

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1601

“Since Asmodeus was one of the top criminals on the criminal list, any member who succeeds in eliminating him will be rewarded five–thousand contribution points. Hand me your badge and I will input the points into it!” Alfred added.

The Dragon Corps would often need a group of capable martial artists to eliminate criminals like Asmodeus, and upon success, the contribution points would be divided amongst those who were involved. Since Leon had managed to complete the mission on his own, he would be rewarded all the contribution points, which was a rare case in the Dragon Corps.

“Sure,” Leon said before handing Alfred his badge.

Alfred walked to his desk and inserted Leon's badge into a slot on the computer. Leon's information popped up on the screen, and shortly after, five–thousand contribution points were placed under Leon's name.

“Alright. It's done!” Alfred said before handing Leon the badge.

“Mister Glasbey, I heard from Master Haslewood that contribution points can be used to trade rare herbs here in the Dragon Corps. Is that true?” Leon asked.

“Yeah, that's true. What are you looking for?” Alfred said.

“I plan on trading my points with an Angel's Fruit. Are five–thousand points enough?” Leon requested.

He had only attempted to earn contribution points with the sole purpose of obtaining the Angel's Fruit, so he was determined to trade the points with the fruit as soon as possible.

“That’s more than enough. Rare herbs usually only need two–thousand points!” Alfred nodded.

“That’s great! How long before I can get the fruit?” Loen was overjoyed to learn how easy it was and how few points it would cost him.

“Well... I can’t say for sure. Maybe a month or a few months. It shouldn’t take longer than six months, though!” Alfred said.

“What?! It takes that long?” Leon’s smile froze in place.

An Angel’s Fruit was just as rare as any herb that had grown for over a thousand years, and Leon recalled that Mister Haslewood obtained a thousand–year–old Ganoderma through the Dragon Corps within three days’ time.

Leon was confused as to why it would take so long for him to obtain an Angel’s Fruit.

“Well, you are at a pretty low level as an Ordinary Dragon Guard... The Dragon Corps won’t spend too much time or resources on looking for an Angel’s Fruit for you...” Alfred explained.

Though the Dragon Corps kept previous herbs for unforeseen situations, most of them were ordinary herbs that had grown for three to five hundred years.

It was unlikely for the Dragon Corps to be in possession of something as rare as the Angel’s Fruit.

It was simply for Leon to trade his points for the Angel’s Fruit, but if it were unavailable in the Dragon Corps storage, they would need to search for one on Leon’s behalf.

Master Haslewood was a well-respected individual, and the Dragon Corps was willing to locate a thousand-year-old Ganoderma at all costs, but it was different for Leon.

His level of employment was far too low for the Dragon Corps to prioritize his request, and he could only wait patiently.

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1602

“I see.” Leon finally understood his situation after listening to Alfred’s explanation and felt troubled.

He thought that all he needed was sufficient contribution points to obtain the Angel’s Fruit via the Dragon Corps and did not expect to wait because of his low status in the organization.

He was far from reaching the Golden Core Phase, and he could afford to wait for a few months; however, if the Dragon Corps failed to locate an Angel’s Fruit within three months, it may hinder Leon’s progress in his training, and that was the last thing Leon wanted.

“Mister Glasbey, is there a way for me to raise my status within a short span of time?” Leon asked.

“Sure! Considering your situation, you can be promoted to a Platinum Dragon Guard right away!” Alfred said.

The Dragon Guards that worked for the Dragon Corps were divided into five classes: Sky, Earth, Platinum, Gold, and Ordinary.

An Ordinary Dragon Guard rated the lowest with the power level of the Overlord State, which was the lowest requirement for one to enter the Dragon Corps.

Above that were the Gold Dragon Guards, consisting of martial artists in the Emperor State.

The Platinum Dragon Guards were mostly powerful martial artists in the Almighty State, and in the southern region, the Platinum class was the highest one could reach.

Alfred, himself, was a Platinum Dragon Guard, and he was one of the most powerful individuals among Platinum Dragon Guards. Hence, he was given a certain extent of power.

“What?!”

“So you are saying that I can become a Platinum Dragon Guard right now? Are... are you serious?” Leon was shocked.

