The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 164

Ariel stepped back and looked at Leon in shock.

A woman's period usually lasted only around six to seven days each month, but she was having it for ten days. Her period kept on continuing without any signs of stopping. It was very unusual.

That was not the main point. The main point was that it was her private affair. She could not understand how Leon knew and in such detail!

It was hard to believe!

"Didn't I tell you before? I know some medicine. I managed to tell from your complexion..." Leon said simply.

"Are you being serious? Are you trying to lie to me?!" Ariel looked at Leon doubtfully.

The first time Leon said that, she thought that Leon was deliberately teasing her.

Yet, this time, Leon seemed to be able to tell that something was wrong with her body. She was a bit caught off guard. Could Leon really know some medicine?
