The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 113

Iris was his weak point. He was furious that the man teased Iris!

He already showed a lot of restraint by not blowing up on the spot!

“What? How dare you talk to me like that?! Do you want to die?! Say that again if you have the guts to!”
The man got angry.

Right after he said that the window at the back of the car dropped. Two men dressed like hooligans looked out.

Another man sat in the passenger seat in front as well. A total of four of them glared at Leon fiercely.

“I can say that again if you want. I asked you to get lose...” Leon was calm and not scared at all. Before he could finish, Iris suddenly pulled his arm and stopped him.

“Leon, forget it. Just ignore them. Let’s not let our good mood get ruined because of them,” Iris shook her head.

She would always illicit strange looks wherever she went because she was too pretty. She was already used to it...

Furthermore, there were four of them. Leon was only one person. If a fight broke out, Leon would not be at an advantage.
