The Secret Heir Return To Wealth And Love Chapter 1156

Chapter 1156

“Despite this, Ms. Whaley has always been pretty hard on women.”

“LOL. What happened when Ms. Whaley used to market herself as this prominent female figure? She changed into the other lady, had a child with another man, and has been arguing with the wife nonstop ever since. And the outcome? The wife is doing well and is preparing to go to a meeting for women throughout the world. Comparison demonstrates everything.”

“At the moment, Secretary Tesdal and Ms. Whaley give me the feeling that Secretary Tesdal may end her relationship with Wayne at any time and begin a new one. Without Wayne, Ms. Whaley could pass away”

“What’s wrong with being a substitute? Secretary Tesdal didn’t mess with your relationship. She backed off as soon as you came back. You spent five, six years and even if Secretary Tesdal dies. Wayne would only acknowledge her, never you. As soon as Secretary Tesdal comes back, he’s chasing after her like his life depends on it. Has he ever cared about you? Also, Wayne isn’t worth it, Secretary Tesdal should find someone else.”

“Rosalyann and Olivia are the same sort of people, tormenting themselves over a lousy guy!”

“I agree. And stop saying Rosalyann is clear-headed. Would a truly clear-headed person ever go back in a relationship? If she had stuck to her guns, none of this would’ve happened!”

“Exactly, I’ve seen how Rosalyann was when she was Wayne’s secretary. I cannot accept this couple, Wayne used to treat Rosalyann terribly”

Meanwhile, a heated debate was going on online.

In another corner, Paige updated her Twitter.

There were nine images attached.

Blue skies, white clouds, a vegetable field, a little greenhouse, a towering figure and a small figure, a table laden with delectable food in the woods, a golden retriever lying on the grass and its little owner donning a cap, Baillie Scott harvesting fruit and the little figure leading him are all present. the final image.

A young child lying next to Paige and enjoying the warm sun.

The individual's face was hidden.

But her identity was betrayed by her haircut and pearl earrings.

"Everyone's arguing online, while Secretary Tesdal is: farming, sunbathing, eating cake."

Paige replied, "I love cuddling with Rosalynn, so warm and soft-

"So cute! The kid is adorable, is that you and your hubby in the picture, directing him to pick fruit?"

Paige replied, "Yes, we almost argued over which fruit to pick hahaha!"

"Wah, I want to take that kid home, looks so soft and squishy!"

"Third picture, the kid is covered in mud, are you guys really farming?"

Of course, some people asked about Olivia's pregnancy

"Olivia is pregnant with her husband's child, isn't she worried?"

"Paige, your husband is great, you should advise your friend to open her eyes and get rid of that lousy man! This really pisses me off!"

"What do you think about your friend becoming someone's substitute and bullying others?"

“You guys are good friends, one’s a substitute, the other’s dating her stepdad’s kid!”

But these comments didn’t warrant a response from Paige.

Olivia also saw Paige’s tweets.

She couldn’t accept Rosalynn’s indifference towards the whole incident.

It made it seem like she was the only unreasonable shrew

“Ms. Wiley, Wayne’s lawyer sent the address of the DNA testing center” Raines came over, I’m feeling a bit uneasy, Wayne doesn’t seem scared at all.” It’s been so long

He hasrit contacted Olivia once

In Raines’ imagination, such a big scandal would drive Wayne to contact Olivia immediately and offer compensation to settle the matter

But

No

Even Wayne’s lawyer has been publicly updating the progress of the incident on Twitter

Chapter 1157

Raines started to get suspicious about everything.

Wayne swore up and down that he had never had a thing with Olivia and Raines started to wonder if that was true.

After all, he had heard some rumors about Wayne at the office.

He’d heard that Wayne had been living in L City when he was jobless.

And in H City, he was staying in an apartment that Rosalynn used to live in.

He had never seen Wayne being affectionate with Olivia.

Sure, he hadn’t seen Rosalynn and Wayne being affectionate in public when she was his secretary either.

But

During that time, all the employees at the company, especially the upper management, knew about Wayne and Rosalynn.

Raines hesitated for a moment, then asked, “Ms. Whaley, is this child really Wayne’s?”

“Do I really need to answer that? Of course, it’s his Olivia answered without any doubt.

Hearing this, Raines felt relieved.

“That’s good. We’ve arranged so much, we have to win this time!”

He wasn’t someone Olivia wanted to talk to.

She wouldn’t have selected this fool, Raines, if it weren’t for the fact that someone leaked information about her online, she had a horrible reputation, and she didn’t have any trustworthy people around her.

It’s 3:00 in the afternoon.

Olivia applied cosmetics and looked more exposed as a result.

She visited the place that Wayne’s attorney had advised her to visit

Raines yelled abruptly as they were about to arrive.

“What are you doing?” Olivia asked impatiently.

“They’ve started the live stream!” Raines frowned, They’re showing the process of drawing blood under the witness of the police and a notary! What is Wayne thinking? This kind of thing is a scandal for any rich family, he should be trying to keep it low-key, but instead, he’s hyping it up, attracting more and more attention”

How was he supposed to negotiate with Wayne for money with Olivia under this live stream?

