The Secret Heir Return To Wealth And Love Chapter 941

Chapter 941

Letsgolit

Rosalynn knew, of course, that the Baille family wouldn't make things difficult for Paige

And from what she had heard, the Scott family was really looking forward to Paige's return

However. Cory rarely expressed such emotions

He was afraid that his godmother would be bullied, so she would take him with her

Let him see that the Scott family treated the godmother well, so he could worry less.

"Great Cory was obviously a bit happier

"Boy daddy bought avocado yogurt, wanna eat it together? Rosalynn whispered in Cory's ear

Cory thought for a moment, and then nodded

Rosalynn immediately went to the fridge and took out the yogurt

The two shared the yogurt

Things were pretty harmonious on Wayne's side too

by sat on Wayne's lap, and he was especially loving

President Silverman, this oversight was indeed due to the negligence of my subordinates. Rest assured, I will carry out rectification and assessment on the department and dismiss those who are unqualified and make many mistakes!”

Yes. President Silverman, our department will also carry out assessments!”

Ivy was a bit confused

“If you get fired, will you not have a salary?” She curiously asked Wayne.

Wayne hesitated for a moment

The lands servants had a tradition of using their wages to purchase food for the children residing back at their homes

“Don’t fire them” Wayne said seriously, and then spoke to the supervisors. “Don’t think about firing people over small issues. Who doesn’t have elderly and children to support at home? Firing employees, what will their families do?”

The supervisors were at a loss

What?

“Yes Yes President Silverman!”

“Can you rectify it within three days?” Wayne asked, his tone much gentler, like a father giving advice.

President Silverman, definitely, absolutely!”

The supervisors were almost in tears

Based on their understanding of Wayne's typical approach, there was a chance that they could be dismissed today. Even if they managed to keep their positions, they knew they would have to address the issues at hand within the day

They must solve the problem within three days!

"Any other issues? Wayne asked again

The supervisors shook their heads

"Then get to work."

They all left quickly

After everyone left, they stood in the elevator, each with sweat on their faces, looking at each other

Thank God for Ivy one supervisor said, I almost thought I was going to lose my job

I didn't expect President Silverman to be such a person! He really loves his daughter!"

I hope try will be by President Silverman's side next time we talk to him!"

They were very certain about one thing

With the extent of President Silverman's love for his daughter

Even if they said  $1+1=3$ , President Serman would answer that the answer was correct!

After Wayne got off work, the family had dinner outside

After returning home, the couple put the two children to bed

Wayne received a temporary work assignment and went to the study

Rosalynn sat in the living room for a while, then went to the wine cellar in the basement.

After selecting a bottle of wine Rosalynn hesitated

Then she put the wine back in the cabinet

if tomorrow's matching result is still unsuccessful Rosalynn will still try both IVF and natural conception methods

Chapter 942

So she better not drink

She was sitting on the couch, browsing the internet on her phone out of boredom

These past few days, everything on the internet has been pretty chill just some irrelevant gossip

LA, a young model she knows is dating a movie star who's like 30 years older than her

Or some company is partnering up with another one

Stuff like that

Eventually, Rosalynn fell asleep on the couch out of boredom

In the middle of her deep sleep, she smelled a familiar scent

She opened her eyes gently and saw Wayne's face.

Almost instinctively she reached out and delicately touched his cheek, her voice filled with curiosity, "What brings you here?"

"I came to see you" Wayne's tone was low and gentle "Why did you fall asleep here? Were you tired during the day?" Rosalynn looked at him. "Not really, this couch is just super comfy"

Both she and Paige had experiences of getting a bit tipsy and passing out on the couch

Did you drink?" Wayne asked

Rosalynn shook her head "When will we get the results?"

Probably during working hours' Wayne held her hand "Are you worried about this?"

Yeah Rosalynn nodded

Her thoughts were a mess

Her gaze fixed on Wayne, like a hunter locking onto their prey

She touched Wayne's neck. "Come closer"

Wayne hesitated for a moment, but then moved closer as she asked

If they moved just a bit more, their noses would touch

But Rosalynn felt that still wasn't close enough

With a little force, she kissed Wayne's lips

Rosalynn's rare initiative made Wayne's eyes slowly turn red.

Not long after, Wayne held her in his arms, breathing heavily as he kissed her.

The wine cellar was very quiet, and all that could be heard was their breathing.

Despite the years apart, they were still so familiar with each other.

Wayne suddenly thought of something

He breathed heavily, grabbing Rosalynn's chin, "Do we have protection at home..."

