Chapter 991

Not only did George help Leon when he was in danger, he deeply injured Harold and Harold resented George and the Collins for interfering.

“Alright. Calm down! We still have Albert as our hostage and since we haven’t lost anything so far, what’s the point of being so frustrated over it? You’re going to get a heart attack if you continue to rile yourself up like that,” Daisy consoled him.

Though Harold was injured by George, Harold also managed to hurt Leon, so the situation for both sides were even. The only shame was that they wasted a great opportunity of eliminating Leon.

“That’s true. As long as we hold Albert hostage, we will have plenty of chances to deal with Leon. Missing one chance doesn’t mean anything!” Harold’s expression eased.

Albert became the key element in his plan of eliminating Leon. As long as Leon and Iris wanted to rescue Albert, there were plenty of chances for Harold to set up traps for him.

Leon was lucky to escape once, but he would eventually be caught.

They both felt humiliated and without Albert as their hostage, it would be difficult for them to trap Leon.

“No way! I can just let Leon take Albert from our hands!” Daisy slammed her fists against the table and turned to walk outside.

“Daisy, what are you going to do?” Harold scowled.

“I’m sending my men to go after him. We’re capturing both Leon and Albert!” Daisy roared angrily.

“There’s no point. It’s been too long and he probably isn’t in the area. It’s too late to send our men after him!” Harold shook his head.

Ruth asked confusedly.

“Ruth, it’s been a while since you moved to the Dragonbay Villas. Have you found any leads about the Power Method by following Leon around?” George asked.

He called Ruth back to the family mansion specifically to ask about the Power Method and check on her progress in her search.

“The Power Method?” Her heart skipped a beat.

She did not discover any leads about any Power Methods, but managed to learn half of the content of an Absolute Method in secret.

“Um, he helped a little,” she said reluctantly.

Ever since she moved into Iris’s mansion, Leon ignored her, so he definitely did not help at all with her training.

Luckily, she hid under the bed earlier that day and overheard half of the content of the Mysterious Maiden Method, which helped her breakthrough to the next power level, so it could be considered Leon’s way of helping her.

“What do you, a little?” George questioned, sensing from the look on Ruth’s face that Leon lazed around, which was a blatant betrayal to all the hard work George put in to protect him.

“Well, he did help me get to the Intermediate Supreme State.” Ruth sighed. She could only give Leon the credit of what the Mysterious Maiden Method achieved to stop George from blaming Leon.

“The two of you’re a perfect match! If you can marry him and pull him into this family, the Collins would thrive under your leadership!” George said excitedly.

During the sales drive organized by Cynthion Group, he proposed to marry Ruth to Leon and only tried to test Leon at the time. However, not only was Leon a skilled alchemist, he was also an extremely talented martial artist who was capable of helping others with breakthroughs as well.

At that very moment, George truly wanted Leon to be a part of the Collins.

“Grandpa, can you stop playing the matchmaker? I’m not at all interested in Leon. Besides, he is Iris Young’s boyfriend. I’m the eldest unwed daughter of the Collins, and you’re asking me to steal someone’s boyfriend? No way!” Ruth retorted.

"What?! You call that perfect?! Are you being serious right now?!" She widened her eyes in disbelief, not expecting her own brother to sell her off in order to pursue Iris.

Dating was not like grocery shopping when one could pick what they wanted, so she was furious that Anson even proposed such an idea.

“You’re the crazy one! You bullied me yesterday, knowing that you’re more powerful than me. Did you forget about it? Now the tables have turned and it’s time for me to get my revenge!” She grinned mischievously.

“Don’t even think about it! Do whatever you want to me. I can’t call myself a man if I budge!” He said.

After all that Ruth did for him, he considered if he should give her the other half of the Mysterious Maiden Method, but was worried that she would tell George and the Collins about it, which might lead him, Iris and Louisa into danger.

In order to secure their safety, he ultimately decided not to give the other half of the Mysterious Maiden Method to Ruth.

Since Ruth did not reach the Overlord State, half of the Mysterious Maiden Method would be enough to help with her training.

Once he became more powerful and was capable of protecting himself, he would reconsider if he wanted to give her the other half.

She retorted.

"Why you! Fine. Take one, then! The purple pills are made with crushed scorpions, centipedes and the gall bladders of snakes. One pill will get you to the Advanced Supreme State!" He said calmly.

The Mysterious Maiden Method was an Absolute Method that was compatible with the woman’s body; since Ruth was a genius in martial arts to begin with, her progress was improved instantly with the help of the premium Energy Nurturing Pill.

After allowing the energy to circulate within her, her power was immediately reinforced and strengthened.

“I won’t bother to fight a woman over a premium Energy Nurturing Pill. It’s nothing,” Leon muttered to himself, feeling frustrated that he lost a premium Energy Nurturing Pill all of a sudden.

“What a powerful pill!” Sensing the power of the premium Energy Nurturing Pill, she was stunned and turned to gape at Leon. “You’re a sly man, Leon Wolf. You kept the best Energy Nurturing Pills for yourself and sold the first–grade Energy Nurturing Pills instead!”
