The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 96

Following that crisp slap, Gilbert felt his ears ring as he collapsed. His forehead hit the corner of the desk and blood began to flow out.

Gilbert groaned in pain and touched his forehead, only to see his hands covered in blood.

"I'll kill you!"

Gilbert's eyes were blood-red, and anger fumed in his heart as he rushed toward Leon like a madman.

Leon leaped into the air, kicked Gilbert's lower abdomen, and sent Gilbert crashing into the wall after staggering several steps back. That was probably the most embarrassing moment of his life.

"Forget it, Leon. Let's go." Once Ariel came back to her senses, she hurried forward and grabbed Leon's arm. With the way things turned out, the cooperation was as good as gone and she did not count on it anymore.
