

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2585-At the west of Amber City was a city called Shea City.

Just like Amber City, it was also one of the eight main cities of The Spirit Cage. At that moment, in front of one of the gates of Shea City, there stood an old man with his face concealed beneath his hat. He remained there, gazing at the imposing Shea City gate.

This person was Sylvio, the head of the five Leila rulers. He had come to The Spirit Cage to look for Elora.

He had hidden his face because he was afraid of being recognized.

After all, his statue had stood on the Five Continents for countless years and had been seen by many living beings.

If his whereabouts were exposed and Lufian found out that he was here, he would undoubtedly conclude that Elora was also in The Spirit Cage.

It would be troublesome if Lufian came here.

So Sylvio had to be careful not to reveal his identity as he looked for Elora.

Due to David's existence, he could not use Zwei Arithmetics.

So he could only search one city at a time and sense Elora's location on his own for fear of Lufian finding out.

Sylvio knew very well that with Lufian's current strength as a Heavenly Overlord, he would not hesitate to find her at all costs if he knew that Elora was in The Spirit Cage. No one would be able to stop him then.

Sylvio had no idea that Lufian went to the Robotias' lair and had a battle with Mother. Eventually, the Robotias were wiped out, and Lufian was seriously injured.

At the moment, he was recovering from injuries.

However, he would come out to find Elora's whereabouts as soon as he was sufficiently healed.

Originally, Lufian planned to wipe out the Robotias before wiping out the Soul Devourers.

Unexpectedly, Mother was a great Almighty's pet, and it possessed the treasure left by the great Almighty.

Lufian was at a disadvantage throughout that battle.

He was only supported by his Heavenly Overlord Rank body and powerful vitality.

In the end, he did not even see what Mother's real body looked like.

Lufian was quite frustrated.

Fortunately, he survived in the end and that was enough.

The winner takes all.

This was an eternal truth.

No matter what the method, anyone who survived was the winner.

When the Soul Devourers knew that the Robotias were wiped out, they would inevitably find a place to hide and never appear again.

Without the Robotias, they would not dare seek revenge on Leila.

So, after Lufian recovered, it would be very difficult for him to find the Soul Devourers again.

Maybe they had already fled far away.

If he could not find them, he would look for Elora, his obsession and inner demon.

Sylvio carefully sensed the gate of the city for a while but did not detect Elora's energy.

So, he walked into Shea City.

The main city was very large. There were 108 gates, all tall and imposing.

Because Sylvio did not want to disclose his identity, he had to stand in line to enter the main city.

Gradually advancing with the line, he eventually entered Shea City.

Then, Sylvio started walking around Shea City, sensing whether Elora was in the city as he walked.

The Spirit Cage, the second world of level 9 civilization Leila, was a weapon left by the great Almighty.

There were hundreds of thousands of cities and villages inside, both large and small.

Sylvio did not dare to reveal his identity for fear that Lufian would know his location. It would probably take a lot of time for him to find Elora, by just searching the cities one by one.

If Elora was constantly moving, it would be even more difficult.

There was nothing Sylvio could do about it.

He could not use Zwei Arithmetics, so this was his only choice.

After visiting every corner of Shea City, Sylvio left Shea City and headed for the next destination.
