Married at First Sight Chapter 2533-Mr. Fraser came here just to take Kathryn for a ride, and he didn't ask Kathryn where she wanted to go.

He followed the road wherever he found it.

After Kathryn finished the cup of ice cream, she said, "My dad arranged for me to be a pervert. I met a man named Leo at the elevator entrance. He stopped me and wanted to do something to me. Using the moves you taught me, I knocked him down and kicked him hard. I don't think he will dare to challenge me again in the future."

Mr. Fraser was both civilized and martial and had great skills.

Although Kathryn was good at fighting, she had practiced fighting too many times and had not really learned any boxing or kicking skills.

Her adoptive parents didn't treat her well, so why were they willing to spend money to let her learn boxing and martial arts?

After Mr. Fraser came to her side, he found that she was very responsive and strong, so he gave her a few pointers, and she was able to unexpectedly throw Leo over her shoulder and seize the opportunity to beat Leo.

Mr. Fraser's eyes darkened, and he said coldly, "Miss, you should have told me earlier, and I will take off his hand! Mr. Janzen has gone too far!"

Holden had no status in the Farrell family, but he couldn't erase the fact that he was Kathryn's biological father.

Mr. Fraser: "Miss, do you need me to settle the score with Mr. Janzen?"

In Mr. Fraser's eyes, there was only Kathryn, and even Matriarch Farrell could no longer influence him.

Not to mention Holden, a person with little power in the Farrell family.

Kathryn said calmly, "You don't need to go find him. I can handle it myself. My mom will be back in two days. Help me find a woman with a hot body but an angelic face. She must be very coquettish and free-spirited. That kind of person, preferably someone who hangs out in romantic places and has a backer, I want to give him a big gift through my dad.”

If her biological father dared to scheme against her and harm her, she would treat him the same way as he did.

Find a woman with a financial backer so that when her mother came back, she could only vent her anger on her father and couldn't move the chess piece in her hand.

Her biological father had no feelings for her, his biological daughter, and similarly, she had no father-daughter feelings for her biological father.

Originally, Kathryn didn't care that her real father had a strong preference for Shiloh, his fake daughter. They could live in peace without any offense.

No matter whether her father loved her or not, as long as he didn't cheat her, she, as a daughter, would still fulfill her responsibilities as a child. When her father got old, she would support him.

But her father wanted to plot against her and took the initiative to provoke her, so she wouldn't be polite.

When she was still in her adoptive parents' home, her adoptive mother and brothers treated her badly. They also wanted to marry her off to a rich old man a long time ago so that they could collect high-betrothal gifts. She was not the biological daughter of that family, so they would do that to her.

But her own biological father also treated her like this, and Kathryn felt cold even when she was angry.

Wouldn't it be his daughter if she didn't grow up by his side?

Just as a daughter, Holden also cheated her like this.

Kathryn was deeply aware that the Farrell family mansion was already in a mess. When her mom stepped back, she would quickly cut through the mess and clean it up.

Her mother had told her that as the head of the family, the interests of the family and the company came first, and personal feelings came last.

Whether it's family or love,

Since her mother said so, why was she being polite?

Mr. Fraser understood what Kathryn meant. There was a smile in his eyes, and he said, "Okay, I will help you find a good candidate tomorrow. Do you want to arrange the rest yourself, or should I do it?"

Kathryn: "I'll do it. I can't do everything. I asked you to do it, Mr. Fraser; you are too capable and will make me, the master, very useless."

Married at First Sight Chapter 2534-Mr. Fraser smiled: "I exist just for you, miss."

He admired Kathryn's character very much.

Although he seemed weak, he was more ruthless than anyone else, but he also had a clear outlook on life and clear grievances.

"Matriarch Farrell failed to show off her talents in Wiltspoon." Mr. Fraser said.

Kathryn sneered twice, "Does she think Wiltspoon is Jensburg? Even in Jensburg, she can't do whatever she wants. Not only compared with the wealthy families in Wiltspoon, even our Queen family in Jensburg can't compare."

The Jensburg was no longer Jensburg; it was when Matriarch Farrell came to power.

The Farrell family was not the same Farrell family as before.

Kathryn felt that her mom was ruthless enough, but she was still a little behind when it came to taking care of business.

The Farrell Group was clearly in decline, but her mom was helpless.

The company's internal management was also unsatisfactory.

It may be that her mom is old and lacks energy, or it may be that her brothers all work in the company and form cliques, dividing the power of the company internally. However, her mom still cherishes the love between mother and son. She did not punish her sons harshly.