Before Wayne could finish, Rosalynn kissed Wayne again and mumbled, "No, and we don't need it..."

Wayne knew Rosalynn, she had always been careful about protection before

"Wait a second"

Wayne pushed Rosalynn onto the couch.

"What's wrong?" Rosalynn was obviously unhappy

Wayne was much clearer now

"Are you still thinking about getting pregnant?" His tone was clearly angry

Rosalynn lay on the couch, staring at Wayne in silence for a moment

"You're weird. Didn't you always want to do this before? Now I'm confessing my feelings to you, and you're not happy"

"I don't want you to get pregnant!" Wayne frowned

Subsequently, he lowered his head, wearing a serious expression, and assisted Rosalynn in straightening her disheveled attire

Rosalynn looked at him, her eyes gradually turning red but she didn't say anything

Seeing her pitiful appearance, Wayne felt angry, helpless, and heartbroken

After fing her clothes, he picked her up and held her in his arms,

Just like taking care of a child

“Sorry, I was too harsh just now,” he gently patted Rosalynn’s shoulder

It took Rosalynn a moment to mumble. You think getting pregnant is that easy 7”

Chapter 943

Wayne couldn’t help but laugh. Even if there’s a one in a million chance, I don’t want to r isk it‘

With that Wayne leaned in and placed a gentle kiss on her ear, softly whispering. “Ill go purchase everything we need tomorrow just to be prepared.”

Rosalynn didn’t say anything

Her stress lately had reached an all–time high.

Even when she was escaping from Wayne before, she hadn’t felt this suffocated

And indeed

She needed some crazy release

Let’s continue.” Rosalynn leaned on Wayne’s neck, 1 can take the pill*

What’s sad in bed an’t always true

If she says she’ll take the pill now and doesnt tomorrow, could Wayne force it down her throat?

No way!”

Who knew even in this state. Wayne still firmly disagreed!

That pill is really harmful Wayne felt like he was losing his sanity, gritted his teeth, push ed Rosalynn away, and took two steps back.

Rosalynn lay on the couch, facing up

She was quiet for two seconds, and then she laughed.

For some reason, she thought of Paige saying before that Balle may have quit drugs

Now she wanted to apply this question to Wayne as well

But

Speaking of drugs being harmful Wayne had been the same in the past.

Except for the first two times, he'd always taken precautions and never let her take any pills

"You're still laughing" Wayne's face turned red

Rosalynn waved her hand, "You better go take a shower"

Wayne thought about and he was still angry

She did it on purpose!

So Wayne went back to her, kissed Rosalynn's neck, and left a passionate mark

Rosalynn winced, slapping him on the back

Wayne satisfied after leaving a bright red mark, he stared at Rosalynn, Mrs Silverman, just you wait!"

With that, Wayne left the wine cellar

Rosalynn sat up a moment later

She grabbed her phone, opened the camera, and looked at her neck.

How could she cover such a red mark?

However

What troubled Rosalynn even more was that Wayne's resolve seemed stronger and more resolute than she had anticipated

if he didn't agree whether it was IVF or natural conception, it would be impossible!

She stayed in the wine cellar for a while longer

Rosalynn returned to her room and took a shower

When she came out, there was an extra person in the bed

Rosalynn didn't say anything

Then she thought, she couldn't let him leave again, let him sleep together

Hopefully there will be some resist ble things happening

With that in mand Rosalynn turned off the light and quietly climbed into bed

Then she lay down next to Wayne

It didn't take long

Chapter 944

Wayne pulled her into his arms, kissing her neck, Don't worry, babe, just get some slee p."

His voice was so gentle

Rosalynn's anxiety actually did dissipate quite a bit

In no time, she fell asleep in Waynes arms.

Habits can sometimes be a scary thing

A long, long time ago, she found security in Wayne

Now, he could stil bring her healing when she was incredibly anxious

Despite this, Rosalynn didn't sleep very soundly

Just before dawn, she heard Wayne on the phone

"He's missing? Why does he go missing? What the hell are you guys doing?"

He's missing?

Rosalynn pondered the matter in a drowsy state, but suddenly a memory flashed throug h her mind, jolting her awake in an instant.

"Who's missing?" She sat up and looked at Wayne

Wayne was slightly taken aback, "Check the surveillance and find him!*

After saying that, he hung up the phone. Rosalynn got out of bed and walked to Wayne , "Who's missing?"

"Luis," Wayne answered. The guys over there said he probably snuck out for a drink last night"

"What time is "Rosalynn asked, glancing at Wayne's phone

Just past seven.

