that the person who called her was Duncan.

After chatting with Grandma York for a while that day, Liberty also began to think about her future with Duncan.

She was still struggling and hesitating over whether to accept Duncan, but it was undeniable that she cared deeply about him.

Not to mention Duncan's kindness to Liberty and Sonny.

Now Sonny treated Duncan better than his own father.

Liberty fulfilled her former mother-in-law's wish and took Sonny to the hospital.

Hank was very happy to see Sonny, Sonny was still the same as last time, although he was close to his father, but when grandma asked him to stay in the hospital to accompany his father, he refused.

He said that he wanted to play with Uncle Duncan and could not accompany his father.

This made the Brown family very upset.

Serenity looked at her sister with ambiguous eyes.

Liberty tapped her sister's forehead lightly, and said, "Don't look at your sister with such eyes, I'll go outside to answer the phone."

She walked out of her sister's office before answering Duncan's call.

"Liberty, where are you? Why didn't I see you when I went to your restaurant, the clerk said you went out."

Tomorrow would be the grand opening of the new restaurant, and the waiter hired by Liberty had already begun working.

Liberty: "I brought some soup to Seren. The weather was too hot, so I told her not to go out. Grandma York also thought so, and brought lunch to Seren together with Mrs. Lane."

Duncan breathed a sigh of relief.