Married at First Sight Chapter 2269-When Liberty returned to All You Can Eat restaurant, the manager she had invited had already opened the door, and the employees were all in their positions, preparing for the peak meal time at noon.

“Boss Hunt.”

“Boss Hunt.”

Seeing Liberty coming back, everyone smiled and said hello.

The restaurant opened yesterday, and the business was going well. Just the honored guests who came to congratulate the opening of the restaurant made everyone excited and full of energy.

They felt that if they could follow a boss like Liberty, they would definitely get better and better in the future, and their income would get higher and higher.

They worked hard and might get a promotion.

As the first group of employees, they had a good chance of being promoted to manager at one of Ms. Hunt’s new chain restaurants so long as she continued to open new restaurants.

So, everyone was very motivated.

Liberty smiled and nodded.

She went into the kitchen to look at the purchased ingredients, and after making sure that the ingredients were of good quality, she returned to her office.

In terms of ingredients, Liberty would rather earn less and use good ingredients.

She didn’t discriminate whether it’s an All You Can Eat breakfast or an All You Can Eat restaurant.

Not only was she doing business with conscience, but she was also worried that if she did not do well, it would hurt her sister’s reputation.

For the sake of her sister and the reputation of her in-laws, Liberty was very strict in management. She would personally check the ingredients purchased every day.

Not long after Liberty sat down, there was a knock on the door.

She looked up and saw the manager standing at the door of her office.

When she looked up, the manager said, "Boss Hunt, that Ms. Brown is here again."

Chelsea Brown?

Liberty said lightly: "Let her in."

Now Liberty was not afraid of Chelsea anymore, she was not afraid of seeing Chelsea coming.

The manager responded, turned and walked away.

Soon, the manager brought in Mrs. Brown and Chelsea.

After asking the two to sit down, Liberty said to the manager, "Manager Cantin, please prepare a pot of tea for them."

"Liberty, don't bother me, Mom and I don't drink tea." Chelsea refused with a smile.

Knowing that Mrs. Brown and Chelsea did not drink tea, Liberty signaled the manager to go take care of his business.

She got up by herself and poured a glass of warm water for each of them.

"Auntie, sister Brown, what do you need from me?" Liberty asked politely.

After looking around at Liberty's office, Mrs. Brown said, "Liberty, we have nothing to do, but your new restaurant opened yesterday, and your Uncle and I didn't have time to come over. We have some time today, so come and have a look. Your restaurant is well decorated, and the business will definitely be very good."

Liberty smiled, "It's just a simple decoration. I will accept your words, and the business of my restaurant will be very good."

Mrs. Brown said: "Well, Liberty, can we order our lunch and dinner from you in the future? When it's time, you can send it to us. We are tired of the food in the hospital, and we also eat at the fast food restaurants near the hospital over and over.

You always cook delicious food. Hank is in the recovery period. He needs to eat and drink well. I think the food bought from you will make him eat better. Only when he eats well can he recover quickly."

Liberty did not refuse, she took out two business cards from a small box on the desktop, and gave the two business cards to Mrs. Brown and Chelsea respectively.

"Auntie, there is an order number on this business card, and my restaurant's signature menu on the back. Whatever you want to eat, just call and order in advance. As long as you make an order, someone will deliver it to you after the meal is ready."

It was impossible for her to send it in person.

There was a high probability that the mother and daughter would not give up.
