

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2129

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2129-Soon the men in black realized something was wrong.

Just now, their side had an overwhelming advantage, so why did they suddenly start losing.

The leader in black who was fighting Beanie also noticed it.

Boom!

After his collision with Beanie, both sides parted.

When he looked around, he saw the bodies of the men in black scattered all over the place.

Aside from failing to hide his strength and killing the first man in black who attacked him, David did not kill the other men in black but instead, only seriously injured them.

After all, if they died in The Spirit Cage, they would not be able to wake up in the real world.

These men in black had no vendetta against David. David figured this attack on them was just a struggle between two forces, so there was no need to kill them all.

However, the employer's guards and adventurers would not let these men in black go, so they would kill the men with additional attacks.

Although David was not the real murderer, he was the instigator.

Beanie was also confused about the deaths of so many men in black.

She and the two elders were the strongest individuals in the cohort sent by the Nacht family to Crow City this time.

The two elders had already set off earlier to escort the Silver Flood Dragon away on another road.

So, who else had such impressive strength?

"Good job, Beanie!" The leading man in black said in a high-pitched voice through his teeth.

“You’re not bad yourself. Linus, you don’t have to pretend anymore. I know it’s you. I can’t think of anyone else who would attack my family aside from yours,” Beanie replied with a sneer.

“So what if it’s me?”

Now that he was recognized, Linus simply stopped pretending.

“Linus, have you thought about the consequences of doing this? Is your family planning to start a war with my family?” Beanie frowned.

“Start a war? Beanie, you are overthinking. Since we attacked you, we have no intention of letting you go back alive. Your family will have no evidence, so what reason will you give to start a war? When we are ready, we will naturally destroy your family in one fell swoop and occupy all your resources.”

“You must be delusional! Linus, do you seriously think you can kill me?”

“Haha! You’ll know after I try!” Linus laughed loudly. Then, he got up and fought Beanie once again.

David also saw Beanie and Linus fighting.

The battle between the two was very interesting and even.

However, in his opinion, this level of fighting was similar to children playing house. It was as if an adult was watching a fight between two three or four-year-old children.

‘Their movements are as slow as the speed of a turtle, not to mention, the moves are extremely gentle with no strength in them at all. Have they not eaten today?’

David did not know what tier his strength was at, and he did not have a way of measuring it, but he felt that if he took action to deal with these two, the fight would have ended after a single blow from him.

Just when he got bored from watching, a voice said in his ear, “Hey, you! What are you doing standing there? What are you waiting for? We spent money to ask you to protect us, not to enjoy yourselves and join in the fun. If you remain so passive and continue to slack off, I will deduct your pay.”

David turned his head to look.

He saw a brightly dressed young man and young woman walking towards him.

They were Nas and Nivia from the younger generation of the employer, the Nacht family.

The one who spoke to David was the young man, Nas.

Both of them were a little disheveled, obviously having just finished fighting.

Seeing their attire, David knew that they must be the employers.

He did not expect to be caught by the employer for slacking off.

“Isn’t the battle coming to an end? There are not many men in black left, so it doesn’t make any difference whether I participate or not, right?” David shrugged.

“Of course, there is a difference! This is a matter of your attitude as an adventurer. Regardless of whether you can change the result or not, since you have taken the money, you should contribute whenever you’re needed,” Nas said relentlessly.

“How do you know that I didn’t do anything? You didn’t see what I did just now. I contributed a lot.”

Recommended Novels