

THE CONTRACT MARRIAGE

Chapter 21 Am I not Good Enough for Her?

Julian had been a little nervous since Sarah appeared. Now that he heard what she said, he had mixed feelings in his heart!

He had imagined the result of 110000 different outcomes, but he never thought that she would be so generous and tolerant to him!

“Sarah, scold me and kick me a few times! Don’t punish me in this way.”

No matter how much of a bastard he was, he could not let the woman who had loved him for nine years bear the responsibility for his betrayal!

When Daphne heard Sarah’s words, she had a pleasantly surprised smile on her face. She looked at her son reproachfully.

“What are you talking about, child? Sarah’s heart ached for her mother, which was why she came up with this idea. I think this is a good idea. When the two children broke up, we were all shocked, let alone Sister Samantha. If something happens to her, how are we going to explain it to Sarah’s father? Don’t you think so? Ethan?”

Ethan frowned when he heard his wife’s words. He stared at the woman and shouted “What are you talking about? Do you know... If we really did what Sarah said, Sarah would have to bear the consequences! If Samantha knew it was her daughter who betrayed Julian, what do you think she would think? She would feel sorry for our Cooper family! It was clearly our fault, but we let her suffer like this. Can you feel at ease?”

Daphne was a little discouraged as she retorted in a low voice. “I was just casually saying it. Why are you so angry?”

Benjamin heard his son’s words and nodded in agreement.

“What Ethan said it right! We can’t do this kind of thing. Sarah, I know your starting point is good. But this kind of thing will come to light sooner or later.”

“When that time comes, your mother will suffer a double blow! The fault belongs to our Cooper family. Since it is our fault, we should bear the responsibility. Sarah, you haven’t told your mother about what happened between you and Julian, have you?”

Sarah silently shook her head.

Benjamin looked at his son and instructed, “Ethan you will handle this matter! You take Julian and go to the Wilson family to apologize! No matter what Sarah's mother asks of you, you will agree to her!"

"Dad, don't worry!" Ethan immediately nodded his head in agreement.

Benjamin looked at Christian and then looked at Sarah. "We will leave Julian's matter to Ethan. Now let's talk about Christian and Sarah registering for marriage."

"We all know that you two have no feelings for each other. The reason why you did such a thing today was purely because you were impulsive!"

"We understand it. Before Sarah's mother knew about this matter, you should solve it. You guys had not even received your certificate for more than two or three hours. You should divorce first. This way, it will be less harmful to Samantha! Sarah, what do you think?”

Ethan and Julian both stared Sarah, hoping that she would agree.

“Grandpa, do you think I am not good enough for her?”

Christian, who had been silent all this time, suddenly said with a cold face.

Ethan immediately looked at his son and explained, “What do you mean? You and Sarah are not compatible at all. She was originally your brother’s fiancée, do you understand?”

Daphne heard and immediately agreed, “Yes! Sarah is your brother’s fiancée. If the two of you get married, wouldn’t outsiders laugh at us?”

Christian had a cold smile on his face.

“So that’s how it is! Sarah was abandoned and could not be laughed at but she got married to me and became a joke? If my mom was alive and saw that she had such a kind daughter-in-law, would she also think that it would be a joke?”
