

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2458

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2458-No wonder she did not see anyone along the way.

Even if The Krums shifted their focus to the secular world, it would still be impossible that no one was standing guard.

Lorraine hesitated for a while before walking in.

Inside the hall of the sect, the head of the sect, Ted, was full of hot air.

Below him were about 200 to 300 persons all the elites of the sect.

Lorraine's previous seniors, Grant and Fred, were among them. Moreover, they were standing in the first row.

Her master, Taylor, was also there.

"Everyone, The Krums have always been the leader of Somerland's hidden sects. All of the sects have to listen to us, just as the King family is the leader of the hidden families. However, our position has been pretty shaky recently. You all know the reason why,

"As the head of the sect, I will not allow other sects to climb over the head of our sect with regards to this. I will also now allow them to advance at the same pace as us. The Krums should be unique and, as one of The Krums, everyone has to work hard for this.

"The meeting started by Mt. Surr this time..." Before Ted could finish, he was interrupted by a sound.

Creak!

The door of the hall was pushed open from the outside.

All of the disciples were stunned and unconsciously turned to look at the door, including Ted.

Ever since The Krums hosted meetings, they had never encountered this before.

How dare someone barge into the hall and interrupt while the meeting was on?

The people from the sect will never be so bold.

Ted's first reaction was to think that someone was here to start trouble.

Choosing to come at this time was truly a huge insult to the sect.

Even though Mt. Surr was about to surpass The Krums, The Krums were still the first among the sects.

No matter who it was, they had to be taught a severe lesson.

Ted was fuming with anger and was about to teach this bold person a lesson when a beautiful figure appeared.

The disciples who saw this were all stunned and they could not focus on anything else.

They felt as if their hearts were racing, and their blood pressure began to rise.

Back then, Lorraine was known as a peerless woman.

Yet, she was still pitifully weak.

Now that she was a Saint, her temperament changed drastically.

Saints were not only powerful, but they would also exude sacred energy after gaining Saint Power.

Only someone like David who had extremely strong willpower could be indifferent toward Lorraine.

It was not that he was immune to her, but he could resist her easily.

The others could not.

The sight of the woman they had been dreaming about day and night, now standing in front of the door, filled Grant and Fred with an overwhelming sense of excitement.

They thought they would never be able to see her again.

However, God was kind to them.

Taylor also recognized her disciple and she had a pleased smile on her face.

Ted was taken aback by the unexpected visitor, who turned out to be a disciple of the sect rather than an enemy.

After Lorraine pushed the door open, stepped into the hall and walked forward.

When she came to the front of all of the disciples, she ignored the crazy gazes and said, "Disciple Lorraine greets you, Master Ted, Master Coda, and all of my seniors and juniors."

When Lorraine opened her mouth, everyone in the hall felt like they were basking in a spring breeze.