

A Man Like None Other Novel

Chapter 3056

Whoosh!

Ten sword lights rushed towards Huo Sha, and the shield he arranged shattered easily like glass.

A stream of sword energy mercilessly passed across his body.

One, three, ten!

The scars on Huo Sha continued to increase.

In the end, Huo Sha's body was cut into a large number of pieces, and even the primordial spirit was also chopped into pieces.

Shock was written on everyone's faces

For a while, there was no sound, only the sound of Huosha fragments falling to the ground.

Ten palms, ten swords...

David kept his promise with practical actions!

He said that he will pay back ten times!

The strength David showed surprised everyone!

Especially for the perception of Ben Lei Zhang and Nine Shadows swordsmanship, he has indeed learned a lot from the ancestors of the ancient body training clan!

"Mr. Chen, let's go..."

Yihe stepped forward and said to David!

"I can't go back yet. Since the Five Elements Heavenly Demons are intercepted and killed separately, I'm afraid the other casual cultivators are also in danger."

David said with a slight frown!

"It's just casual cultivators, don't care what they do, in this world of heaven and earth, there are killings every day, if Mr. Chen cares, he won't be able to manage it." Yihe persuaded David!

"If someone else kills, I don't care, but I will take care of these Five Elements Heavenly Demons..."

David's eyes were full of murderous intent!

When they were in the Treasure Land, David still remembered that the Five Elements Heavenly Demon chased and killed them!

Seeing this, Yihe stopped persuading him. Whatever David wants to do, let's do it!

He followed behind, as long as David was in danger, he would strike!

"Then let's go quickly..."

Seeing that Yihe was not talking, David quickly headed towards the other direction of the extreme north!

David's spiritual consciousness continued to expand his calculations to the surroundings, and even expanded his calculations to several miles away!

At this time, David was like a moving radar, even if it was a few miles away, he could clearly see it.

Soon, David stopped suddenly, frowned slightly, and then suddenly rushed out towards the southwest!

Seeing this, Yihe and the others hurriedly followed!

As David and the others kept approaching, the sound of fighting and howling came into their ears!

Of the dozen or so casual cultivators, there are not many left who were slaughtered by that Mu Sha!

If it wasn't for Mu Sha's desire to play Mo Catch a Mouse, these casual cultivators would have died long ago!

"Run quickly, if you don't run, you will die..."

Mu Sha said to the few remaining casual cultivators!

But these casual cultivators were covered in injuries, and they were already panting from exhaustion, and they didn't even have the energy to run!

"You can kill or cut whatever you want, anyway, I can't run away..."

Yuan Bao lay on the ground, his face ashen, he knew that he would die, so he didn't want to run away!

"Don't run, don't run..."

Several other casual cultivators were also lying on the ground, and no one ran away!

Seeing that the casual cultivators stopped running away, Mu Sha's eyes flashed coldness, and with a wave of his hand, a vine appeared out of thin air, directly entangling Yuan Bao!

Yuan Bao was caught in mid-air by the vines and kept shaking vigorously, and the vines became more and more entangled, making it difficult for Yuan Bao to breathe, and the bones in his body could hear rattling!

"Run or not? If you don't run, I'll strangle you to death..."

Mu Sha said to Yuan Bao!

Yuan Bao gritted his teeth, obviously carrying it to the end, even if he ran, he would be exhausted, it would be better to be exhausted to death!

Seeing Yuan Bao's attitude, Mu Sha was completely furious!

The force of the vine's entanglement increased again, and Yuan Bao suddenly spewed out a mouthful of blood!

The ribs began to break under the entanglement of the vines!

The severe pain made Yuan Bao sweat profusely, but he didn't make a sound!

Knowing that he was dead, Yuan Bao didn't want to let himself die so uselessly!