Matriarch Farrell could kill her eldest sister, who brought her up, and she could do the same to her younger sister. However, she softened her heart when it came to the flesh and blood she had given birth to after ten months of pregnancy.

Kathryn said, "Serenity is pregnant. I can't go there in person. Please prepare a generous gift for me and send it to her at Wildridge Manor."

Kathryn and Audrey were of the same generation.

Serenity was her niece. She didn't need a cousin's name. It would be more intimate to say she was a niece.

When Liberty's All You Can Eat restaurant opened, she asked Mr. Fraser to go to Jensburg in person and send him a congratulatory gift.

Serenity was pregnant, so she, as a cousin, naturally had to show some expression.

Mr. Fraser: "Okay."

Kathryn turned her head and looked out the car window, suddenly realizing that they had left the bustling city center.

Kathryn asked, "Where are we going?"

Mr. Fraser replied, "I don't know where to go. I'll just go if there's a road. I'm taking you for a ride to relax. It doesn't matter where I go."

Kathryn pressed down half of the car window. The wind immediately rushed in. After looking at it, she said, "I don't think I have ever walked this road, so let's drive without changing the route. I'll see where the end of this road is."

"Okay."

Soon, Kathryn pressed the car window and said, "November in Jensburg is already cold, and November in Wiltspoon belongs to autumn. If it is the eleventh month of the lunar calendar, then Wiltspoon will be a bit cold, but even in winter, it's not too cold over there. The lowest temperature during the day is over ten degrees, and our winter can drop to below zero." Kathryn suddenly said, "I really want to go skiing in the northernmost part of the country in the winter."

Mr. Fraser: "Miss, if you want to go, you can go this year. I will accompany you. I can ski and can teach you."

Kathryn turned her head to look at Mr. Fraser, her eyes full of admiration, and asked him, "Mr. Fraser, what else can you do?"

Mr. Fraser smiled: "Miss, you should ask me what I can't do. I know too many things, but I don't know what I can't do. It seems that there is nothing I can't do."

Kathryn: "There is one thing you can't do. No matter how good you are, you can't do it."

Mr. Fraser: "What's the matter?"

Kathryn's words stirred Mr. Fraser, who made the decision that he would learn it and succeed no matter how much effort he had to put forth. Let Miss Kathryn take it lightly.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2535- "Will you get pregnant and have a baby?" Kathryn asked him playfully.

Mr. Fraser: "I really don't know how to do this."

Kathryn laughed.

Mr. Fraser also smiled, but his ears were quietly dyed red.

At the same time, the Farrell family mansion.

Shiloh asked her father nervously, "Dad, is the one named Leo Giguere useful? I think it is more than enough to deal with Kathryn."

"Mr. Fraser is not with Kathryn, so don't worry." Holden was full of confidence. "Your mother is coming back soon. As long as Leo gets it done, you can arrange Kathryn's marriage when your mother comes back. If she marries a useless man, she will be inferior to you. You have to be more upbeat and try to get married to Mr. Queen as soon as possible."

"Dad, it's useless; no matter how hard I try, I can't take down Hayden. With Kevin here, I have no chance at all. My mother has repeatedly warned me not to provoke Kevin again. We can't afford to offend the York family." Shiloh pouted and said, "I have to change my pursuit."

But there were so many young talents in Jensburg, and she fell in love with Hayden, thinking that only Hayden was worthy of her.

Holden thought for a while and said, "That's the case too. Kevin is too difficult to deal with, and Hayden is not easy to get close to. Do you have a new target?"

Shiloh: "I haven't picked one yet. I want to pick someone who won't lose, but among several wealthy families, their younger generation is either married, too young, or the second generation ancestor has no ability and cannot meet my requirements."

Holden comforted: "Select slowly. Don't worry; you must find something you like. You complained to your mother; what did your mother say?"

Mentioning this matter, Shiloh said unhappily, "Dad, I find that my mother loves me on the surface, but in fact she is biased towards Kathryn. I know I am not your biological daughter; it is normal for you to be biased towards your own biological daughter.

If mom doesn't like me anymore, you can let me leave the Farrell family.

Kathryn froze my bank card. My mom actually asked me to spend my own personal savings. Dad, you often borrow money from me to spend it. I can't afford to pay it back, and my savings are getting smaller and smaller. I bought too many things today, and I spent millions all at once. I usually use the credit card given by my mother to spend money."

Shiloh didn't feel bad about the money.

