

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2276

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2276-This confused her.

She did not know why David stopped.

She did not hesitate to shoot that arrow just now.

The two stood in the air quietly, staring at each other. None spoke.

After about ten seconds, David pull back his hand, coughed, and said, "Um... You should know Evie, right?"

"What do you think?" Queen Isa answered blankly.

With that, she took off her veil to show her beautiful face which was so similar to Evie's.

At the same time, her Elvish ears were also on display.

Looking at Queen Isa's expression, David thought for a while and analyzed what happened. Finally, he understood.

If the woman was here to look for Evie, was it possible that she sensed Evie's presence just now and thought that David was the one who captured her?

Otherwise, why would she come here with killing intentions?

The more he thought about this, the more David thought this possible.

The other party thought he caught the Elven Princess, but in reality, he saved her.

This had been a misunderstanding.

"Who are you to Evie?" David asked again.

"Evie is the Elven Princess and I am Queen Isa of the Elves. Who do you think I am to her?" Queen Isa's expression still did not change.

"Princess Evie? Queen Isa? Are you saying you're Evie's mother?" David looked like he had come to a realization.

No wonder she wanted to kill him the moment she saw him.

They were mother and daughter.

If she thought he was the one that captured her daughter, then it was understandable that a mother, desperate to save her daughter, would do this.

Queen Isa did not say anything, so he assumed that she agreed tacitly.

“Queen Isa, I think you’ve misunderstood. It’s not what you think.”

‘Tell me then. What’s going on?’ Queen Isa’s eyes were cold.

It was fine when David did not mention Evie, but when he did, Isa wanted to tear this punk apart thinking how this punk damaged the successor she spent all her sweat, blood, and time cultivating.

“Princess Evie is indeed with me, but I didn’t catch her and I didn’t force her to stay with me. She can leave anything she wants, but Evie feels that it may be dangerous to leave, so she begged me to escort her to Amber City. We’re on our way now and ran into you,” David explained patiently.

“Are you telling the truth?” Queen Isa did not quite believe David’s words.

“Of course it is true! Do you think I would lie to you at this time? You will know if you ask Evie.”

‘Then how did you meet Evie?’

“I bought her from a merchant at an underground fair in Sole for 250 billion L Dollars.”

When Queen Isa heard this, killing intent flashed in her eyes.

‘Who was the merchant who sold Evie to you?’

“I don’t know! Everyone wore masks in the underground trade fair so everyone is anonymous.”

David spread his hands, saying that he did not know who sold Evie to him.

Queen Isa looked straight at David with her beautiful eyes.

She was analyzing the truth of David's words in her heart.

After much deliberation, she figured that David didn't have to lie.

If he had not discovered that she looked a lot like Evie just now, there was a high probability that she would die in his hands.

This guy's soul power was too strong.

"David, I hope you're not lying. No matter who you are and what background you have, the Elves will not stop. Evie is the Elven Princess so she's very important to us. We will do everything to seek revenge no matter who hurts her," Queen Isa gritted her teeth and said.

"Fine! You won't believe anything I say anyway, so you should just go ask Evie. She's not far from here," David shrugged indifferently.

Aside from the fact that he had been helping Evie, so what if he offended the Elves?

This Elven Queen was not his opponent anyway, so what was there to be scared of?