

Revenge 931

Chapter 931

Theodore was the heir of the Fields. He would definitely control the family in the future, so his future was incredibly bright.

However, he would lose all of that if he was crippled by Leon. He would be abandoned by the family. It was something he could not accept!

Suddenly, he felt a chill in his heart, and all the defenses around his heart crumbled.

“No, don’t!”

“Leon, I know I was wrong. Please show some mercy and spare me!”

Theodore was filled with shock and horror as he pleaded.

“I thought you would have more of a backbone than this, but it looks like I was wrong!”

Leon mocked and laughed.

The Fields and him were enemies. They had a deep grudge against each other. On top of that, the Fields tried to kill him over and over again. There was no reason for him to show the Fields any mercy.

Leon smiled awkwardly, not sure how he should answer that question.

"They're not selling you the medicine? Then why are they even in business?"

Ruth was stunned. She wondered if she misheard things before she looked at Mister Zogg, asking, "Hey, who's in charge of your store?"

At that moment, Mister Zogg was completely in shock, and did not answer for a long time.

He thought that Leon was just the chairman of a small company, so he was not scared of making an enemy of Leon at all.

Yet, Leon was first fought over by Cynthia and Iris, and after that, both Theodore and Ruth appeared.

Because of Leon, the younger generation of the Youngs, the Shears, the Collins and the Fields all appeared!

Even crazier was the fact that Leon broke Theodore's legs and caused Theodore to Cynthia's beautiful eyes glared right at Ruth, but Ruth refused to take a step back at all.

Both of them glared right at each other, and there seemed to be sparks between them. Neither of them were willing to take a step back.

Right after that, both of them looked at Mister Zogg, saying, 'Mister Zogg, are you going to sell, or not?"

Mister Zogg was completely stunned, and he stood there dumbfounded.

Both Cynthia and Ruth were incredibly powerful people that he could not offend. No

"Cynthia really pulled off a ruthless move this time!" Leon smiled bitterly at what Cynthia did.

"Leon, what do we do now? If we don't have the materials, how is the company going to produce cosmetics?" Iris asked with a face full of worry.

Elegante's products that had the most value and potential were those high-end cosmetics that Leon developed himself. Without those high-end cosmetics, the company would definitely suffer tremendous losses.

"Don't worry, I'll ask the Southern King for help. With his power and connections, he'll probably be able to help us source something," Leon said after a moment of silence, putting all his hopes on Vincent.

Vincent was one of the two kings of the underworld. He controlled half of the underworld in Springfield, and had various connections to the black markets. If it was something exceptionally valuable or rare, Vincent might not have been able to get it, but if it was just simple materials they needed to make the cosmetics, it should not trouble Vincent at all!

"Yes, that's the only thing we can do now," Iris nodded, relaxing visibly.

"Alright, Leon. Let's put that aside for now. Can you hurry up and arrange a place for me to stay?!" Ruth said.

Earlier, she went around a few stores with Leon, and her feet were starting to get sore. She wanted to go back earlier to rest. She was in no mood to continue running around with Leon.

Ruth could tell what Iris was worried about. He pursed her lips and looked at Leon in disdain.

Iris and Cynthia's family backgrounds were no worse than hers, and their looks were on her level as well. She could not understand what those two women saw in a useless man like Leon!

Sometimes, she wondered if there was something wrong with their eyes!

"That's true."

Iris blushed, realizing that she was being worried for no reason.

It was just like Ruth said. Leon was just an orphan who had a divorce before. He was not some amazing treasure. Leon's looks were nothing incredible either. No matter how you looked at it, there were many young men in Springfield City who were much better than Leon.

Only her and Cynthia were too stupid, falling for Leon for some reason.

Leon.

However, she knew she was no match for Leon, so she did not continue attacking.

“Did I somehow offend you?” Leon was even more confused at Snow’s answer.

“What do you think? Cynthia loves you so much, why did you have to do that to her?”

Snow said with a huff.

Snow was invited to attend Leon and Cynthia’s engagement, so she naturally knew of everything that happened.

Furthermore, he knew that Leon was always close to the Shears, and knew that Cynthia really did love Leon.

Yet, during the engagement, Leon actually betrayed Cynthia like that. It made her very unhappy.

Vincent answered quickly.
“Mister Poole, thank you so much,” Leon thanked. He finally relaxed after dealing with the matter.
“We’re no outsiders here. You don’t have to be so polite. Leon, it’s getting late. You rarely come over. Why don’t you stay back for dinner?” FVincent said with a smile.
Leon wanted to reject it, but he was stopped by Vincent before he could finish.

“I haven’t even thanked you for helping me get to the Overlord State last time. You have to say yes today. I want to properly toast you and thank you,” Vincent insisted.

“Alright then.”

Leon did not want to embarrass Vincent, so he quickly agreed.

Louisa already reached the late Acquired State, and was only a sliver away from the peak Acquired State.

Iris was even better than Louisa. Iris was already at the peak Acquired State!

Comparatively, Leon did not improve much at all. He was already at the peak of the Acquired State for a long time without any improvements.

Of course, there was a reason his martial arts was still at that level. The first reason was because there was a gulf between the peak Acquired State and initial Innate State that was not easy to pass.

He was also more focused on the sage arts, so he lagged behind in terms of martial arts.

However, he was fortunate enough to be reasonably talented in martial arts, and he was even using an amazing Absolute Method. So, the rate of his improvements was much faster than anyone else.

The Ex-Husband's Revenge Chapter 939

That was not the important point. The important point was that Leon's relationship with the Wicks was always close. When Elegante managed to secure the contract with the Wicks, it was all thanks to Leon.

Yet, Leon canceled the contract for no reason. It shocked Iris and Leon greatly!

"Leon, what happened? Why would the Wicks suddenly cancel our agreement?" Iris asked in confusion.

"I don't know what happened either. Let me give Jenson a call."

As Leon said that, he took out his phone.

"Hello, Mister Wolf. Are you calling me about the canceled agreement?"

Jenson's voice was heard from the other end.

He obviously knew what Leon wanted.

“What do you plan on doing now?” Iris frowned, her mood slowly sank.
With Cynthia’s control of medicinal ingredients, Leon finally solved their problems after some difficulty. Yet, Cynthia did not relent. This time, Cynthia struck quite viciously, targeting Elegante’s biggest client!
That was not the important point. The important point was that Cynthia was clearly already determined to go for Leon. Cynthia might have other tricks up her sleeve!
If Iris and Leon did not figure something out quickly, the situation would definitely get a lot worse!
“I don’t know what to do either,” Leon shut his eyes painfully.
The worst debt to repay in the world was debts of the heart. He owed Cynthia. So, he did not know how he should deal with what Cynthia was doing.