When she spends her savings, it's like cutting off the flesh on her body.

She felt so bad for her.

"What did you buy that cost millions at once?" Holden felt distressed.

If his daughter spent less money, he could borrow more and spend it again.

Shiloh: "I just bought clothes, jewelry, and bags. They were all brand-name goods. They easily cost several million. My friends were all there at the time. I was too embarrassed to say no, so I had to take out my bank card; it costs my own savings."

Holden said to her, "You know, there are so many luxuries; just buy less."

Shiloh: "I didn't know Kathryn dared to freeze my bank card. She is my nemesis; after she came back, everything went wrong for me, and I was forced to leave the company. The profits of my own business were getting worse and worse, and the competition was too great. People who rented my shop to do business were always unable to compete. The ones next to it.

They moved away because their business was not doing well. They had to change owners every month. Everyone said that my shop was a waste of money and not suitable for business. As a result, not only was my shop unable to raise the rent, but even if the rent is lowered, it is difficult to rent them out. I only have three shops in total, and two of them are already vacant and cannot be rented out.

I rented my house to others, and others thought my rent was too high, so they moved out when the rent expired. Now there are also many of them that are vacant, and the monthly rental income is tens of thousands of dollars, which is not enough for me to buy a Hermès bag."

Married at First Sight Chapter 2536-Shiloh added, "My mother also asked me to compensate for Kathryn's car repair expenses. She didn't only have one car. One of her cars broke down. It would be useful to replace it with another one. She also asked me to pay for the car repair expenses. She just said hundreds of thousands of dollars. Now I don't have much savings. Hundreds of thousands is just cutting off my flesh, not to mention paying compensation to Kathryn."

Holden: "There is nothing I can do."

Both father and daughter were very dissatisfied with Kathryn, but there was nothing they could do against her.

They could only hope that Leo could be more forceful and sleep with Kathryn so that Kathryn could marry Leo, a second-generation ancestor.

At this time, there was a quarrel outside the house.

The quarrel got louder and louder, and it seemed that they were getting violent. Both father and daughter heard the butler's quarrel.

The father and daughter looked at each other, stood up immediately, and walked out quickly.

Erika, the eldest mistress of the Farrell family, caught her husband, Marco, and his girlfriend going to the hotel to have s*x. The couple quarreled all the way back and even started fighting when they got home.

She didn't have the image of a noble lady at this moment. She was like a madman, grabbing Marco and beating, scratching, pulling, and biting him.

Although Marco was in the wrong, when he returned home, he suddenly felt that his waist was stiff. How could he let his wife be beaten so violently and fight back so rudely?

Instead, Erika received a severe beating from Marco that left her face bruised and her nose swollen. She was so angry and aggrieved that she sat on the ground and cried, "Marco, you hit me; you actually hit me!"

Marco actually didn't do it either.

There were scratches from Erika on his face and neck. Erika's nails were long, like goblin hands, and were scratched and scarred. Marco felt burning pain on his face and neck, so he touched them. There's still some blood.

The butler grabbed Marco and advised, "Young Master, please don't fight with the Young Mistress. When the young Miss comes back, she will scold the young Master again."

Marco said, "Am I still afraid of that country bumpkin? I thought she could control me because she was the eldest lady of the Farrell family. I am still her eldest brother!"

Marco cheated Erika. After Erika found out about it, the couple had an unknown number of quarrels. His sister, Kathryn, stood beside Erika. On the other side, he was criticized repeatedly, which made him almost angry to death.

Hearing that the butler mentioned the real sister-in-law, Kathryn, Erika immediately crawled aside, picked up the bag that fell on the ground, took out her mobile phone from the bag, and called Kathryn.

Kathryn quickly answered her call.

"Kathryn, come back quickly; your elder brother is going to beat me to death!" Erika cried and said this to Kathryn.

Half a month ago, Erika didn't like Kathryn, her sister-in-law, but now she regards Kathryn as her savior.

Her husband cheated on her and betrayed her. Shiloh, whom she had always tried to please, was on Marco's side.

Erika was so angry.

Although she had ulterior motives for being nice to Shiloh in the past, wanting to instigate Shiloh and Kathryn to fight, when she first married into the Farrell family, she was really nice to Shiloh, her sister-in-law.

Shiloh was also a woman, but she sided with Marco, accusing her, the first wife, of not doing a good job and not being able to keep her man. It was her fault, and she couldn't blame Marco for cheating on her.

At this moment, Erika resented everyone in the Farrell family, except Kathryn.

