The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 841

Iris was sad as she looked at Leon, full of disappointment.

Gilbert and the other elders already guessed that the venture capital company could very well have been controlled by Leon and the Shears!

However, Iris always had a sliver of hope for Leon. She felt like Leon was someone who treasured old relationships, and would probably not do anything to her and the Youngs. It was possible that the matter only involved the Shears, and had nothing to do with Leon.

Yet, they found out that Leon secretly bought over Elegante. It meant that Leon was definitely related to everything that happened, and Leon could very well be the mastermind!

Suddenly, her hopes for Leon completely disappeared!

"Despicable! I thought that this brat came to save us, but it looks like he's just like Harold!" Gilbert clenched his fists furiously.

He knew very well that the root of everything that happened was the venture capital company hiding in the dark. If the company did not constantly attack the Young Group, he would not have lost control of the company, and would not have been forced into this corner!

He lost power in the company and his position as head of the Youngs. At that moment, he hated Leon and the Shears to the core. No matter what Leon said, there was no way he would believe Leon!

Iris fell into silence when she heard that.

If it was a few days ago, she might have believed in Leon.

Yet, too

many things happened with the Youngs. Everyone tried to force her to accept the marriage with the Lowes. Only Gilbert stood by her side, and Gilbert lost his position as head of the family to protect her!

The only person she could trust was Gilbert!

Since Gilbert said Leon and the Shears were the culprits, she still chose to believe in her father after some hesitation!

Seeing Iris not say anything, Leon obviously understood what Iris meant.

Suddenly, he felt like his life was destroyed. He completely lost hope in Iris.

Melvin had a cold and murderous look in his eyes.

The other Youngs were the same, all of them looked at Leon with hatred.

“Mister Young, I’ll say this again. Harold is the person behind that venture capital company. It has nothing to do with me,” Leon said unhappily, but he was interrupted by Melvin before he could finish

“Stop with your nonsense! With things as there are, you’re still trying to destroy our relationship with the Northern King. You’re too ruthless! We’ll teach you a lesson today and get justice for the Young Group!”

Melvin sneered as he launched himself forward with a terrifying aura, quickly charging at Leon.

“Despicable! Mister Wolf has helped the Hunts a great deal. Anyone who wants to harm him will have to pass through us first!”

Quinton let out a cold smile as he raised his hand. The old man who was at the Overlord state stepped forward to face Melvin’s attack.

When Leon

started to fight against Harold, Cynthia already secretly sent Benedict a message since she realized the situation was not good.

Upon Cynthia's cry for help, Benedict immediately gathered a few experts from the family and rushed over.

When he saw that Leon and Cynthia both seemed to be safe and sound, he let out a sigh of relief.

"Grandfather, you're finally here! That's great!"

When she saw Benedict there, Cynthia was elated. She rushed right over.

Leon was happy as he finally relaxed.

As opposed to Leon and Cynthia's excitement, the Youngs quickly looked sullen. All of them had an uneasy feeling in their hearts.

Harold in particular looked at Leon in such a pleased manner earlier, but he could not smile anymore!

However, Leon did not have any relation with that at all.

The Shears and Leon never did anything shady together before, so he could not understand what Melvin was saying!

Before Benedict could answer, Leon stepped forward.

“Mister Young, I’ve already explained very clearly. The person behind the venture capital company was Harold. This has nothing to do with me and the Shears! I hope you won’t fall for another trick because of some petty and sly man’s words!” Leon coldly wanted.

“A load of nonsense! I have my own thoughts on this. You don’t have to bother trying, brat! In the end, you and the Shears have to give us an explanation today, or none of you will be able to leave!” Melvin said stubbornly.

“With just you? What a joke! Melvin, if Elder Young were here, I might have been scared. It’s just a pity that he’s already sick! You’re just at the initial Overlord State, you have no right to act so arrogantly in front of me!” Benedict laughed in disdain as he spoke, not taking Melvin’s threats to heart at all.

“Is that so? Let’s see who really has the upper hand!” Melvin sneered.

“If the Youngs find any concrete evidence that proves that the Shears and I are the culprits, then I’ll let you do whatever you want to me!” Leon could see that Melvin was being swayed, so he made a promise immediately.

Melvin’s expression immediately darkened when he heard that.

After a moment of hesitation, he quickly made a decision!

“Alright, you said this yourself! We’ll do as you want this time. Let’s put the matter aside first. If I find any evidence of you and the Shears’ actions, the Youngs won’t let you off!” Melvin said coldly.

“What? How could you do that?!” Harold was shocked when Melvin and Leon reached an agreement.

The Lowes would not even be able to handle the Hunts alone, let alone Benedict and the Shears!

If Melvin and the Youngs were going to take a step back, how were the Lowes supposed to fight the Hunts and the Shears?!

“Mister Young, the truth is right in front of you. Leon and the Shears are the main culprits. Don’t be fooled by Leon!” Harold said anxiously.

Yet, considering her relationship with Harold, there was no way she could just ignore the man!

Just as she was caught in a difficult spot, she suddenly had an idea in her mind.

“Uncle, you should know everything well. The Young Group managed to get past this difficult stage because of the Northern King’s help. He’s our benefactor. If we just let him die like this, it would be too dishonorable! On top of that, he’s a guest that we invited over this time. If we just let Leon and the Shears do whatever they want with him, then it would be hard for us to explain if words got out!” Daisy said firmly.

“That-”

Melvin had nothing to say about that.

Even though Daisy was a bit suspicious, it was not like what she said was unreasonable.

After that, everyone retreated, giving Benedict and Harold enough space.

“First strike!” Benedict said coldly, quickly striking Harold with an incredibly imposing strike.

Harold knew that Benedict was much more powerful than he was, so he did not dare to take it head on. He dodged, avoiding Benedict's first attack.

“Second strike!”

Before Harold could react, Benedict let out a second strike, sealing off Harold's retreat.

Harold already expected that, and he was an Overlord State expert in the end. He quickly dodged away Benedict's second attack.

“This is the last one!”

"Elder Shear, thank you for your lesson today. I'll remember it and pay you back some day!" Harold clutched his chest as he crawled up the ground, his face full of hatred.

"Let's see if you have the skills in the future!" Benedict sniffed.

Harold was just at the initial Overlord State. There was still a wide gulf between them. It would probably take at least eight to ten years for Harold to exceed him.

Before that happened, it would be a pipe dream for the Lowes to fight the Shears!

"Harold, now that the three strikes from Elder Shear are done, it's time for the Hunts to deal with you!" Quinton sneered as he walked forward with the experts from the Hunts.

"Quinton, what's the meaning of this? Elder Shear already agreed to put things aside after three strikes from him! Are the Hunts planning on going against that?!" Harold's expression sank.

"Impossible! I've already used the Pure Energy Pills. Just name a price. I'll pay for your losses according to the market price," Harold shook his head and said.

"You..."

Quinton was furious, but there was nothing she could do.

After all, the Pure Energy Pills were something Leon made exclusively. It was incredibly rare. Since Harold already used them, there was no way Harold could return it to the Hunts.

"Whatever, let's make it a hundred and thirty million then. As long as you compensate us with a hundred and thirty million, our grudges will end here!" Quinton said.

"If that's the price, then so be it. I'll have someone send you the money later!" Harold's face darkened slightly, but he quickly agreed.

Even though three Pure Energy Pills were not actually worth that much, it was still incredibly rare.

For the sake of settling the score with the Hunts, he was forced to agree.
