The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 501

She was the daughter of the Doyle Family and while the Doyle Family was far from powerful compared to the Shear Family, Sandra was raised like a princess and had no respect for an assistant.

"Cynthia, allow me to introduce you to my boyfriend, Leonard, Leonard, this is my best friend from college, the daughter of the Shear Family, Cynthia." Sandra ignored Leon and pulled the young man behind her forward, before proceeding to introduce them.

"Miss Shear, I've heard a lot about your family. It's my pleasure to get to know you." Leonard smiled politely as he extended his hand to shake Cynthia.

"Oh, hello!" Still upset that Leon did not claim to be her boyfriend, Cynthia responded casually and ignored the hand extended toward her.

It was a once-in-a-lifetime chance for him.

If he managed to get Cynthia to agree to a partnership, he would have become the hero of the family that demanded respect and could potentially rise to a position of power.

"Well, I'll think about the partnership," Cynthia said hesitantly without giving a clear stance.

While extending Cynthion Group's operation to other cities could be considered a good thing, the supply of Energy Nurturing Pills was hardly even enough to fulfill the demand in Springfield City alone, and supplying the pills to other markets would not be possible at this time.

However, extending to overseas markets would happen sooner or later if Cynthion Group wished for a brighter future.

Cynthion Group would eventually need to distribute its supply to neighboring cities, or they might risk saturating the market in Springfield City. As a long-term strategy, Cynthion needed to begin extending its operation to other markets. "Yeah, sure." The scowl on Cynthia's face eased. She plotted to travel with Leon alone so that they could go sightseeing together and Sandra's suggestion was precisely what Cynthia wanted.

Afterward, the group left the hotel for sightseeing.

A black racing car was parked in the hotel parking lot; it was a brand-new car that Leonard purchased with Seacove City was situated next to the sea and was known to hold many beautiful sceneries and famous sightseeing spots.

Sandra planned a sightseeing route in the system built into the car and the group traveled down the path through countless breathtaking sceneries. With Sandra as their tour guide, the group had a blast.

However, Leonard followed Cynthia around to fawn over her the entire time as he focused on getting her to agree on a partnership.

Sandra felt annoyed by her boyfriend’s lack of manners and occasionally spoke to Leon out of courtesy, but since she did not know Leon well, the two did not have much to discuss and she only managed to say a few “Miss Shear, enjoy. I need to run to the washroom,” Leonard said, before walking out of the room.

As soon as he faced his back at the three, his smile dropped.

The partnership with Cynthion Group meant the world to him as it determined if he would be able to rise to a position of power within his family.

The Panax was extremely important to Leon and a partnership in exchange meant nothing. As far as the disrespect Leonard showed him so far, Leon was not as narrow as to hold a grudge against him over such a thing.

“Um,” Sandra shot a confused look at Cynthia.

Since Leon introduced himself as an assistant, Sandra would need Cynthia’s, instead of Leon’s approval on it.

“Yeah. What Leon said. If Mister Hines can get us the Panax, I’ll agree to the partnership.” Cynthia nodded.

“Okay. It’s a deal, then,” Sandra said with a relieved smile.

Just then, the door was pushed open and Leonard returned to the room.

"Mister Hines, thank you for showing us around today." Leon smiled politely and raised his glass.

Both Cynthia and Sandra were young women who just graduated from college. Neither of them had the habit of drinking, so they were drinking juice instead.

The four raised their glasses and cheered.

Seeing how Cynthia finished the juice in her glass, Leonard's eyes lit up slyly.

They drank a few more glasses under Leonard's lead and Leon soon noticed that something was not right. He glanced at Cynthia's glass and came to a realization.

"Cynthia, show me your glass," he said as an ominous feeling took over him.

"You! You have no shame!" Cynthia roared.

Leon remained composed. "Leonard, Cynthia is Miss Doyle's best friend and you're trying to sleep with her? Aren't you worried that Miss Doyle would be upset?"

He had a whole plan ahead to make Cynthia his and take photos and videos of her in compromising positions so that he could blackmail her into making him the partner of Cynthion Group.

With the videos and photos in hand, he would not have to fear retaliation from Cynthia and could have her wrapped around his fingers.
