I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2372-If she smiled at Lufian so gently, he would wake up in joy from his dream.

However, right now, Elora was only thinking about David who was so good to her. He gave her everything but did not ask for anything in return.

“I wonder how Davey... I mean David is. I left without a word, so I guess he might hate me now. I didn't even do the most basic thing of informing him. However, if I did that, could I leave? Plus, time doesn't wait. David, once I solve the crisis of Leila, I will apologize to you. Even if you don't forgive me, it's fine. As one of the five Leila rulers, I must do this. This is my duty so I hope you understand.”

Elora murmured. She was talking to herself.

Now that she had completely regained her memory, it would not be appropriate for her to call David Davey.

One must know that she was much older than David.

If she had followed David, she might not have arrived at the main city even now.

Even if she had, she would still have to spend money and time to buy treasures.

In addition, most of the treasures of heaven and earth were with the major forces, and they would not sell them.

They would only take the treasures out when there was a family emergency.

They were strategic materials and so they were priceless.

Since Elora wanted to recover her soul power quickly, she was not wrong for taking this step.

As for the pile of top-tier treasures of heaven and earth around her, none of them could be bought with money.

The only questionable thing was her message on paper before she left.

David genuinely treated Elora as a family member.

They had been with each other for the past two years, so they held a very important position in each other's hearts.

She did not even dare tell David and this caught David off guard.

However, Elora also had her own ideas.

At that time, she had not fully recovered her memory, and David had much influence on her.

So if she told David and he refused to let her go, she would have obeyed and not left.

Or she could wait until all her memory was restored and uncover her responsibilities before leaving.

However, Elora had no idea how long it would take.

The Robotias and the Soul Devourers would not give them any chances.

Elora knew she could not wait, so she simply left a note to avoid any chance that would she would be impeded from leaving.

The most important thing now was to restore her soul power and stop entangling with David.

All else aside, if the Robotias and the Soul Devourers joined forces to invade them, David would also be implicated.

So in a way, she was protecting David as well.

After she recomposed herself, Elora looked at the mountain of elixir and treasures.

Then, she inhaled with all her might and countless elixirs flew to her mouth. She swallowed them all.

After a while, the pile of treasures was reduced by one-tenth.

It was hard to imagine how a woman could eat so much at once.

It was also very hard to determine the value of this mouthful of things.

If David saw this, he would surely hit his chest and stomp his feet.

How much money would he need to buy so many top-tier treasures of heaven and earth?

He was not sad about his money, but his lavish points.

If he bought these with his money, the lavish points he would get might be enough for him to break through to peak

Overlord or even beyond. It might even be possible for him to take a small step forward.

With someone beyond Overlord Realm, the Robotias and the Soul Devourers be asking for death if they invaded Leila.

However, this would not happen.

If David wanted to break through urgently, he still had to work hard and spend more money.
