

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 2257

Chapter 2257

"It's like this. Yonas wants to buy thirty percent of our shares with three hundred thousand dollars," Iris explained before she briefly went through everything that happened.

"Yonas is crossing the line!"

Leon was furious after he heard Iris' explanation!

Yonas did not only use despicable means to try to forcibly take Elegante's shares, he even slapped Iris!

That was just too much!

It was obvious how angry he was at that moment!

On the other hand, since Leon appeared, Yonas stopped fighting Roanne.

The two experts from the Thompsons stopped pursuing Iris as well. They returned to Yonas's side.

"Leon, you came at the perfect time! This is three hundred thousand in cash. It's the price for Elegante's shares! As long as you hand over your shares to me, I'll forget this ever happened! Otherwise, don't blame me for what will follow!" Yonas said coldly.

As he said that, he took out the cash and tossed it to Leon like he was giving out money to a beggar. The threat in his voice was evident.

On top of that, he even instructed the two experts to capture

Iris to force Leon to hand over Elegante's shares.

However, with Leon already there, he did not need to do anything to Iris anymore!

"I'm not selling!" Leon spat out coldly.

"You're not selling? Am I hearing things?" Yonas was stunned. He could not believe his ears!

He thought that Leon needed the Thompsons to even survive and that he was in complete control of Leon!novelxo

Yet, he never would have expected that Leon would reject his request. Leon even did it so quickly!

It caught him completely off guard!

"Leon, you better think about it! The fact that you managed to achieve so much is all thanks to the protection and help of the Thompsons! If you don't hand over the shares of Elegante, then the Southern Boss will kill you as easily as an ant without the protection of our family! You should just decide for yourself what to do!" Yonas said with a sneer on his face, trying to threaten Leon and force Leon to listen!

"Are you done with your nonsense? Yonas, I'll give you one chance since you're a Thompson! As long as you break your arm and apologize to Iris, earning her forgiveness, I'll consider letting you live! Otherwise, you'll suffer the consequences!" Leon said coldly with a murderous glint in his eyes.

Even at that point, he did not attack Yonas because of the Thompsons.

The Thompsons helped him so much before. In particular, Arthur stepped up to help him against the Southern Boss during Cynthion Group's sales drive. That was something he did not forget!

Yonas was a Thompson in the end, and was even the heir of the second line of direct descendants!

If things got too big, it was possible his relationship with the Thompsons could be destroyed. They could end up becoming enemies!

That was not something he wanted to see!

However, Yonas slapped Iris. It crossed the line far too much. He could not just sit back and let that happen!

In the end, he gave Yonas a chance to apologize for Arthur and the Thompsons' sake!

That was already a huge act of mercy!

Of course, if Yonas did not accept it, then he could not be blamed!