“Of course! Once a member rises to the Almighty State and has accumulated five-thousand contribution points or above, they get to apply to become a Platinum Dragon Guard! However, five-thousand contribution points will be deducted once you are promoted to a Platinum Dragon Guard,” Alfred said.

“But... but I’m not in the Almighty State yet...” Leon blushed.

Not only was he not in the Almighty State, but he was also far from reaching the Overlord State and even further from the Almighty State.

“You aren’t at the Almighty State yet? That can’t be!” Alfred was surprised.

He knew the extent of Asmodeus’s strength with the aid of his Cuff of Doom; it would likely require a team of at least two martial artists in the Almighty State to defeat him. Considering how Leon defeated Asmodeus on his own, Alfred assumed that Leon was at the Initial or Intermediate Almighty State, so he was surprised to find that Leon had not reached the Almighty State.

“It’s fine, though. If you can defeat Asmodeus, you are not far from reaching the Almighty State, anyway! Besides, a promotion relies mainly on contribution points. There are no fixed requirements for one’s power level! In any case, if you want to, I can promote you right now!” Alfred said casually.

The Dragon Corps valued individual power and contribution, so one’s power level was not the main focus. Moreover, Leon was recommended by Master Haslewood, and Alfred did not mind lowering the bar out of respect for Master Haslewood since Leon’s contribution points were sufficient for the promotion.

What he was unaware of was that Leon had not even reached the Overlord State, and had he known about it, he would have never agreed to give Leon a promotion so casually.

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1603

“Well...” Leon wavered.

Such an opportunity would not come easily, and he desperately wanted to become a Platinum Dragon Guard. However, this would require him to sacrifice five—thousand contribution points, which meant that he would not have any points left for the Angel’s Fruit.

Alfred saw through Leon’s concern and smiled. “Don’t worry, Leon. Being promoted as a Platinum Dragon Guard and obtaining the Angel’s Fruit don't contradict one another! I will send my men to start looking for an Angel's Fruit from today onward! You can keep earning contribution points during our search and once we obtain it, you can trade it with your points!"

"Yeah. That's true!" Leon agreed.

As Alfred had advised, Leon could be promoted to a Platinum Dragon Guard and trade his points for an Angel's Fruit once he accumulated enough points again.

"By the way, the Platinum Dragon Guards are the highest level of employment available here in the southern region branch. If you become a Platinum Dragon Guard, I can employ more resources and manpower, into the search, which would shorten the length of time needed by at least half!" Alfred added.

"Sure! Mister Glasbey, please proceed with the promotion!" Leon finally made his decision.

"I happen to have a spare Platinum Dragon Badge. I will edit your information right now." Alfred nodded and walked over to his desk to retrieve a badge from his drawer.

The badge had a similar texture to the Dragon Guard Badge, and the only difference was that apart from the word 'Dragon' carved onto the surface, there was the word 'Platinum' carved into the back of the badge.

It was a far more exquisite badge in comparison to the Dragon Guard Badge, and it symbolized the identity of a Platinum Dragon Guard.

On top of that, there were a total of five levels among the Platinum Dragon Guards, and Alfred was a second-level Platinum Dragon Guard.

Leon, on the other hand, was a fifth-level Platinum Dragon Guard, which meant that he was lower in status compared to Alfred, but the two were both Platinum Dragon Guards.

Sometime later, Alfred swiftly edited Leon's information and handed Leon his new badge before taking Leon's previous Dragon Guard Badge.

"Leon, you are a Platinum Dragon Guard starting today! I should be introducing you to your colleagues and announcing your success in eliminating Asmodeus, but since you are non-staff personnel, it's best that you keep a low profile. I hope you understand," Alfred said thoughtfully.

"Sure. That's what I want. Mister Glasbey, if this is all, I shall take my leave now," Leon said before leaving the office.

As soon as he walked outside, he bumped into two men in their late thirties around the corner.

Baam!

The two men were in a hurry and bumped directly into Leon.

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1604

Leon was caught off guard and was far too weak in comparison, so he fell backward before he could register what had happened.

The two men fumbled slightly but anchored themselves soon after.

"Kid, are you blind or something?!" A rough-looking man roared.

"You two are the ones who are blind!" Leon scowled and stood up in frustration.

