

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2197

Chapter 2197

"It's over..." The Scarlet Thief despaired.

Henry and Chandler were in his way, and Leon was charging at him from behind, which meant that all ways of escaping had been blocked and escape was impossible.

However, as one of the most notorious men on the criminal list, he was not someone who would simply wait to be killed without fighting back.

Henry, Chandler, you two asked for this! Even if I'm destined to die today, I'm taking the two of you with me! Take this! Fiery Serpent!"

The Scarlet Thief ignored Leon and launched his best attack, the Fiery Serpent.

The true energy around his fist transformed into the shape of a dragon and was sent toward Henry and Chandler in a flash.

Bring it on, Scarlet Thief!" Henry and Chandler gritted their teeth and faced the attack bravely with all their might.

They both knew that the Scarlet Thief was far more powerful than they were. Although they might not be his match if they chose to face him directly, they had no other choice, as their formation with Leon would be ruined if they moved to dodge the Scarlet Thief's attack. Should that happen, the Scarlet Thief would have a chance to escape.

Considering what the Scaled Thief had done to them in the past, they would rather die than give him a chance to escape.

"Come on! Let us settle this once and for all!" The Scarlet Thief sneered, his face twisting with fearful determination.

He knew that it was unlikely for him to get away, so he gave up entirely, deciding to kill Henry and Chandler before his demise.

The Scarlet Thief resented Leon the most out of the trio, but Leon was far too strong, and he could not even break through Leon's defense, so it would be impossible for him to injure Leon. Hence, he could only vent his anger on Henry and Chandler instead.

Following a deafening sound, the Scarlet Thief's Fiery Serpent clashed with the energies released by Henry and Chandler.

Henry and Chandler were powerless before the attack and flew into the distance.

Thankfully, the Scarlet Thief was severely injured, and his attack was no longer as powerful. Thus, it only managed to send the two flying without actually causing any severe damage to them.

"Die, you two!" The Scarlet Thief sneered and launched yet another Fiery Serpent at Henry and Chandler, who were still on the ground, in hopes of killing them with a single blow.

Henry reacted swiftly and got up to back away, narrowly escaping the Scarlet Thief's attack.

Chandler, on the other hand, was not as lucky.

Due to his handicapped leg, the Scarlet Thief's attack was already right in front of his eyes by the time he managed to get up with the help of his crutch.