Olivia answered coldly.

That’s just how Wayne operates. He’s convinced the child I’m carrying isn’t his, so he doesn’t care. He’s hoping to make this as big as possible, so when he clears his name, it will have the greatest effect. But Wayne has miscalculated this time. The bigger he makes this, the worse it’s going to be in the end.”

Olivia did the same, pulling out her phone and joining the live stream.

Wayne’s automobile started to appear in the live stream as soon as she walked in.

He exited the vehicle a short while later.

Olivia and Wayne finally caught up after a while.

She felt agitated.

But in the following instant, Wayne reached into the vehicle and assisted another victim,

The reporters in the area went bananas

It's Secretary Tesdall"

"Oh my god! She came with Wayne!"

"Quick, get a shot!"

If it wasn't for the bodyguards, the media would have probably had their cameras pointed directly at Rosalynn

Wayne didn't originally want to bring Rosalynn, but she insisted.

"accompany you for the paternity test and this can also dispel the rumors about our marriage"

Bane Corporation's stock price had fallen recently as a result of the incident

Prior to closing, Rosalynn and Wayne most likely appeared together

Bane Corporation's stock price increased by 9 percentage points in the previous ten minutes, from a 5 percentage point decline to 3 percentage points higher at close

Olivia viewed everything

She was furious

She railed in silence

Just let them enjoy their triumphant moment!

Chapter 1158

Olivia thought, "I swear, Rosalynn, you're gonna wish you had a place to hide and cry when the result is exposed!"

Three o'clock. Olivia arrived on the dot.

Raines didn't get out of the car. Olivia, alone, with her hand on her belly, stepped out.

The bodyguards who were blocking the reporters seemed to have turned a blind eye to Olivia, especially Ableson, who even rolled his eyes at her. The reporters swarmed up to her and Olivia was startled

She was afraid that these were people arranged by Rosalynn, intending to harm her and her child. She immediately protectively shielded her belly "Ms. Whaley, are you confident about today's paternity test?" a reporter asked.

Still walking, Olivia answered, "I know who I've been involved with,"

"So, what's your plan? Are you planning to force Mrs. Silverman and Wayne to divorce so that you can marry him?"

"No! All I want is for my baby to have the love of a father!"

The questions kept coming like a tidal wave, all of them sharp and pointed.

After two, Olivia stopped responding

She kept picturing Wayne and Rosalynn coming in hand in hand, and that was all she could think about.

How heartless of him to know she was pregnant and do nothing to protect her from his guards!

He has not always been like way....

It must be because Rosalynn asked him to do it before!

It must be Rosalynn!

She claimed she did not mind, but she was always sabotaging her own efforts.

Finally making her way through the press swarm, she entered the examination room.

Olivia saw Wayne and Rosalynn immediately.

She started walking toward them.

Someone, however, stood in her path.

With a pout, she raised her head.

Hector Lawrence, Wayne's attorney, was the caller.

"Ms. Whaley, long time no see," Hector greeted her with his usual smile. "The sampling process is a bit different for a prenatal paternity test, please follow me

Hector pointed in a direction.

“Why? Can’t I speak to Wayne?”

“The client I represent doesn’t wish to speak with you. Let’s not waste any more time and get the samples taken so the results can be processed faster,” Hector said, still smiling.

But Olivia could hear the disgust in his tone.

“Hector, Wayne locked your sister up in a mental hospital and hasn’t let her out yet, right? And you’re still working for him?” Olivia taunted.

“My sister has mental issues, she can’t speak properly and she attacks people. Isn’t it right to have her treated? Ms. Walley, everyone has to pay for their actions, no exceptions, please, Hector’s smile faded.

Olivia looked in Wayne’s direction again.

Finally, with gritted teeth, she went in the direction Hector had indicated.

Rosalynris gaze swept over Olivia’s retreating figure

“Let’s go “Wayne had already finished giving blood. Seeing Rosalynn looking at Olivia, he took her hand.

He was eager to get Rosalynn out of there

“Alright.”

Rosalyne nodded

As they departed, they were bombarded with questions from the press

Wayne said cly before getting in the car. “The test results are in” There are explanations for everything you want to know.

Reporters stood by helplessly as Wayne and Rosalynn walked away

“They’re so confident, it’s really baffling

“Yrati

Olivia finished the sample test

The once bustling reception area was now almost empty

1/2

She looked around, but didn't see Wayne anywhere. After asking, she found out that Wayne had already left.

A wave of shame and resentment suddenly surged in her heart!

Chapter 1159

Thanks to all the hype, the paternity test process was rushed.

Two days later, the results were announced in three separate releases.

This time, Olivia made a big show of it, organising a press conference.

Almost every reporter that could be invited, was there.

Twitter was abuzz since the early morning, with countless netizens eagerly anticipating the unfolding of this annual drama.

At exactly ten o'clock, staff members arrived at the press conference, each holding one of the three paternity test results.

Olivia, brimming with anticipation, awaited the arrival of Wayne.