“Where’s he staying? Let’s go there,” Rosalynn said in a low voice

“I’ll go alone.”

“No, I’m going with you!” Rosalynn was determined.

Wayne had no choice but to agree.

Before leaving. Wayne poured Rosalynn a glass of oat milk

She drank it all in one go in the car.

Luis’s hotel was near the Jared Group’s hospital, only a three–minute walk away

When the two of them arrived, the people there still hadn’t found Luis

Is he scared of donating bone marrow Rosalynn asked solemnly “Did you guys explain it to him clearly? This won’t affect his health”

“Maam, we’ve explained it all, he’s been very cooperative, as long as he gets the money, he’s willing to do anything” the other party explained in a low voice

Wayne looked at the somewhat messy hotel room.

“Did you guys leak anything?’ Wayne asked angrily

“Absolutely not!” the two men said in unison. We never said anything we shouldn’t have in front of him“

Rosalynn’s mind flashed back to the man she saw yesterday at FreshBite.

“What does he look like?” Rosalynn immediately asked

The two men hurriedly look out their phones.

On the screen was a face full of wrinkles

It looked exactly like the man Rosalynn had seen in the garage yesterday

However, that man looked greedier and more uncomfortable than the one in the photo

What’s wrong, babe?” Wayne saw Rosalynn spacing out and quickly asked

“He came to find me yesterday” Rosalynn looked at Wayne, In the FreshBite parking garage”

This sentence made Wayne extremely angry. “Baron!”

Baron said, ‘President Silverman.’”

“Didn’t you say they were staying in the hotel all the time before last night?”

Sweat covered Baron’s forehead.

He indeed hadn’t noticed that Luis and his entourage had gone out.

What’s the rush?”

After Rosalynn confirmed the man’s identity, she wasn’t so anxious anymore

She cast a quick glance around the disheveled room, a realization dawning upon her. ” he was able to track me down, it means he must already be aware of my connection with Wayne likely that he’s biding his time, waiting for the DNA test results to be revealed in order to negotiate a higher price”

Its

None of the mattered

If the typing was successful Cory would be saved.

Money wasn’t an issue at all

Chapter 945

Baron lowered his head. President Silverman, ma’am, it’s our fault for not doing a good job!”

He originally wanted to prevent Luis from finding out about his relationship with President Silverman, but who would’ve thought

At this moment, Baron didn’t even know that was his late night chat while smoking that caused everything to fall apart.

There’s a restaurant nearby with great food, Rosalynn said, holding Wayne’s hand. “We have to wait for the matching results anyway, so let’s go have breakfast” During breakfast, Wayne told Rosalynn all the basic information about this person

In a nutshell, he’s a profit-driven scumbag Rosalynn said coldly

But this scumbag didn't go far

He was waiting for news in an alley near a bar

Luis, why are we hiding here instead of staying in a five star hotel? This place is even dirtier than the streets in our town!” one of Luis's underlings grumbled

Luis remarked. There's no surveillance in this place, and for the time being, I remain untraceable. Quit your complaining, if this plan succeeds, we'll be swimming in money!” Really? Luis, if you get rich, don't forget about me the guy quickly said

Luis patted his face and said, “Don't worry, I'll give you money!”

While waiting time seemed to pass exceptionally slow

But before nine o'clock the matching center sent a message

It's a match!” Wayne received the news, immediately stood up, and handed the phone to Rosalynn.

A smile appeared on Rosalynn's face

it really is a match “She looked at the results sent to her, then looked at Wayne

Wayne immediately hugged her tightly

“You can relax now, and don't have those ridiculous thoughts anymore, okay?”

Rosalynn nodded repeatedly

However

Baron quickly called, President Silverman, Luis contacted me ”

Wayne, still holding Rosalynn, was very happy. “He wants to meet me?”

Yes”

“Bring him

President Silverman, he said he doesn't trust us and wants to meet at a place he designated

Rosalynn couldn't help but laugh

Everyone knew to be on guard against Wayne

Not long after, they arrived at a restaurant designated by Luis.

He avoided the Jared Group and Wayne's businesses.

But very unfortunately, this building belonged to Baillie

What's even more unfortunate is that when Rosalynn and Wayne arrived, they ran into Baile and Paige

Granny Owens was having a graduation dinner for her students, so there were quite a few people.

Paige was worried that she would get tired, so she picked her up.

Bae found out and also came over.

