I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2498-When they saw David, both breathed a sigh of relief.

In Thor's opinion, David was omnipotent and could solve any problem.

Arian assumed that David's background was on the same level as the Campbell family, so David's status was obviously much higher than Perry's.

Among the forces with the same level, the direct descendants were also divided into different ranks.

David was clearly first in the ranks. Perry would be much lower.

As for Fabiola, Arian did not know her nor did he know the Marche family, so he had no clue about her status.

"Captain Longer, Rivers, what's going on?" David looked at the two and asked in confusion.

He received a notice from Thor that someone came to Jumbo Court to make trouble, so he hurried over with Pebbles.

Eventually, he encountered such a scene.

David's arrival temporarily interrupted the conversation between Fabiola and Perry.

After all, the surrounding crowd had retreated far away and left a huge space when David walked in with a little girl in his arms.

When he spotted David talking to Arian and the boss of Jumbo Court, Perry knew this punk must be the support behind Jumbo Court.

Immediately, he diverted his attention and prepared to first vent his anger on Jumbo Court.

He said to Fabiola, "Fabiola, let's talk about this later. I have other things to deal with now, so if you want to be here, don't disturb me."

Seeing that Perry had agreed to let her stay, Fabiola happily replied, "Don't worry! Perry, I will only help you and not make trouble for you."

Perry turned to face David and the others, then said coldly, "Arian, is this the kid you're waiting for? I'm curious to see how he can make the dignified Captain Longer willingly offend me by protecting Jumbo Court."

"Perry, this is Amber City, not the Campbell residence. As the captain of the Amber City law enforcement team, it's my job to stop you from messing around" Arian replied sternly.

When David was not here, he did not back down, and now that David was here, he would never compromise with Perry.

This was a good opportunity to curry favor with David, so how could he miss it?

"Are you the one Rivers mentioned who came to make trouble at Jumbo Court?" David asked Perry as he looked at him.

"I didn't come to make trouble!"

After Perry finished speaking, a sneer appeared on the corner of his mouth. "I'm here to raid the place and wipe you all out."

"You? Where do you want to raid? Who do you want to wipe out?" David looked disdainful.

How dare this hedonist act so recklessly in front of him?

At this moment, Pebbles suddenly broke free from David's hand that was covering her eyes and turned to look around curiously.

When she saw Fabiola standing with Perry, she immediately shouted, "Wow! What a big ball!"

Fabiola's expression instantly became extremely unpleasant.

That damned girl called her a ball?

Although what the other party said was true, how could Fabiola admit it?

She despised it when others talked about her shortcomings.

'You brat, who are you calling a ball? I'll rip your mouth from your face!' Fabiola was furious.

"Wow! You have hands, and feet, and can talk! Are you a ballshaped human? You look so ugly! I've never seen someone so ugly like you!" The little girl looked surprised.

Her words directly amused the onlookers around her.

Everyone covered their mouths and wanted to laugh but did not dare to.

A ball-shaped human?

What an apt description!

Of course, Pebbles' words completely offended Fabiola.

'You! Bring that brat to me. I will tear her mouth apart with my own hands and ruin her face so that she will have a life worse than death.'" Fabiola yelled maniacally.

'Yes, Miss!'"

The Marche family guards hidden in the crowd immediately sprang into action.