Kathryn could stand by her side and empathize with her from a woman's perspective.

Unlike Shiloh, the white-eyed wolf who was not well-raised.

Wait, she would let Shiloh walk around without finishing the meal, but she was just a fake. What qualifications did she have to be so cruel?

Married at First Sight Chapter 2537-Serenity and the others who were far away in Wiltspoon didn't know about the liveliness of the Farrell in Jensburg.

Serenity was aware of Matriarch Farrell's visit to the Stone family.

When Serenity was chatting with Zachary during the night break, she mentioned this incident and guessed that Matriarch Farrell stayed in Wiltspoon for more than half a month and was hiding a conspiracy.

Zachary comforted her; not to worry, he was paying attention to the whereabouts of Matriarch Farrell, and he was also secretly watched. Matriarch Farrell could not make trouble in Wiltspoon.

Serenity had always believed in Zachary. Since Zachary said she didn't need to worry, she stopped worrying.

From then on, she did not suffer from morning sickness. Fortunately, she only vomited for a short period of time. She was afraid that she would vomit until she was alive, like Alice.

However, she got sleepy easily, and she fell into a trance as soon as she fell asleep. Zachary didn't wake her up, and she often slept from morning to night and from night to morning. She seriously suspected that she had been possessed by the god of sleep.

When she woke up, it was already broad daylight.

When she opened her eyes, without exception, the first thing she saw was Zachary.

Zachary said with a smile, "Good morning, wife."

Then he came over and kissed her on the forehead.

When he came closer, Serenity closed her eyes and felt his gentle good morning kiss.

After Zachary finished kissing her, she opened her eyes, put her hands around his neck naturally, kissed him lightly on the lips, and said with a smile, "Good morning, husband."

After the couple said good morning to each other and gave each other a good morning kiss, Serenity asked him, "What time is it now?"

"I didn't look at the time. It should be around seven or eight o'clock."

Zachary sat up as he spoke, reached for the mobile phone placed on the bedside table, looked at the time, and smiled: "It's already nine o'clock."

Serenity also sat up, "I guessed that the time was very late. As long as I fall asleep now, it will be late when I wake up. How can I sleep so well? This kid of ours is probably a lazy person. Like to sleep in."

"No, many people get sleepy easily during pregnancy. Don't blame it on my baby." Zachary got out of bed and walked away. Without asking, he knew that he was going to get her clothes.

Serenity sat down in front of the dressing table and combed her long hair in front of the mirror, but she smelled the aroma of food in the room.

When Zachary came over with her clothes, Serenity said, "Husband, I seem to smell the aroma of the food. What delicious food was made at home today? The aroma is so strong that I can smell it in the room."

Zachary smiled and said, "I woke up two hours earlier than you. I went downstairs to prepare breakfast for you. I checked it and served it to you when it was almost time. You can eat it after you wash up. It's still hot."

Serenity: "No wonder, I thought I had a dog nose after I became pregnant."

Zachary: "You also have a strong sense of smell."

Zachary took the comb from her hand and combed her long hair. After combing it smooth, he used the hairpin and gave her a clip to clip it up for her.

"Sister and Duncan are here with Sonny." Zachary suddenly told his wife good news.

Hearing this, Serenity was indeed very happy. She turned to her husband and asked, "Really? How come my sister and brother Duncan have time to come over? Sonny doesn't have to go to kindergarten?"

"You fell asleep. Today is Saturday. He doesn't have to go to kindergarten. My sister's All You Can Eat restaurant has a stable business and is managed by the foreman. You don't have to worry if she doesn't come back to the restaurant for a day."

Serenity smiled and said, "I'm not working now, and I really haven't paid attention to the day of the week. I don't know how to live happily. That's my situation."

The couple were still on wedding leave.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2538-Zachary didn't have to go to work. The couple spent all day together, as if they were conjoined.

The young couple had breakfast in the room before going downstairs together.

Zachary didn't forget to pack the dishes and take them downstairs.

While Tania was holding Sonny, Liam and Tania were chatting with Liberty and Duncan in the first floor hallway.

Serenity heard her mother-in-law say in a distressed tone on the stairs, “Sonny has lost a little weight recently. Sonny, you should eat more at lunch. You are at home during the holidays these two days. Eat and drink well. You’ve lost so much weight that I feel distressed just looking at you.”

Liberty smiled and said, “Auntie, he has not lost weight; he has gained a few kilograms.”

When the elders see the younger generation, they always feel that the younger generation has lost weight, and then they try to replenish their bodies and make them eat more.

