

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2466

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2466-After he said that, Lufian replied, "I'm completely fine." "Me too!"

"I'm fine!"

Valentin and Drogo replied as well.

"That's good. After this, let's concentrate and help Elora restore her body with a spurt of energy."

"Got it!"

"Elora, are you ready?" Sylvio looked at the planet, shining in many colors, and asked.

"Sylvio, everything's ready on my end. I've already adjusted my state to the peak too." Elora's voice came from the colorful planet.

"Alright, if that's the case, let's proceed with the last step."

The four cast the forbidden technique at the same time and the colorful lights brightened, reaching a blinding level.

Anyone below Overlord Realm might not be able to open their eyes.

Only Overlords could endure this.

This passed slowly and on the planet, Elora could feel her soul getting solidified by something.

Her soul was exposed to the outside and it finally found a home.

She was delighted.

The restoration of her body was finally at the last step.

She was making preparations in the previous months, and now she was finally at the last and the most crucial step.

Once this was successful, she could have her body back again.

Plus, it would be completely the same as before.

At this moment, Drogo and Valentin felt huge pressure.

Their strengths were much lower compared to Sylvio and Lufian.

Sweat began to form on their foreheads as they gritted their teeth to power through this.

Drogo and Valentin knew very well that they had to hold on no matter what.

If there was an accident, the past few months' hard work would be in vain and Elora's soul would also be affected. They could not let this happen.

They could not be the reason for failure.

Sylvio noticed Drogo and Valetin's state. He shouted, "Valentin, Drogo, you must hold on. Elora's body is being restored and it'll be done soon."

"Sylvio, don't worry. We will never hold you back," Valentin said through gritted teeth.

"Yes, we will not become the sinners," Drogo also said.

"Thank you!" Lufian said suddenly.

"Lufian, you don't have to thank us. The five Leila rulers are a unit and none of us can be left behind. Moreover, you and Elora are not together yet. If we want gratitude, it should come from Elora."

"Yeah! If you want to thank us, you can do that after you end up with Elora. Say, how many epochs has it been? Why are you still not with her?"

Dorgo and Valentin said, a hint of mockery in their voices.

"Don't worry, guys. I will surely succeed and it won't be too long," Lufian said affirmatively.

Sylvio and Elora heard what the three said,

Sylvio sighed internally.

After Elora's narrow escape from death, he knew those two would have an ill-fated relationship and would never end up together.

It might even cause some serious consequences.

If his Zwei Arithmetics did not tell him that David was

Elora's savior and that David was so mysterious that even the Zwei Arithmetics could not figure him out, Sylvio would never let this kind of thing happen.

Leila was destined to go through a catastrophe, but who was the variable?

He guessed it might be David.

Elora heard what the three said and she could not stop herself from thinking of David.

If she had not met David in The Spirit Cage, she might have ended up with Lufian.

But now...

While everyone was deep in their thoughts, a sinister voice rang in their ears.

"Teh tch tch, what a good method. What a good method indeed. The restoration of an Overlord's body, tch tch tch..."

"What a rare sight. I guess I've come at the right moment."