

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2213

Chapter 2213

Meanwhile, in the living room where the Southern Boss resided, the Southern Boss gathered his guardians and Four Apostles to wait for updates from the Scarlet Thief.

"This is strange! It's been a while, so why hasn't the Scarlet Thief contacted us? Is it possible that he has an accident like the Third Guardian?" The Southern Boss's expression darned and stood from his seat.

He exposed the whereabouts of Leon and Henry to the Scarlet Thief earlier that morning, and Scarlet Thief departed instantly to hunt them down.

The Southern Boss and the Scarlet Thief reached an agreement for Leon to be eliminated as well, as in return, the Scarlet Thief was to be rewarded handsomely and the Southern Boss would assist the Scarlet Thief's escape from the Dragon Corps.

The day was almost over, yet the Scarlet Thief did not report back to the Southern Boss, which was baffling.

The Southern Boss could not help but recall what happened to the Third, Fifth, and Sixth Guardians and realized that the Scarlet Thief might have suffered the same fate.

"That won't happen! Southern Boss, you're worried over nothing! The Scarlet Thief has reached the Intermediate Almighty State with close to no rival here in the southern region! He won't fail like the guardians who were sent after Leon the last time," Grand Apostle said.

"Yeah, Grand Apostle is right! Even the Dragon Corps has been struggling to take the Scarlet Thief down, so Leon can't possibly survive!"

The other Apostles and guardians agreed along.

"Yeah, you're right!" The Southern Boss agreed as well.

The Scarlet Thief was cunning and powerful, so even the Southern Boss himself and Arthur, who were in the Advanced Almighty State, would struggle to defeat the Scarlet Thief, let alone Leon.

Like others, the Southern Boss did not think that Leon could survive the Scarlet Thief's assassination.

If everything went as planned, Leon's demise was certain.

Just as they all were absorbed in the fantasy of having Leon out of the picture, what happened next shook them to their core.

"Sir," Footsteps approached and a member of the Spears ran inside.

"What's going on? Have you heard something from the Scarlet Thief?" The Southern Boss's heart sank and turned to look at the man.

The others turned their attention to the man who rushed in as well.

"Southern Boss, I've just been informed that the Dragon Corps announced the execution of the Scarlet Thief not long ago," The man kneeled and said.

"What?!"

Jaws dropped and everyone stood from their seats in shock.

They were only discussing how Leon could not escape the Scarlet Thief, and to their bewilderment, not only had the Scarlet Thief failed, but he also got killed in the process.

This was so unexpected that none of them knew how to respond.
