Chapter 2331

“Fourth Apostle, so you’re the one who destroyed Yonas’s internal circulation!”

Leon said coldly.

When he investigated Yonas’s death as a Dragon Guard, he diagnosed that Yonas died from damage to his internal circulation and there was a trace of actual energy residue in Yonas’s body, which was similar to the Fourth Apostle’s.

Leon instantly concluded that the Fourth Apostle was likely the one who killed Yonas.

“What?!” Both Arthur and August were stunned.

They both knew how Yonas died and instantly realized that the Fourth Apostle was involved in Yonas's death as well.

However, they were so occupied by the thought of Yonas's death that they did not wonder how Leon knew about Yonas's cause of death; had the question popped up in their mind, they would have guessed that the Dragon Guard that visited them was Leon himself.

Naturally, since the misunderstanding between the Thompsons and Leon was resolved, it would not have mattered even if they found out about it.

“Damn it! Fourth Apostle, you worked with Joel and Rodney to kill Yonas! I won't spare any one of you!”

Arthur snapped out of it and roared.

He desperately wanted to kill the Fourth Apostle but was unable to do so with the Southern Boss in his way.

“There’s no hurry, Elder Thompson! Stall the Southern Boss and I will deal with the Four Apostles! They will die here today and pay for what they did to Mister Yonas!” Leon repeated in the hope that the Thompsons would follow his place, or they might all face defeat.

“But,” Arthur’s expression darkened as he fell into silence.

He did not want to agree to Leon’s proposal but started to develop trust for Leon upon witnessing his power.

Still, the Four Apostles were all in the Intermediate Almighty State and it seemed unlikely that Leon could defeat all four by himself.

If he acted according to Leon's plan and fought the Southern Boss and the Hiltons, he would be betting everything on Leon and if Leon failed, the Thompsons would lose their chances of retreating and face great losses.

It seemed too big a gamble and Arthur was hesitant as to whether he should trust Leon.

Just then, the Fourth Apostle stood up. "Don't get ahead of yourself, kid! You just got lucky! Let's do it again!" He roared.

Just as he was about attack again, the Great Apostle stopped him.

"Something is off with that kid. You won't win against him! Step back! I'll fight him and see what he's made of!" The Great Apostle said and stepped forward.

“But,” The Fourth Apostle tried to argue, but could not deny that Leon defeated him.

Since Leon managed to defeat with a single blow, it meant that Leon was more powerful than he was and challenging Leon again would only bring more humiliation to himself. Hence, he could only suppress his anger and return to the side of the Second and Third Apostles.
