I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2136-In order to keep the Silver Flood Dragon's Crystal in the best condition, Beanie did not take it out but instead left it in the Silver Flood Dragon's body.

After bringing it back to Nightingale City, the family would then hold a meeting before deciding how to use it.

Unexpectedly, the news leaked because of a traitor in the family, almost resulting in the Chez family ruining their plan.

If it was not for the powerhouse making a move in secret, the Nacht family would have suffered a big loss this time.

They would have lost their lives and their money.

After walking to the carriage behind her own, Beanie stepped in before emerging with a blank expression after a while.

She was greatly relieved on the inside.

'Thank God!'

The Beast Crystal was still in the body of the Silver Flood Dragon.

She was a little worried that the powerhouse hiding in the dark would quietly take away the Silver Flood Dragon's Crystal.

Although there was nothing wrong with the other party taking it away, after all, they saved so many lives and prevented her from being bullied, Beanie had only gotten this Beast Crystal with great difficulty,

Moreover, the Nacht family needed it right now, so Beanie did not wish to lose it.

When she found out that there was a Beast Crystal inside the Silver Flood Dragon, she leapt with joy.

This was very exciting for her.

Beast Crystals were extremely rare, as even a hundred beasts might not be able to produce one.

Beanie found one even though the chances of it were so slim, so how would she not feel happy or excited?

There was actually a big difference between a beast with a Crystal and a beast without a Crystal.

The simplest reason was that Crystal meant that this beast could continue to evolve to a higher level.

On the contrary, they could not do it without one.

Beanie also thought that the powerhouse who was hiding in the dark would take away the Silver Flood Dragon's Crystal as a reward for saving them.

However, they did not.

Beanie was just overthinking.

Nivia and Nas were coming back to their senses.

They dug a pit to bury the dead guards and adventurers from the Nacht family. As for the bodies of the men in black, wild beasts would come to eat them after they left.

While everyone was getting busy, David did not participate and instead returned to the carriage to rest first.

Yet, as soon as he stepped into the carriage, a voice stopped him.

"Hey, kid, what are you doing there? Can't you see that everyone is busy? Come down right now to help us dig a hole. It's fine that you want to escape from the battle, as I'll just think of you as a coward, but now you even want to escape labor? Do you think the Nacht family is doing charity? Do you think you can get money by doing nothing? I can tell you right now that a parasite like you will not get ten times the reward after we return to Nightingale City," Nas said loudly as he walked over.

When David retorted to him just now, Nas was so angry that he wanted David to leave immediately.

However, his thoughts were interrupted by Aunt Beanie's sudden injury.

Then, there was another life-and-death crisis, but fortunately, it was resolved by Aunt Beanie's backup plan.

Nas, who had already calmed down, came to David again to start trouble with him.

He would not stand David acting like this.

He was obviously a low-level adventurer, but he was still putting on the airs of a rich person.

More importantly, David looked more handsome and classier than him.

This was unacceptable to Nas.

Hence, as soon as he was out of danger, he set his sights on David again.

David knew whose voice it was when he heard it.

It was the kid who had wanted him to leave just now.

He was also from the Nacht family, the employers this time, so his status was probably not low, and he was at least a direct descendant.

Without a better choice, David turned around.

He thought in his heart, 'If I didn't attack in secret just now, you would be a corpse by now.'

'Why do you have to make things difficult for me?'

If he did not want to take this opportunity to learn more about The Spirit Cage, David would have continued the journey himself
