

THE CONTRACT MARRIAGE

Chapter 11 You Should Ask Julian

Ethan held the marriage certificate tightly in his hand and looked at his son who had a calm expression on his face. His hands kept trembling in the air!

“Impossible! This is absolutely impossible! You and Sarah don’t even have a basic relationship. How could she agree to marry you? Something must have happened between you guys. Christian, tell me! What is going on?” He understood his son’s personality. Although he looked a little cold on the surface, he still knew what to do. This matter of snatching away his younger brother’s fiancée... How could he possibly do it?

Daphne, who was beside him, snatched the marriage certificate from her husband’s hand. When she heard that Ethan was still protecting her stepson at this time, she immediately sneered. “At this point, you are still speaking up for him? No matter what happens, he can't do it! Sarah is his brother's woman!"

"Why did you do that? Why?" Ethan looked at his son and roared. He could not suppress the anger in his eyes. If he did not see him sitting in the wheelchair, he would have slapped him!

Christian's face had a little more sneer. He looked up at his father's expression. "I naturally have my own reasons for doing things. The wedding will be held the day after tomorrow as usual. If you think that I have lost face for this family, you don't have to attend. But Sarah..."

He paused and looked at his father's expression, "I am definitely going to marry her!" Christian's attitude was cold and hard as he finished speaking. He controlled the wheelchair and turned around. "Jayson, take me away from here!"

When Jayson heard Christian's words, he immediately walked over. He ignored everyone's gazes and pushed Christian to the gate.

“Get lost! Don't come back after you leave this house today!” Ethan, who had always been calm and steady, was really angered by his son today. He looked at his son's back as he resolutely left and spoke without thinking.

Benjamin, who had been silent the whole time, could no longer remain silent when he saw this scene. He immediately slammed the table and stood up.

“Christian, don't go yet!”

Jayson immediately stopped and did not dare to move.

“Dad, you have to let him go. He's Julian's Big Brother. He doesn't deserve to stay in this family for doing such an outrageous thing!" Looking at his stubborn son, Ethan anger was completely ignited.

"Shut up!" Benjamin took a few deep breaths and walked to Christian. He looked at his eldest grandson and said slowly, "Christian, grandpa wants to know why you married Sarah. Why did you do such a thing?"

Christian blinked and looked at Benjamin as he slowly replied, "Julian knows better than me about this matter! I think you should ask him. Jayson, let's go!"

He did not want to stay in this home any longer!

"Yes, Regimental Commander!" Jayson immediately pushed Christian away from the villa of Cooper family.

Benjamin frowned. Hearing what he said, he felt that there must be something strange about this matter, but with Christian's personality, he would definitely not tell the truth. Thinking about this, he immediately turned around and looked at Ethan. "Call Julian immediately and ask him to come back."

"Okay!" Ethan also felt that something was wrong when he heard his son's words, but he still had some anger in his heart. He turned around and walked to the living room to call his son, Julian.

Sarah carried Christian's newly bought cloths back home. When she stood downstairs, she subconsciously looked up. When she thought of what happened today, she could not help but let out a long sigh.

Her heart was in a mess. She did not even know how to explain to her mother what happened today.
