I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2417-After David left the mayor's residence with Beanie and the others, he found a luxury inn to stay.

Then, he ordered the two to carry out their duties.

Beanie was in charge of buying a house. He could only go back to the real world after he solved their accommodation problem.

On the other hand, Thor was responsible for acquiring all kinds of precious treasures of heaven and earth.

Now David needed a few more lavish points.

He had to upgrade his soul power to Supreme level 10.

He wanted to know if he could challenge the mysterious person when his soul power reached Supreme level 10.

Or should he upgrade to Ancient Overlord Rank?

David had no idea how strong the mysterious person was. Anyway, he felt that his Supreme level 1 soul power was no match for them.

A few days later, they had settled their accommodation search and so left the inn to move into a new place near the mountains.

The area was very large.

So, of course, the price was not cheap.

There were only eight main cities in The Spirit Cage and yet they were equivalent to super cities like Capital City and Springfield in Somerland on Earth. Therefore, the price was naturally very high.

Buying this house contributed a lot of lavish points to David.

After he experienced the high, he asked Beanie to continue looking for a suitable house and buy it directly as long as it felt right.

Meanwhile, Thor got a message for him.

The price of treasures in Amber City suddenly skyrocketed recently.

Some rose several times, while some rose more than ten times.

He had not discovered the reason.

However, it would not be worth it if they bought the treasures now.

David did not care if it was worth it or not.

The price increase was a good thing for him. The more money he spent on the same product, the more lavish points he could get, and the happier he would be.

So, he told Thor immediately to buy them, no matter how high the price.

Thor did not understand David's intentions, but since his master said so, he just had to obey.

With those two helping him spend money in The Spirit Cage, David was also preparing to go back to the real world.

His next plan was to return to Earth with Celia and the others.

After leaving for such a long time, it was also time to go back and have a look.

David informed Beanie and Thor of this. He was about to go into seclusion when he got a surprise guest.

This person was Captain Arian Longer of the Amber City law enforcement team.

Not long ago in the mayor's residence, the two had a little conflict.

Ultimately, it ended with Arian apologizing.

In fact, David did not take it to heart.

Although Arian apologized, it was on Mayor Salem's order and he did not do that willingly.

Yet for David, Salem was just a minor character, let alone Arian.

After learning that the strongest in Amber City was Salem, David was completely relieved and asked Beanie and Thor to just do their job without restraints.

David would be there for all of the troubles they encounter.

At the same time, Beanie and Thor saw how humble the Amber City mayor was to their master.

So with their master as a backer, they could do whatever they want in Amber City.