"How dare you argue..." The man was furious, but his companion stopped him before he had the chance to lose his temper.

His companion, on the contrary to the man, looked gentle and understanding. “Abraham, it’s just a small accident. Why are you getting all riled up?” The man said before flashing Leon an apologetic smile, “We are in a bit of a hurry, young man. We didn’t mean to bump into you. Do forgive us.”

“It’s fine.” Since the other man seemed friendly, the tension on Leon’s face eased, and he strode off.

Abraham was agitated as he watched Leon leave. “Oliver, why did you do that? I don’t even recognize that kid. He is probably a new ordinary Dragon Guard. He has no manners at all! It’s bad enough that he didn’t bow when he saw us. Why would you apologize to him? That doesn’t make sense!” Abraham protested angrily.

He did not know who Leon was, but since Leon seemed young, he had assumed that Leon was an ordinary Dragon Guard.

Both Abraham Scottson and Oliver Jelphs were second-level Gold Dragon Guards, and all ordinary Dragon Guards were required to bow to them. However, Leon had not shown them any respect, and Abraham was fuming.

“Forget it. We are in a hurry to see Mister Glasbey, so just let it go!” Oliver shook his head with a smile.

He knew that Abraham was hot-tempered, so he did not bother arguing.

“That’s right! We need to keep our heads in the game!” Abraham’s rage depleted as soon as it rose, and he immediately darted toward Alfred’s office with Oliver.

Inside the office, Alfred poured himself a glass of water after Leon left and heard someone knocking on the door.

Oliver and Abraham came in and bowed. “Greetings, Mister Glasbey.”

“Oliver? Why are you two here?” Alfred asked in confusion.

“Mister Glasbey, we heard that one of the top eight criminals, Asmodeus, has been eliminated! Is that true?” Abraham asked hastily.

“That’s right! Asmodeus is dead. His death will be announced later and I will inform the central region branch to remove his name from the criminal list!” Alfred nodded.

Asmodeus was one of the criminals on the criminal list, and there were a total of five regions in Sky County. Apart from announcing Asmodeus’s death, he needed to inform the Dragon Corps branches in other regions about it as well to prevent them from wasting resources on the search for Asmodeus.

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1605

“That’s great! The gods are just! He is finally dead!”

Both Abraham and Oliver burst into joyous laughter at Alfred’s words.

Oliver was usually composed but seemed more excited than Abraham and started tearing up.

Two powerful martial artists had been killed on the mission to eliminate Asmodeus in the past, and one of them was Oliver’s elder brother, while the other one was a relative of Abraham. Hence, when they heard that Asmodeus had been killed, they both rushed to see Alfred in person.

“Mister Glasbey, who killed him? Where is this person right now?” Oliver asked eagerly, desperately wanting to find the person who avenged his brother.

“Well...” Alfred hesitated. He could empathize with how the two men before him felt, but Leon preferred to keep a low profile, and Alfred was in no position to tell them anything about Leon.

“Oliver, it’s classified information! Don’t ask any more questions,” Alfred said.

“Classified? Why?”

Both Abraham and Oliver were shocked and turned to look at each other in confusion.

Asmodeus was one of the top criminals in Sky County, and anyone who managed to eliminate such a threat should be proud of themselves. They could not understand why Alfred would hide the person’s identity.

“But... Mister Glasbey, you know our background. Please tell us who killed Asmodeus. We want to thank this hero in person,” Oliver pleaded earnestly.

“Yeah! Just tell us, Mister Glasbey! We promise that we will never breathe a word to another soul!” Abraham begged.

“But...” Alfred took a sip of his water and fell into silence.

Though Leon’s identity was best concealed, he understood how Oliver and Abraham felt, and it would be unreasonable for him to deny them the chance to show their gratitude.

Since Leon had been promoted and became a Platinum Dragon Guard, he would need two subordinates to assist him, and Abraham and Oliver were perfect for the positions. Since the two were to become Leon’s subordinates, it did not seem to matter for them to learn about Leon’s true identity.

“Alright, I will tell you! Leon Wolf was the one who killed Asmodeus. He’s the young man who just walked out of my office! I’m sure you’ve run into him just now, right?” Alfred said.