"So early""Page was a bit surprised

We have some things to deal with, and I tell you later, Rosalynn said

Paige rarely saw her so serious, so she nodded and said. "Okay, you guys go ahead"

After the two left

Chapter 946

Paige looked at Baile Feels like something big is going down"

With Wayne around, there's no problem too big to solve," Baile replied with a smile

Paige nodded "True"

Maybe Luis had watched too many movies instead of choosing a private room, he sat in the main hall.

Upon catching sight of Wayne and Rosalynn, he promptly rose from his seat and greeted them with unbridled enthusiasm, exclaiming. "Ah, my dear brother and sister-in-law have graced us with their presence

Baron, who had arrived earlier, was dumbfounded

Wayne's face was cold, and Rosalynn walked beside him

"Mr Wall Rosalynn greeted

Sister-in-law, don't you know the relationship between me and your husband?" Luis laughed.

He always believed that women should stay at home, have children, cook, and do housework

No matter how beautiful a woman is, she should do the same

It's traditional thinking

He felt that this sister in law did not meet his requirements, so he looked down on her a bit.

So when he spoke, there was a sarcastic tone

After all, they needed his bone marrow to save their child now

Luis Baron's fists were clenched

Rosalynn also laughed. Mr. Wal, you seem like a straightforward person. Let's not discuss irrelevant matters. Just state your conditions."

Luis ignored Rosalynn and looked at Wayne

Little brother, this kind of thing is for us men to discuss!"

Rosalynn still smiled

What couldn't she endure for the sake of her child?

"Just state your conditions." Wayne said coldly

Luis's indignation grew as he dwelled on the fact that they had attempted to conceal the truth from him and offered a mere $1,000,000 to purchase his bone marrow.

They were blood brothers, so Wayne's fortune should be half his!

"You rich people," Luis sat down and poured himself some water "Your child is my nephew too. I was going to help, but since you insist, 'state my conditions.'"

He made it sound like he was forced to make demands

Rosalynn and Wayne watched him quietly

"I want half of your net worth," Luis said slowly, looking at them "And I want you, little brother, to hold a press conference and acknowledge me as your older brother!"

“Half your net worth, are you crazy?” Baron thought Luis might be insane, and he was about to go crazy too

Luis sneered, “We’re all brothers here. Half your net worth to save your child’s life doesn’t seem too high, don’t you think?”

Rosalynn stared at him and suddenly burst into laughter, as if she had just heard a joke

Wayne looked at her

“Honey, let’s go home and let him go crazy here”

With that, Rosalynn turned and left

What does this mean?” Luis was stunned and stood up

Wayne glanced at Luis, didn’t say anything, and turned to leave with Rosalynn

“Brother don’t you want your son’s life? We can negotiate” Luis was puzzled

Haven’t these rich people ever been to a market?

If you want to buy something and the price isn’t right, just bargain!

It’s so strange to let go so easily

Would they really not buy #7

Luis, you truly have some guts!” Baron chuckled “Putting up a tough front in front of Ms. Jared? Don’t you know how merciless she can be? You could have gotten $1,000,000

Chapter 947

He watched Haron about to leave

Luis snapped out of it and grabbed Baron’s hand, “What’s going on? Weren’t you gonna donate bone marrow? What about the kid?”

Baron impatiently shook off Luis’s hand

He’s worked for Wayne for so many years, and this is the first time he’s messed up so badly

But this matter crucial to Wayne

I don’t know just wait for news Baron said and tried to leave again

Luis caught up with him and said, "How about this, tell them I don't want that much money. I just want 500 thousand dollars shouldn't be much for them, right?" Baron ignored him

He went straight after Wayne and Rosalynn

But before getting into the elevator, he still arranged for someone to keep an eye on Luis

Since the boss didn't explicitly say he didn't need his bone marrow donation anymore, he might still be useful.

Unbelievable, they are so rich and still so stingy!

Before the elevator closed. Baron heard Luis complaining

His face darkened

Regardless of whether or not it fell within his job responsibilities, he was determined to teach Luis a lesson for his insolence and interference in his affairs. Once this situation was resolved, he would ensure that Luis faced the consequences of his actions

A moment later

in the car

Baron stood outside and told Rosalynn and Wayne about the new price Luis had just offered

Wayne looked at Rosalynn

Rosalynn said solemnly. The problem isn't about the money"

As she spoke, she looked at Wayne

Wayne understood from the beginning why she would react this way

"I don't care," Wayne said calmly

"You may not care, but the stock prices of Bane Corporation and the Jared Group are important," Rosalynn looked away. "Your identity absolutely cannot be exposed"

Wayne was slightly startled

"What's more important than getting Cory a bone marrow transplant? Wayne asked “What’s the impact?” Rosalynn looked at Wayne Even if he doesn’t cooperate, there are ways Do you think I be controlled by someone like him?”

