The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 601

Haroon spat blood as soon as he landed, sensing that his ribs were broken.

Chaos erupted in the crowd.

"Are we seeing this right?"

"L- Leon defeated Haroon with one move?"

"H- How is that possible?"

Everyone, including the Fields, the Shears, and the Collins, was taken by surprise. They were certain that Leon would not survive three attacks from Haroon and did not expect Leon to defeat Haroon, a martial artist who was almost at the Advanced Supreme State, with one punch.

Everyone assumed that Leon reached the Advanced Supreme State and were all impressed by his talent.

With Leon's skill in alchemy and his talent in martial arts combined, he would soon become someone who ruled over Springfield City.

"Rumor has it that anyone who gets the help of the alchemist working for the Shears will rule over Springfield City! I guess that's true!"

Vincent and Bernard gaped and instantly felt jealous that the Shears managed to recruit such a talented man.

“Haha! The odds are in the Shears’ favor!” Benedict burst into laughter in excitement. He quietly decided to get Leon and Cynthia together so that they could keep Leon from being taken by another family.

If Leon married Iris, the Youngs would soon rule over Springfield City with Leon’s help. Unfortunately, it was too late for him to regret it.

“Leon, you’ve finally grown into the man I know you can be,” Iris felt a lump in her throat as her heart ached.

She knew all along that Leon had great potential and would become the brightest man among their generation when given time. However, they were never meant to be and she was forced to leave Leon when he grew.

“Yay! Leon, you’re awesome!” Louisa cheered and clapped.

Quinton stood out of the crowd. Only ten Pure Energy Pills were being sold in the sales drive and after Harvey took one, there were nine left, costing 49 million in total.

Quinton purchased the Panax with 45 million, which did not have much use to him, so 49 million meant nothing to him at all.

“The Hunts are taking all of them? No way!”

“I’m against this!”

“We won’t agree to this!”

Shocked, the crowd fell into panic. They came to fight over Leon and the Pure Energy Pills and after witnessing what the Pure Energy Pills could do, they all wanted the pills for themselves and could not possibly allow the Hunts to purchase all of them.

Hunt, I’m sorry, but since the supply is limited, each family is only allowed to purchase one pill. Lean smiled

“But-” Quinton hesitated.

Naturally, since there were far too few pills available, the price was not the main concern and who managed to obtain the chance to purchase it mattered most.

“Leon, I know that it might be unfair to others for me to play the friend card, but the Wicks are in desperate need of one Pure Energy Pill and I hope you can sell it to us considering the bond between us,” Bernard said.

The Wicks came for the Pure Energy Pills because Jenson needed the pill to reach the Realm of a Supreme Master and Bernard could only swallow his pride to plead for it for Jenson’s sake.

“Me, too! Mister Wolf, the Pooles need one, too. Please consider selling it to us first,” Vincent stood out of the crowd. His daughter, Snow, reached the Advanced Innate State and he needed a Pure Energy Pill. Once she reached the Peak Innate State, she could take the pill immediately.

“Alright.” Leon nodded and handed a Pure Energy Pill to George.

“The Lowes will pay 22 million for the next pill!” Harold shouted immediately after and did not bid against George as he did not wish to cross the Collins as well.

The expression on the others’ faces darkened.

The Southern and Northern Kings were almost as powerful as the Four Major Families and Harold was known for his viciousness and crossing him would not be wise, so the rest of the guests gave up competing

The others leaped into action. Despite the disappointment of not obtaining the Pure Energy Pill, they knew that they had to act first to secure the Energy Nurturing Pills when possible.

Shortly after, the Energy Nurturing Pills were sold out as well, bringing the second sales drive of Cynthion Group to an end.

The Pure Energy Pills that Leon produced could ensure the breakthrough to the Realm of a Supreme Master, which went to show how skilled he was in alchemy. Apart from that, he managed to defeat Haroon with ease at such a young age. After the sales drive, Leon was officially known as the brightest man of his generation.

He rose as the new star in Springfield City, securing a position of power in the worlds of martial arts and the corporate community.

"Are you after the Energy Nurturing Pills and the Pure Energy Pills?!" Quinton's expression darkened as he came to a realization.

The Hunts were a powerful family in Seacove City with no known enemy in Springfields. Since it was unlikely that these people ambushed him for revenge, they had to be targeting the alchemical pills.

Following a deafening noise, the man in the demon mask stood still and Hans was sent flying by the wave of true energy radiating off of his opponent.

Another man at the Peak Supreme State sent a wave of true energy to block the aftermath of the true energy from the man in the mask; still, Hans paled as he felt his blood boil.

“The Semi Overlord State!” Sensing the true strength of the man in the demon mask, Quinton gaped.