The two stepped into his office almost as soon as Leon left, so it was not hard to guess that the three had run into one another outside the door.

“What? Him?!”

“How is that possible?!”

Abraham’s and Oliver’s jaws dropped. They both knew how powerful Asmodeus was and that only martial artists in the Almighty State or above could defeat him.

None of them had ever expected a young man like Leon to be the hero who defeated Asmodeus. It was so far beyond their imagination that they struggled to comprehend Alfred’s words.

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1606

“Why isn’t it possible? Leon is a Platinum Dragon Guard now and I intend on making you two work for him! He will be your direct superior from now on!” Alfred explained.

Since Leon was non-staff personnel, he would not be seen frequently at the base. Alfred had arranged for two men to work for Leon to assist Leon whenever Leon was in need, but mostly he wished to reach Leon through Oliver and Abraham whenever there was a mission for Leon.

“He is a Platinum Dragon Guard?”

Oliver and Abraham were stunned.

Abraham, who bumped into Leon earlier, thought that Leon was only a new Dragon Guard and mocked him for having no manners. Had Oliver not stopped him, he would have tried to fight Leon.

To his bewilderment, Leon turned out to be a Platinum Dragon Guard, and to make things more awkward, Alfred had arranged for them to work under Leon. Needless to say, Abraham felt both uncomfortable and shocked.

“What’s wrong with the two of you?” Alfred asked in confusion.

“Mister Glasbey, we will report to Mister Wolf right away.”

Oliver recovered from the shock and left the office with Abraham.

Not daring to delay another moment, the two instantly ran in the same direction Leon went.

Meanwhile, in the holding cell at the National Security Department, Leon stayed behind because he had yet to settle the matter concerning the Black Gorilla.

At the moment, he was questioning the Black Gorilla in the hope that he would admit to his crimes. “Black Gorilla, this is your last chance! Admit to your crimes and repent for your mistakes. I will get the Dragon Corps to release you in a few years if you do. Otherwise, you will remain here for the rest of your life!” Leon said coldly.

He knew that an infamous thug, the Black Gorilla, had done unspeakable act s, but the collection of proof would take too much time, and it would be i deal if the Black Gorilla were willing to admit to his crimes.

“It’s not happening! Don’t try to scare me, Leon. I don’t scare easily! I’m warning you. Let me go right now, or I’m filing a complaint against you to a Gold Dragon Guard or Platinum Dragon Guard!” The Black Gorilla sneered in contempt.

“Why you...! You just won’t give up, would you? File a complaint if that’s what you want to do. I look forward to seeing what you are capable of!” Leon sneered.

He would be worried about the Black Gorilla’s threat a while ago, but since he had risen to the ranks of Platinum Dragon Guards, he had no fear of a complaint.

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1607

“Very well. You asked for this! Somebody! Take me to see a Gold Dragon Guard! I’m going to make a complaint about Leon Wolf!” the Black Gorilla shouted arrogantly as he walked toward the door of the holding cell in the hope of catching the others’ attention.

Once a Gold Dragon Guard or Platinum Dragon Guard got involved, Leon would be punished for abusing his power to imprison the Black Gorilla.

Baam! Baam!

As though his call was answered, Oliver and Abraham opened the door and walked inside.

“What’s going on?”

“Who is shouting?”

Oliver and Abraham were both confused.

They ran all the way to the National Security Department and ran into Captain Scots, who told them that Leon was in the holding cell, so they hurried over to meet Leon.

As soon as they walked into the area, they heard the Black Gorilla yelling, and both of them were confused by the situation.

“This is perfect!” The Black Gorilla was pleased to see Oliver and Abraham.

As one of the Southern Boss’s subordinates, he had countless encounters with the Dragon Corps in the past, and though he did not know Oliver, he had seen Abraham a few times before.

He knew that Abraham was a Gold Dragon Guard and a top-tier one at that. Just as he wanted to file a complaint against Leon, Abraham appeared right before him, and the Black Gorilla was overjoyed.

“Mister Scottson, you came at the right time! I want to complain about his kid, Leon Wolf, for abusing his power...” The Black Gorilla pointed at Leon and started making accusations.

“What?” Abraham froze.