Wayne didnt say anything

Rosalynn took out her phone and dialed a number directly

“You come over and bring someone to the hospital.”

After hanging up.

Rosalynn and Wayne went home together

Before getting out of the car

Wayne, who hadnt said much on the way, finally spoke: “Il take care of the rest, you just stay with Cory”

You stay with Cory. I handle Rosalynn shook her head

Wayne looked at her

Rosalynn was sent for a moment. “He’s your brother, it’s better for me to handle these t hings”

Having said that, Rosalynn was about to open the door and get out of the car

Wayne grabbed her wrist and pulled her back

What’s the matter?”

Rosalynn looked at Wayne in surprise

Rosa, I really dont understand you.” Wayne frowned. Do you care about me or not?”

Rosalynn also frowned

“Wayne, is now the time to discuss this?” She spoke trying to break free from Wayne’s hand. “I still have a lot of things to arrange you.”

1st for my reputation or for the stock prices of the two companies?’ Wayne didn’t let go, staring at Rosalynn

After reuniting

Wayne had so many more emotions than before

In the past, whenever Wayne glanced at her, there was an air of indifference, arrogance, and an undeniable sense of possession

But now, when Wayne looks at her, he feels wronged, puzzled, and delighted

You didn't say a word all the way back, just for this?" Rosalynn asked

"Shouldn't 17"

Chapter 948

Stock prices are important, but your reputation matters even more" Rosalynn said sincerely "Cory and Ivy will grow up, and if people gossip about your past, it will affect them too"

Are you afraid to embarrass our son and daughter? Wayne grumbled

He felt wronged

"You know that's not what I mean, Rosalynn replied helplessly

What are you trying to say then? Wayne looked at Rosalynn, smirking just don't want people to use this against you, okay?"

Hearing what he wanted to hear. Wayne was satisfied

"That's more like 10°

"I want to get the bone marrow transplant sorted out as soon as possible, could you let me go?"

As soon as they got out of the car, they saw Ivy holding Max, coming back from the small park

Mommy

Ivy waved excitedly

"Did you have fun at the park?" Rosalynn reached out to Ivy

Ivy handed the dog leash to Laura and bounced over to Rosalynn

Rosalynn picked her up, not caring about the sweat all over Ivy

"Next time try running to me. Not only can I hold you, but I can also lift you up high."

Wayne stood aside and said sincerely

by seemed tempted

But after thinking about it, she still hugged Rosalynn's neck and shook her head: "I want Mommy to hold me!"

Being a dad isn't easy, huh?

"Did you guys sneak out for some yummy food?" Ivy suddenly asked Wayne.

"How did you know? Rosalynn asked with a smile.

"Godmother and godfather went out for a scrumptious meal this morning, so unfair! They even had the audacity to send Laura pictures and videos just to launt me"

Rosalynn burst into laughter

Then Ivy ran towards Max

She looked up at the second floor window

"Brother Seeing Cory she immediately waved

Max also wagged his tail like crazy and barked at Cory

Finally, Max even performed a spin and stood on his hind legs for Cory

Rosalynn watched, and her anger from the morning disappeared

"I'll go in first," she told Wayne, and went up to the second floor

As soon as she went upstairs, she heard Cory's laughter.

Rosalynn felt a little sad

If Cory could be healthier, he could play outside with Ivy and Max too, instead of being separated by such a distance, separated by a glass window

Mommy

Cory turned around, saw Rosalynn, and called out

Rosalynn walked over with a gentle smile

"Sweetheart Mommy will be busy with some things for the next few days," Rosalynn squatted in front of Cory, stroking his cheek, and said warmly, if everything goes well, you'll be able to have the transplant surgery soon

Chapter 949

Cory was slightly taken aback.

“You found a suitable match?’ he asked in surprise

Rosalynn nodded with a smile

As for the rest, she didn’t plan on letting Cory know

“Mommy will arrange the surgery as soon as possible”

Alright

After hanging out at home with Cory for a while. Rosalynn received a call from the hospital.

I have to go out,” she said to Wayne, Take care of the kids for me

“Sure.” Wayne nodded, and then hugged her in front of Cory and Ivy, “Call me if you have any problems.”

“Alright

Rosalynn coughed lightly and pushed Wayne away.

