The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 136

Leopard had a panic-stricken look on his face, and he trembled with fear.

The aura that those bodyguards exuded were very powerful, and there were faint waves of true energy that belied the fact that they were all martial artists!

Their refinement fundamentals were very good too, and Shane's was the highest and most enigmatic of them all! Leopard would easily be crushed in the face of those skilled fighters. The desperation in his heart was indescribable, and he did not dare to muster the courage to resist!

"I didn't know your true identity, Miss Young. I didn't mean to offend you. Please show us some mercy and spare us just this once..." Leopard's face was ashen, and he quickly knelt in front of Iris to beg for mercy.

He was a martial artist for so many years and made many enemies along the way. If his limbs were broken, death was almost a certainty for him in the future, and even his wife and children will suffer together with him!

The consequence was too big a burden for him to bear.
