

An Understated Dominance by Marina Chapter 1921

An Understated Dominance by Marina Chapter 1921

Chapter 1921

Margaret smiled and raised his glass: "Come on, come on, you're welcome, feel free to eat and drink, and be sure to have fun."

Facing all kinds of delicacies, the disciples of the Golden Blade Sect were not restrained and started eating and drinking.

After three rounds of wine and five flavors of food, the two parties became familiar with each other.

"Miss Li, Brother Lu, from the looks of it, you are probably not locals. Are you here to hunt for treasures too?" Shi Hao asked tentatively.

"Yes, I heard that there are treasures hidden in the Desert of Death, so I brought a few people here to try their luck and gain some experience." Margaret did not deny it.

If you can appear here, it is basically for the various treasures in the Death Desert, everyone understands it tacitly.

After all, no one would be stupid enough to travel here in such a dangerous and harsh environment.

"Miss Li, don't blame me for talking too much. The Desert of Death is full of dangers. If you are not careful, you may die. I see that you two are tender-skinned and have obviously never experienced any danger. You should not go to such a dangerous place. Okay." Shi Hao advised.

"Thanks for the reminder, Brother Shi, but we have a reason to go." Margaret declined with a smile.

"If you have decided to go, you can come with us so that we can take care of you." Shi Hao said.

"Brother Shi, is this trip also to go into the Desert of Death to hunt for treasure?" Dustin asked back.

"Not entirely."

Shi Hao said very calmly: "Our Jindaomen's mission this time is to explore the oasis that suddenly appeared in the desert of death." "

Elder brother! Be careful!"

After hearing this, a A disciple of the Golden Sword Sect immediately spoke out to remind him.

After all, this is their sect's mission and they cannot tell others easily.

"Brother Lu, if you have something to hide, there's no need to force it." Dustin didn't ask further. "It doesn't matter, we are all friends, there is no need to hide it."

Shi Hao waved his hand, not caring, and continued: "I don't know if you have heard of it. In the desert of death, a magical oasis recently appeared. This oasis seems to It is like a spiritual being and is expanding rapidly, so there are rumors that there is some shocking treasure hidden in it. If something goes wrong, there must be a demon. This time the master sent us out to investigate this matter." "We also listen to the matter about the oasis

. I told you, and I plan to have a try inside," Margaret replied.

"It seems that our starting point is the same, but I heard that everyone who entered the oasis never came out again, so no one knows what is going on inside." Shi Hao's face became serious and he lowered his voice and said:

" Of course, the dangers in the oasis are secondary. What we need to be most careful about is the forces of all parties. There are many people coming to hunt for treasure this time, and they are a mixed bag, including decent and heretical cults. They are the most dangerous existences." People in the world are the most dangerous

. In order to compete for treasures, even friends will fight, let alone strangers.

Without absolutely strong strength and a strong backing, seizing the treasure will only end in vain.

“Brother Shi is absolutely right. It is estimated that many masters will be present during this treasure hunting trip. Once a conflict occurs, it will indeed be troublesome.”

Margaret nodded.

“You don’t have to worry too much. As long as you follow our Golden Blade Sect, I believe there will be no danger.” Shi Hao said confidently.

The Golden Blade Sect is one of the best in the southwest, both in terms of power and influence.

As long as they don’t encounter those extremely vicious people, most masters of the sect will save a bit of face and not dare to offend easily.

While everyone was drinking and chatting.

Leo Alexander and several members of the Black Scorpion Team suddenly walked out in a hurry. As soon as they met, he reported: “Miss Li! There is good news! According to the tip, someone just came out of the oasis!”