Turning her head, she saw by laughing with her hand over her mouth, resting on her brother’s shoulder

Listen to your dad” Rosalynn said, “No ice cream!”

And with that, Rosalynn left

As soon as Rosalynn was gone, Ivy sat up and asked, “Did you succeed? Are you and mom back together?”

I made a little progress.” Wayne said with a proud smile.

“That’s great!” Ivy was overjoyed

You really want your mom and dad to get back together, huh?” Wayne leaned in closer to Ivy.

He thought to himself. His son and daughter were the best!

Ivy adorably nodded her head

And then said, “When you guys are back together, hurry up and have a little sister because I want to be a big sister!”

As the youngest in the family, Ivy really wanted to be a big sister.

At the Jared Group Hospital, in the VIP ward

Lus had no strength at all

He lay in the hospital bed

Medical staff wearing masks were checking something on him.

He felt an immense fear

After the examination, the medical staff left without a word.

Not long after, he heard the sound of high heels and the door opened

A woman walked in.

"You Lu stared at the woman, and recalled what Baron had said when he left

Originally, Lus thought that if they couldn't find a new bone marrow, they would still come to him to save his son.

He had taken the money Baron gave him earlier and was about to go find a place to drink

A black car suddenly blocked his way, and he was dragged into the car and knocked out

When he woke up, he was here

Mr Wall, rest assured," Rosalynn responded with a chilly tone, meeting his gaze directly. "My sole objective is to expedite the rescue of my son. As for the reward I previously offered you, I will honor it once the task is accomplished"

Chapter 950

Luis was both pissed off and scared

He thought to himself, as long as he's alive, once he escapes, he must expose this evil couple

Who would have thought, this woman seemed to have mind reading powers

"Of course, I advise you not to make a scene After all, who would believe the lie that you and my husband are brothers?" she said

He stared at the beautiful woman in front of him

After Rosalynn finished talking to Luis,

The door to the hospital room was knocked on

She ignored the angry Luis on the bed and walked straight out

Ms Gabriela, I'm afraid we can't proceed with the bone marrow transplant," the attending physician said

Rosalynn frowned "Why wasn't the matching successful?"

The attending physician handed two reports to Rosalynn

When Rosalynn saw the word "Toxicology" written on the report, she was stunned.

We found some marks on his arm that looked like needle holes, probably from long term injections of those substances, the attending physician frowned, so he doesn't meet the donation requirements"

Baron came along with Rosalynn

Upon hearing the doctor's words, his face turned pale.

"How is that possible? We didn't find any records of him being involved in drugs!"

"Maybe he wasn't caught but the test results don't lie," the doctor said regretfully. "Perhaps you could try looking for this gentleman's relatives? Brothers, sisters, or children would do!" His brothers and sisters are useless" Baron was terrified

"What about children? He's a man of this age has been married, does he have any children?" Rosalynn immediately asked

Baron shook his head

"His wife had three daughters, but they all died young Baron lowered his head

Rosalynn felt dizzy

Madam"

Baron quickly reached out to support her

Rosalynn calmed down for a moment, then she turned around and pushed open the door to the hospital room

Wake him up, now!"

Shortly after

Although Luis was still weak, he could talk now.

“My lady after careful consideration, I’ve made up my mind I’m willing to collaborate with you Luis stated, his tone earnest When do you intend to schedule the surgery?”

Rosalynn folded her arms and paced back and forth in front of him.

What are you still acting for?” she asked coldly, “Is your bone marrow even usable?”

Luis was taken aback

Although he suddenly remembered something, he avoided Rosalynn’s gaze: “Didn’t the matching succeed? How come my bone marrow can’t be used.

Baron scolded angrily “You’re actually a drug addict! Why didn’t you say so earlier?”

It’s not a big deal, I just took a little bit last night just a tiny bit!” Luis quickly said, “I read online that it won’t affect anything As long as I drink more water, it will be flushed out!”

“You big idiot“ Baron kicked him

Enough “Rosalynn said impatiently, then stared at Luis, “Do you still want the money?”

Luis nodded “You both are capable people, you must have a way to solve this problem Just tell me what to do, I cooperate“”

“Are there any living relatives on your mother’s side?”

“None“Luis exclaimed before a thought crossed his mind. Is it true that if there’s a blood relation between the donor and recipient, the chances of a successful match are higher?”

It’s a blood relationship with your mother! Your brothers and sisters are useless Baron snapped back

But Luis just laughed “I know, I know I wasn’t talking about my brothers and sisters”