However, after what felt like an eternity, only Hector Lawrence showed up.

"Where's Wayne?" Raines was frowning and asked without caring he was still live streaming, "How can he not be here for such an important matter?" The crowd was in an uproar

Olivia's face turned ashen, she looked like she was about to collapse.

"Let's announce the results!"

She thought, Wayne! I gave you a chance!

But you chose to ignore me, blocked my calls, refusing to communicate with me face to face!

Well, it's your turn to pay the price!

Olivia had believed that if Wayne still had feelings for her, and was willing to end his relationship with Rosalynn, marry her, and take responsibility for their unborn child, she wouldn't have caused such a commotion.

Her ultimate desire had always been to marry Wayne.

However... It became evident that he was utterly infatuated with Rosalynn, leaving Olivia disheartened.

Then she can't be blamed!

The first to be announced was Wayne's test result.

"No genetic relationship:

"What?" Olivia looked at the staff member, "Are you sure you didn't make a mistake?"

"Ms. Whaley, this is our centre's test result, there's definitely no mistake!"

"You've been paid off by Wayne, haven't you? Raines sneered, then signaled the centre they had chosen to announce the second result, "Continue!" Then....

"No genetic relationship."

Both Olivia and Raines were stunned.

"You've been bought by Wayne too, haven't you? How can there be no genetic relationship!!"

Olivia came forward and snatched the test result.

She didn't understand the charts, but under the results, it clearly stated no genetic relationship!

"There's one more! Announce it! Hurry!" Raines was also panicking:

"No, they've all been bought by Wayne, these results are all fake! I want to redo the test, I want to redo it!!" Olivia seemed to anticipate that the third result would be the same, and immediately stopped Raines.

"Yes! They've all been bought! We need to redo the test!" Raines was freaking out.

"Ms. Whaley, Mr. Raines, please don't make false accusations. We haven't taken anyone's money. The test results are legitimate and we are open to scrutiny at any time" The third testing centre was very unhappy.

Since it's already been tested, it's better to announce it. Hector adjusted his glasses.

The person from the third testing centre immediately flipped open the test result.

Chapter 1160

Then came the official announcement: "Our test results indicate there's zero biological relation between them."

Olivia was shell-shocked.

“No way!” She almost screamed her voice hoarse.

The embryo growing inside her belly was said to be created from Wayne’s sperm. How is it possible that it has no biological connection to him? “Wayne must have done something,” she declared.

Hector, displaying his usual grace, gave a small nod to the live camera and said, “Our firm will publicly present the entire legal process when the appropriate time arrives. With that, Hector was prepared to depart.

Raines quickly turned off the live camera, feeling pressed for time to handle Olivia. Noticing the crowd of media, he swiftly made his exit. Olivia crumpled to the ground.

She kept muttering in a low voice, impossible... absolutely impossible.

Meanwhile, netizens were shocked by the result.

“This is a letdown. I was hoping for some illegitimate child scandal, curious about how Rosalynn would deal with Wayne after being betrayed! Is this all there is?”

“Has Olivia lost it? Spreading rumors with this kind of thing?”

“I’m laughing. No wonder Rosalynn is so calm. She probably knew the child wasn’t Wayne’s, right?”

“So, the question is, is it true that Wayne has only one woman, Secretary Tesdal? We’re really curious about this!!!”

“My husband is friends with Wayne. According to him, Wayne was incredibly innocent during his courtship with Olivia. He was so shy that he wouldn’t even hold her hands. However, things changed when Olivia betrayed Wayne and married someone else while he was injured. Wayne’s demeanor turned cold. Eventually, he found solace in Secretary Tesdal, who became the only person close to him. After the plane crash incident, Wayne developed an obsession with making money. Consequently, he had less contact with others, However, my husband and his friends believe that when Wayne claims to have only Secretary Tesdal by his side, he is telling the truth and wouldn’t deceive anyone”

This reply was initially met with mockery.

Someone checked her Twitter profile and quickly came back saying, “Don’t rush to mock. I just checked her profile. She might really be a friend of Wayne’s!”

She probably got annoyed by the mockery and quickly posted a few pictures

“Hey, what’s there to lie about? They have always been friends!

Three pictures.

One group photo, with Wayne and five others, and the husband of the poster was among them.

Everyone in the picture looked quite young, especially Wayne

To quote the netizens, though he looked aloof, he also seemed unexpectedly cute!

The second photo was another group shot.

Everyone seemed to have aged a bit.

There was another person present in the photo, Olivia, who stood beside Wayne,

Out of the three photos, the third one was the most shocking.

It seemed to have been taken discreetly from an angle, capturing Rosalynn leaning against the window, entranced by the night view

Her long hair danced in the gentle breeze, indicating her complete immersion in the moment. A content smile adorned her face. Wayne's face was positioned very close to the camera

He held a cigarette delicately between his fingers, his cheeks slightly flushed, possibly from alcohol consumption.

His hair appeared slightly disheveled. His gaze, fixed on Rosalynn, was filled with unwavering attention and a strong possessiveness

Netizens pretty much ignored the first two photos.
