The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 351

Horsen let out a proud smile. He could vaguely see Leon's apprehension and started to feel more confident.

"You're right! No matter who you are, you're looking to die if you go against my father!" At that moment, cold laugh was heard.

Right after that, a young man who was about twenty-three of age led a few subordinates and walked in the room.

The young man was quite handsome, and he looked quite gentle, but the aura around him was as sharp as a knife.

Who was he? He was the Southern King's son, Fane Poole.

"Mister Poole, you came at just the right time!" Horsen looked incredibly happy as he hurried over to show his respect.

Right at that moment, a man suddenly appeared behind Fane.

It was no one else but Mason Shelton!

"Mister Poole, please don't get angry. Let me introduce you to Mister Wolf. He's the Leon Wolf that I've mentioned to you before! He's not just a Supreme Master, he's even related to the Shears!"

"Both Harvey and Cynthia Shear are his friends," Mason introduced.

"What? He's Mister Wolf?!" Fane was stunned.

Mason was only at the Peak Acquired Stage before. It was something everyone knew. However, during his altercation with Xander Long, he suddenly improved to the Intermediate Innate Stage.

In just a few days, Mason's power improved by two whole levels. It was something unbelievable to martial artists!

Was that not too unbelievable?

However, when they remembered Mason's introduction, they quickly realized what happened.

Mason clearly said that Leon was a Supreme Master, and even had a relationship with the Shears.

They were no fighters, so they did not know what a Supreme Master was, but the Shears were one of the four great families in Springfield City. They had long since heard of the Shears!

The fact that Leon had a relationship with the Shears meant there was no way Leon was a useless piece of trash like they thought!

Could Leon be someone amazing?

Everyone started to realize the fact, and all of them went numb from the shock!

"Mister Poole, y—you're being too polite. I wouldn't dare," Leon never expected Fane to apologize, and he was caught off guard.

However, he quickly realized that Fane tried to be friendly, and did not plan on making an enemy of him.

"It wasn't such a big deal, you don't need to do all this. However, I should still give you some advice. I hope you won't be so tyrannical in the future," Leon said.

He was not someone petty. He never planned on holding Horsen responsible anyway.

Furthermore, Horsen apologized so sincerely just now, there was no way he could.

"Thank you. Thank you for being merciful, Mister Wolf." Horsen stood up happily.

"Horsen, tell me. What exactly happened? What went on between you and Mister Wolf?" Fane asked calmly.

Even though Leon already forgave Horsen, he still needed to find out exactly what happened.

If Horsen did anything evil that went against the rules of the underworld, he would not let Horsen off easily even if Leon forgave him!

Everything destroyed him mentally.

“What a weak character! There’s no point in you begging!” Fane looked at Theodore in disdain.

Initially, he thought that Theodore should have been someone with some backbone to dare to go against Leon.

He never expected Theodore to be so weak!

The underworld always respected those with resolve. If Theodore had more of a backbone, Fane might have looked upon Theodore better.

Looking at how Theodore acted, he felt even more contempt.

Seeing that Fane was not moved by it at all, Theodore felt a chill in his heart.

However, he already agreed to let Fane deal with the whole thing. If he went against his words, it might end up offending Fane. It was not too appropriate.

Seeing as Leon seemed to have a lot he wanted to say to Fane, Theodore did not let the chance slip. He continued to plead as he shot Joey a secret look, hoping that Joey would help.

Joey immediately understood what Theodore wanted.

Even though he wanted to protect himself and did not want to be dragged down, the Wyatt Group was his family's biggest client. His family's little company relied on the Wyatt Group to survive.

If the Wyatt Group ended up being destroyed, then his company would follow suit as well!

On the other hand, if he managed to help Theodore past this problematic spot, Theodore would treat him well in the future. Then, with the Wyatt Group's help, his family's company would be successful!

"Leon, Theodore looks like he's about to cry. I think he already knows his mistakes. Why don't we just let this be?" Janice walked over to Leon and said.

"Oh, alright," Leon said after a moment.

He never planned on doing something so drastic to Theodore. Since Janice voiced it out, he agreed.

“Mister Poole, thank you for this. I’ll remember the favor. However, I feel like forgiveness is something important. I don’t think this is such a big deal, so why don’t we just spare him,” Leon said.

Even though it might offend Fane a bit, he indicated that he would remember the favor. He did not think that Fane would be unhappy over something so small.

“Alright, we’ll do as you say,” Fane was very carefree.

He just wanted to gain some favor with Leon anyway. Since Leon already accepted it, he did not care about anything else.

Fane did not have any hidden injuries, so there was no way he could do the same.

Furthermore, he was only in the Intermediate Acquired State when it came to martial arts. He was a far cry from Fane.

Even if he wanted to give Fane some pointers, he could not.

“So that’s how it is, I was overthinking it,” Fane was very disappointed.

In truth, he knew that martial artists needed to go one step at a time. There were no true shortcuts..

Leon shook his head in rejection.

The Energy Nurturing Pills that were with him were the ones with the best effects.

He wanted to leave them for himself, Iris and Louisa, so he could not sell them to anyone else.

Earlier, he was willing to give one to Fane because he owed Fane a favor.

“Are you really not going to sell any? I don’t need that many. Even three or five will do...” Fane did not give up.

Even though he did not know where Fane got those pills from, he knew that the Energy Nurturing Pills were amazing things for martial artists. It was incredibly rare, so Leon not being willing to sell it was normal.

“Leon?” Janice finally remembered how she used Leon earlier.

‘Mom, you misunderstood. Leon’s just my good friend. He’s not my boyfriend. I just used him to act as my boyfriend to stop the engagement just now,” Janice smiled awkwardly.

“What? He’s not your boyfriend?” Leanne felt like she was struck by lightning. Her smile immediately froze on her face.

“Mom, what happened to you?” Janice asked strangely.

“No, that’s impossible! He admitted he was your boyfriend just now. How could he be pretending?!” Leanne shook her head, unable to accept that cruel truth.

“Didn’t I say that he was just playing along with me? He’s not my boyfriend,” Janice explained.

Seeing as her daughter did not seem to be lying Leanne's mood sank, unable to accept it.

"Janice, Don't be stupid! It doesn't matter if Leon is your boyfriend or not. He didn't make a clear rejection just now. It means that he should be somewhat interested in you. It's fine if he's not your boyfriend right now. You have to seize your chances in the future. Make sure he quickly becomes your boyfriend!" Leanne advised.