“Sonny isn’t fat either. Besides, children will be cute if they have some fat. I like cute little ones who are white and chubby.” After saying that, Tania kissed Sonny’s little face again, smiled, and said to Sonny, “Sonny, you don’t have to listen to your mother; you are not fat at all; you have to eat more; eat more to be tall and grown up.”

Sonny said sweetly, “Grandma, I am very good at eating, even better than my aunt.”

“Really? You can eat more than me. We’ll have to compete later to see who eats more.” Serenity took over what her nephew said.

Sonny looked up and saw his aunt coming down from upstairs. She immediately slipped from Tania’s arms and ran to Serenity happily.

The adults repeatedly reminded Sonny not to run so fast and to be careful about falling.

Tania was worried that his daughter-in-law would hurry down the stairs, so she reminded Serenity: “Serenity, be careful where you step.”

Serenity had already walked down the stairs, and Sonny also ran to her, stretching out his hands for her to hug.

The servant saw the tray Zachary was holding and quickly stepped forward to take the tray from Zachary’s hand and take it into the kitchen to clean.

Zachary lifted Sonny as soon as Serenity picked him up, and Sonny fell into his arms.

“Seren, Sonny is getting heavier and heavier. If you are like this now, hold him less.” Zachary said warmly and then said to Sonny, “Sonny, the little sister in your aunt’s belly was not born yet. Before, don’t let your aunt hug you and your uncle hug you.”

Sonny was not angry when his uncle took him from his aunt. When he heard Zachary talking about his little sister, he said seriously, “Uncle, my aunt doesn’t have a little sister in her belly.”

Zachary: “Why don’t you have a little sister?”

Zachary: “Is it true that there is no little sister?”

Sonny remembered that when he met Alice, he also said that Alice had a little brother in her belly. Alice really had given birth to a son.

Sonny’s little mouth spoke very well. Although he knew that it would be difficult for him to conceive a daughter, before the child was born, he at least had some illusions. Now that Sonny said this, Zachary’s illusions were shattered.

Sonny said, “However, my mother said that my uncle likes my little sister and asked me not to say in front of you that the baby in my aunt’s belly is a little brother. Only if I say little sister will my uncle be happy. However, my mother and teacher also said that children cannot lie. Be an honest child; I am an honest child.”

So Sonny told the truth. He just felt that what was in his aunt’s belly was a little sister.

Zachary and Serenity looked at each other, and Serenity smiled and said, “I knew it was a fantasy.”

Although she was only eight weeks pregnant and the baby was not yet formed, her instinct was that it was a son.

The strong genes of their York family for having children were not so easy to break.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2539-Sonny acted like an honest child. After he finished speaking, he looked straight at Zachary and asked carefully, "Uncle, are you angry?"

Because my aunt didn't give birth to a little sister."

Zachary walked to everyone with Sonny in his arms, then sat down on the sofa and let Sonny sit on his lap.

He waited until Serenity sat down next to him before he answered Sonny's question.

Zachary said, "Uncle is not angry. Although uncles prefer daughters, sons are also very good. It would be nice for your aunt to have a little brother as cute as you."

In fact, Zachary didn't dare to hold out hope.

It was only after the master was invited by grandma to tell their fortunes that the couple had such extravagant hopes.

In Serenity's words, the couple fell in love for a year before getting pregnant. Whether it was a boy or a girl, it was the fruit of their love.

Sonny breathed a sigh of relief.

He slipped off Zachary's lap, walked to Liberty's side, and said to her, "Mom, neither aunt nor uncle are angry. Don't teach me to lie in the future."

Everyone laughed.

Liberty's face turned red as she smiled.

She stretched out her hand and pinched Sonny's little face and said to him, "Go out and play; don't run so far."

Sonny pouted, "It's not fun for me to be alone. Mom, why don't you stay with me?"

Liberty said: "Mom wants to chat with your aunt, and you go out and play by yourself."

Sonny still didn't want to leave. Wildridge Manor was fun, but he was alone there. No matter how fun it was, there were few people, and it wasn't lively.

Zachary said with a smile, "Your Ninth Uncle Rowan is on vacation this week. He should get up at this time. You go to your Ninth Uncle to play, or ask the butler uncle to help you call your little playmates over and go to the playground to play."

Many of the workers who work at York's house have children.

It's just that they usually didn't dare let their children enter the manor to play in the children's playground, even if the owner was very kind, unless they received an invitation.

