Chapter 2274

Chapter 2274

"What? So the two of you were targeting Leon!"

Yonas was shocked after he heard Rodney's plan.

He finally understood that Rodney and Joel were not trying to scare him. They did want to kill him!

Furthermore, Rodney and Joel were already ready. They would let Leon shoulder the blame!

It had to be said that the evil plan was flawless. It was so venomous that he was shocked!

With that in mind, he shuddered. He could no longer keep the calm look on his face!

"Yonas, I've already revealed the full truth to you! That way, at least you'll die while knowing why! It's time for you to rest in peace!" Rodney said with a cruel smile on his face. He had a murderous glint in his eyes.

It was obvious that he was already done toying with Yonas, and he already vented his frustrations. He was already prepared to attack Yonas!

"No-"

Men, hurry up and save me!" Yonas shouted out. It was the first time in his life that he genuinely feared for his life!

Right after that, he could no longer hold back his fear as he frantically started to shout!

Yet, Norm and Sully were looking for a doctor for him. The only people in the large villa were the ones in that room!

Even if he ruined his throat shouting, no one would save him!

"Yonas, don't struggle unnecessarily! Just accept your death! Fourth Apostle, kill him! Make sure to make it clean. Don't leave any clues or traces!" Rodney said with a cold laugh, ordering the Fourth Apostle behind him.

"Yes!" The Fourth Apostle acknowledged.

After that, he shot forward with immense force as he quickly rushed to Yonas.

"No, you can't kill me. I'm still young, I don't want to die," Yonas said with a look of shock and fear on his face. His heart sank to the depths.

Since Rodney and the others were at the door, there was nowhere for Yonas to run!

However, he refused to accept his death like that!

So, he frantically started to run to the window as he tried to jump out of it!

Do you think you can run?!" The Fourth Apostle said coldly.

After that, he sped forward in a blur, rapidly appearing in front of Yonas and cutting Yonas off!

After that, he reared his fist and immediately attacked Yonas with imperious might!

"Crap!"

Yonas's heart turned cold when he felt the impressive true energy coming from the Fourth Apostle. He frantically retreated and tried to avoid the attack!

Yet, he was only at the intermediate Emperor State. He was nowhere near the Fourth Apostle, who was already at the intermediate Almighty State, in strength!

No matter how he tried, he could not avoid the Fourth Apostle's attack at all. He was forced to state as the Fourth Apostle's attack landed!

Bang!

With a loud sound, the Fourth Apostle's fist landed right on Yonas's chest!

Yonas was dealt a heavy blow, and he spat out a mouthful of blood as he was sent flying a few meters back, slamming heavily onto the ground!

"You!"

He fell, and Yonas's heart was stopped. His angered eyes viciously glared at Rodney and the others.

After that, his head tilted down and he breathed his last breath.