Alfred had assigned both Abraham and Oliver to be Leon’s subordinates, which made Leon their direct superior, yet the Black Gorilla was foolish enough to complain about their superior in front of them.

“Black Gorilla, have you gone mad? Who are you to complain about Mister Wolf? Do you have a death wish?!”

Enraged, Abraham kicked the Black Gorilla away.

He had seen the Black Gorilla in the past and knew that he was hardly a decent man.

Abraham was a hot-tempered man, and had Leon not been in the room, he would have given the Black Gorilla a beating.

“Mister Scottson, wh...what are you doing?” The Black Gorilla was frustrated and crawled up from the ground. Soon, realization dawned on him that Abraham might be protecting Leon because the two knew each other in private. “So, you two are working together! I want to see a Platinum Dragon Guard. I’m going to file a complaint about the two of you working together to abuse your power!” he roared.

Since Abraham was determined to protect Leon, the Black Gorilla could only take his complaint to a higher level.

He refused to believe that a Platinum Dragon Guard would protect Leon as well because that would defeat the meaning of the Dragon Corps’ existence in the first place

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1608

. The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1608

“You want to meet with a Platinum Dragon Guard? Sure! Mister Wolf here is a Platinum Dragon Guard! Make your complaint to him, then!” Abraham sneered and shot the Black Gorilla a look of contempt.

The Black Gorilla was utterly stunned by his words. “What? Did you just say that L eon is a Platinum Dragon Guard?! How is that possible?!” The Black Gorilla gaped in disbelief.

Outside the entrance to the National Security Department, he saw that Leon was only an ordinary Dragon Guard, and to his bewilderment, Leon had transformed into a Platinum Dragon Guard within a matter of minutes.

“We are both second-level Gold Dragon Guard, Abraham and Oliver. Greetings, Mister Wolf ...”

Abraham ignored the Black Gorilla and bowed alongside Oliver toward Leon.

“What the...” The Black Gorilla was shocked as he confirmed that Leon was a Platinum Dragon Guard.

In his knowledge, the Platinum Dragon Guards were the highest level one could reach within the Dragon Corps in the southern region, and if Leon were already at the highest level in the organization, he would not be able to file a complaint about Leon.

His heart sank at the realization.

“Gold Dragon Guard? Why are you two here?” Leon scanned Abraham and Oliver in confusion.

Despite the minor conflict outside Alfred’s office, it was not significant, and since Oliver had apologized, Leon put the conflict behind him, so he was surprised that the two had come looking for him.

“Sir, Mister Glasbey has assigned us as your subordinates...” Oliver explained Alfred’s arrangement briefly.

“I see! I appreciate the gesture!” Leon was overjoyed and beamed.

Since he was a non-staff personnel, he would encounter difficulty in carrying out his duty. However, with two subordinates to assist him, everything would be much easier.

Before Leon could say anything, Oliver fell onto his knees.

Abraham hesitated for a moment before doing the same.

“What are the two of you doing? Get up!” Startled, Leon immediately reached out to help the two up.

“You probably don’t know this, but my older brother and Abraham’s relative died trying to arrest Asmodeus... Thank you for avenging our loved ones...” Oliver explained gratefully.

“I see!” Leon finally understood why the two had kneeled before him all of a sudden.

“Abraham, Oliver, please get up! Asmodeus is a ruthless man and eliminating him is simply my duty. You don’t have to thank me...” Leon said in a much gentler tone as he helped the two up.

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1609

“Mister Wolf, we can never repay what you’ve done for us... From now on, just let us know whatever you need and we will do our best to deliver...” Oliver and Abraham said earnestly.

Not only had Leon avenged the deaths of their loved ones, but Leon had also become their direct superior, and they were both more than willing to head Leon’s every command.

“You don’t have to be so serious...” Leon shook his head with a smile when an idea popped up in his mind. “I do have something that I need your help with, though!”

“What is it?”

“Anything you want, Sir!”

Oliver and Abraham both said.

“The Black Gorilla has committed countless crimes, but refuses to admit to any of them! Look into his past in the next few days and gather as much proof as you can! I want him to remain in prison for the rest of his life!” Leon commanded fiercely.