For example, when Sonny came to play, the butler would allow the workers' children to enter the manor and play with Sonny in the children's amusement park for a few days.

Normally, if Rowan and Grandma May were at home, the children would be allowed to come in and play, but the butler told them to only play in the children's amusement park and not to run around, lest Rowan would be angry.

Not only the butler gives instructions, but the workers also give instructions to their children.

Hearing that Zachary was at home on vacation, Sonny immediately said, "I'm going to play with Uncle Rowan."

Rowan was not yet an adult, and a teenager couldn't play with a three-year-old like Sonny, but he could play, and Sonny liked to play with him.

Zachary ordered the butler to send Sonny to his third uncle Bowen's house.

Let Rowan take Sonny around to play, so he won't disturb the adults chatting.

Sonny ran out quickly.

Zachary looked at Duncan and said to him, "Duncan, you haven't been here for a long time. You and my sister must come here more often in the future."

Tania also said about Duncan: "You, Zack, and Josh are the best buddies. You buddies have become strangers recently, so you need to keep in touch with each other more."

Everyone knew that the reason Duncan rarely came to Wildridge Manor was because he had difficulty moving.

He was worried that his coming would affect everyone's mood and would require others to take care of him, which would drag everyone down.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2540-Duncan smiled and said, "I'm also busy and don't have time. Zack and Serenity are on their honeymoon, so I can't disturb the two."

Although the young couple did not go out for their honeymoon and were only traveling by car in Wiltspoon, Duncan did not want to disturb the young couple.

If it were him, if he married Liberty, he wouldn't like to be disturbed during the honeymoon. He would just like the couple to stay together every day, travel around the mountains and rivers, and sit and watch the sunrise and sunset. Such a life would be really happy.

The butler sent Sonny to Bowen's room. When he came back, he happened to see Josh coming with Jasmine. He entered the room and respectfully said to Zachary, "Master, Master Bucham is here."

Josh entered the house with Jasmine, holding large and small bags in her hands.

"Jasmine." Seeing her friend, Serenity smiled and waved to her friend.

Zachary stood up and walked toward Josh. While taking the things from Josh's hand, he said to him, "It's not the first time here. You bought so many things and spent a lot of money."

Josh smiled and said, "I'm not afraid you'll be angry. We didn't buy these supplements. They were given to Jasmine by relatives and friends to replenish her body. Jasmine only has one mouth. How much can she eat? Just give Serenity some and help Jasmine share it.

My cousin doesn't let Jasmine take too many supplements. She tells her to eat normally and prepare three meals a day according to the recipes she made to ensure that Jasmine and the baby in her belly are fully nutritious. There is no need to take too many supplements. Too much is not good."

His cousin worked as a nutritionist for their family, and Josh not only respected her but also trusted her.

It's his cousin, a nutritionist, who sometimes had lenient control. Jasmine didn't say anything because she didn't want to affect the relationship between his siblings.

But how could Josh not know about his family's affairs?

He knew everything about other people's homes.

He asked his mother to talk to his cousin in private several times. Now that his cousin was not too lenient, Jasmine could feel more at ease at home.

When Serenity heard that they were supplements, she smiled bitterly and said, "I still want to sell some of the stuff here to your home, but you just stuff it all at my place."

She had taken care of her pregnant sister, served her during confinement, and helped her take care of her children. She had more experience than Jasmine or even Alice.

Just as the Bucham family's nutritionist said, just eat three normal meals and not be picky about food, and it'll be fine for a pregnant woman. There's no need to take supplements.

Serenity only occasionally soaked and steamed food that everyone brought to her.

She generally didn't take other supplements.

As for her food, it was very good and nutritious enough. If she took supplements, it would be too much.

Jasmine was older than Serenity in her pregnancy, and her belly was slightly bulging, but she was wearing loose clothes and looked like she had gained some weight.

It was rare to see Duncan here. After Josh put down his things, he slapped Duncan on the arm and said to Duncan, "It's so boring. You hide at home every day and don't come out to hang out with us. We are good buddies. But no matter how good a friend is, if we don't meet often or keep in touch, we will become strangers, and our feelings will be gone."

Duncan said repeatedly, "Yes, yes, I was wrong. I will ask you out for a drink when I have time in the future. Then you can't say your wife won't let you drink."

"It's okay to have a few sips of wine at a party with you. After I get home, I'll wash myself up and eat a few pieces of chewing gum. I think Jasmine won't drive me to the study to sleep. Zachary, your wife will drive you to sleep in the study?"
