I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2351-In fact, Pebbles gained more benefits from attaching herself to David every day than she gained from eating treasures.

With only a wisp of her soul remaining, she needed the right time, place, and people to be able to grow to this level in such a short period.

Among them, the one who played the biggest role was David.

Or rather, David's soul body.

If Pebbles had not met David, she would not have grown to where she was today even with an infinite supply of treasures of heaven and earth.

Celeste's soul power skyrocketed because she had strayed into a fantasy with David and had soul contact.

It had far exceeded the strength of her Eternal Realm late Sovereign Rank, and that was why she could cultivate her soul power to the limit.

However, Celeste's realm was still very low, so the benefits of a strong mind power had not yet emerged.

Once she broke through peak Sovereign Rank, she would know how difficult it was for others to cross the astronomical barrier from Eternal Realm to Saint Realm, but how easy it would be for her with powerful soul power.

Starting from Saint Realm, the strength of one's soul power would determine future achievements and heights.

As long as they had strong enough soul power, there would be no such things as obstacles.

Therefore, The Spirit Cage, a place that could strengthen the soul power, became the second world.

Countless people were scrambling to enter and make a better future for themselves.

Not just humans.

Even other races wanted to go in.

Celeste had soul contact with David, which then made her soul power soar.

Meanwhile, Pebbles clung to David every day and would burrow into David's arms. Moreover, she would even sleep in David's arms. Since both of them had soul bodies, this was also regarded as soul contact.

Therefore, one could imagine the benefits for Pebbles.

The Spirit Cage was like a huge fantasy that would accommodate the souls of countless creatures.

David and Pebbles were just two of them.

It was the combination of the benefit she got from being with David all the time and the countless treasures of heaven and earth that David prepared for Pebbles that enabled her to grow so fast.

Otherwise, nobody knew how many years she would need to grow to be 16 or 17 years old.

After David's mind power broke through to Overlord Realm, she especially felt her body recovering rapidly with every moment in David's arms.

Of course, this was just the beginning.

If she wanted to return to her peak, there was still a long, long way to go.

After all, it was not that easy to recover the soul power of an Overlord.

After the energy in her body was stimulated and absorbed, Pebbles' body grew again.

She started talking to herself once more.

"Davey, my name is Elora! But I still think the name you gave me sounds nicer. I really want to be Pebbles all the time and let Elora die in that battle."

After she said that, she paused for a second before continuing, "Unfortunately, this is impossible! The Robotias and the Soul Devourers have teamed up to attack Leila. I must report this as soon as possible and prepare everyone. Otherwise, the consequences may be very serious. If that happened, the lives of countless races and creatures in Leila will be threatened. Davey, you will also be in danger. You have protected me for so long, so I will protect you in the future, Davey, I'll see you in Leila in the future!"

After Pebbles finished speaking, her body turned into a ray of light and sped towards the main city, Amber City.

In the blink of an eye, she disappeared and her speed was shocking.

Although her memory was restored and she knew her name and identity, her soul power was far from the peak, so she could not even leave The Spirit Cage.

She needed more and more precious treasures of heaven and earth to recover some more.

At least, she needed to restore her soul power until she could leave The Spirit Cage and return to the real world.

Facing the combined sneak attack of the Robotias and the Soul Devourers, she self-detonated to seek a chance at life.

The most difficult time was now over.

This time, Elora made the right bet.