He had meant to be merciful and tried to offer the Black Gorilla a chance to reflect on his faults, but he refused to do so, which enraged Leon.

‘If that’s the case, he can rot in prison for the rest of his life!’ Leon thought.

“Yes!” Oliver and Abraham said in unison.

“Don’t...” The Black Gorilla collapsed onto the ground, feeling as though he had been struck by lightning.

He had only dared to challenge Leon’s authority because he assumed that Leon was at too low a level to rival the Southern Boss, who was the ruler of the southern region.

The Dragon Corps was dedicated to maintaining order and would rarely attack people as influential as the Southern Boss over insignificant matters. However, Leon had transformed into a Platinum Dragon Guard, putting him on the very top of the pyramid, and even the Southern Boss would have to be cautious around

Leon.

Even if Leon were determined to kill the Black Gorilla, the Southern Boss would not be able to protect him.

All underground activities fell in the gray areas of the legal system, and though the Black Gorilla had been careful, the Dragon Corps was more than capable of finding proof of his crimes in order to sentence him to prison for the rest of his life.

“Leon... Wait, no. Mister Wolf, I confess. I am willing to confess...” the Black Gorilla shouted, the arrogance on his face vanishing without a trace.

Though he might face imprisonment for a few years if he confessed to his crime, it was a far more desirable option in comparison to a lifetime sentence, and he was smart enough to tell the difference.

“Why haven’t you done so earlier? It’s too late for a confession!” Leon sneered and ignored the Black Gorilla before turning to leave with Oliver and Abraham.

He had given the Black Gorilla multiple chances to confess to his crimes, but since the Black Gorilla refused to take the chances, Leon saw no point in being merciful.

“But...” The Black Gorilla gaped.

He had finally offered to confess but did not expect Leon to lose patience and refuse to listen.

Instantly, he realized just how foolish he had been to cross Leon, but it was all too late.

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 1610

“Mister Wolf, don't go... I was wrong. I will confess now. Please give me another chance...” The Black Gorilla caved as he watched Leon and the others leave the room. He crawled toward Leon and pleaded for another chance.

“It's not happening! I told you that it's too late! Save your confession for the prison you end up in!” Leon scoffed and shoved the Black Gorilla aside before striding toward the door.

As Leon opened the door, the Black Gorilla knew that he would never see the sun again once Leon left, and at that very moment, a thought formed in his mind.

“Mister Wolf, wait... Charlie Martell is the person who asked me to attack you!” he shouted out the truth about his attack.

“What?!” Leon paused. “What did you just say, Black Gorilla? Did you say that Charlie Martell sent you to attack me?” Leon narrowed his eyes coldly and turned around.

“Yeah...” The Black Gorilla nodded and proceeded to explain everything in detail.

“Damn you, Charlie Martell! How dare you?!” Leon was furious. He thought that the Black Gorilla attacked him with the intention of stealing the Spiritual Pearl and had never imagined learning that Charlie was the one pulling the strings.

Despite knowing that Iris was Leon's girlfriend, Charlie proposed to marry her, and on top of that, he ordered the Black Gorilla to attack Leon in secret.

Needless to say, Leon was fuming.

“How dare he?! Sir, just say the word and we will arrest Charlie Martell right away!” Oliver and Abraham said angrily.

Not only was Leon their superior, but he had also avenged their loved ones' deaths, and they could not stand idly by as Charlie schemed against Leon.

“Well...” Leon's expression darkened.

His first thought was to arrest Charlie, but he immediately cast the thought aside.

He had not suffered any injury, and even if he had managed to capture Charlie, Charlie would only be locked away for a short period of time. Since Leon's identity was meant to be a secret, having two Dragon Guards arrest Charlie might expose his connection to the Dragon Corps, which would only cause him trouble.

“Forget it! I will remember what he did and make him pay when the chance presents itself!” Leon made his decision swiftly.

The Black Gorilla might have blamed it all on Charlie, but Leon knew that Charlie was in no position to command the Black Gorilla, who worked for the Southern Boss. However, since Cynthion Group had just started its business in the southern region, Leon was powerless compared to the Southern Boss.

Since he was not injured from the attack, he could only be patient for the bigger picture and make the ones who plotted against him pay when he had the chance.
