

An Understated Dominance by Marina Chapter 1922

An Understated Dominance by Marina Chapter 1922

Chapter 1922

"What? Someone came out?"

Upon hearing this, Margaret immediately became energetic and asked: "Who is this person? Where is he now?"

That strange oasis is full of unknowns. If anyone is safe, Escape, and you must have first-hand information.

Whoever can obtain this information will not only reduce losses, but also greatly increase the success rate of treasure hunting.

"This person's name is Feng Yao. He is a disciple of the Five Elements Sect and is good at escape. He entered the oasis three days ago and there has been no news. However, just now, Feng Yao returned to the desert village with a seriously injured body. Now he has He was taken home by the village chief to recover from his injuries," Leo Alexander replied.

"Fengyao from the Five Elements Sect?"

Shi Hao raised his eyebrows: "I have heard of this person. He is quite famous in the world. His strength has reached the late stage of Xiantian, and he can be called a genius." The Five Elements Sect does not belong to the southwest force. But its underlying strength is not weaker than that of the Golden Knife Sect.

"Miss Li, who are these people?" Leo Alexander glanced at Shi Hao and his party, feeling a little strange.

"They are all masters of the Golden Blade Sect, friends I just met." Margaret replied.

"Golden Blade Sect?" Leo Alexander narrowed his eyes slightly, quite surprised.

He naturally knew that the Golden Blade Sect, the three sects in the southwest, was something they could not easily offend.

Unexpectedly, in such a short period of time, Margaret could actually get along with the disciples of the Golden Blade Sect.

This trip would indeed be much safer if there was a Golden Knife Gate for protection.

"Okay, let's not talk about this for now. Take me to the village chief's house. I have something to ask Feng Yao."

Margaret didn't waste any time. She immediately asked Leo Alexander to lead the way and went straight to the village chief's house.

Now Feng Yao is a key figure, and she is also the hot potato that all the major forces are competing for. She must take action early, otherwise it will be bad if someone takes advantage of her.

five minutes later. Several people rushed to the village chief's house in a hurry.

The village chief lives in a small two-story Western-style building with a yard of a hundred meters in radius. There are also some flowers and plants planted in the yard.

As soon as they arrived at the entrance of the hospital, several people were stopped by a middle-aged man.

"What are you doing? No outsiders are allowed in here!"

The middle-aged man held an iron rod and blocked the door, looking fierce.

"Hero, we have something urgent to see the village chief, please let us know." Margaret bowed his hands.

"The village chief said that I won't see anyone today. Please go back." The middle-aged man said with a cold face.

"We are all friends of Feng Yao. We heard that he was seriously injured and lying in the village chief's house, so we came here to visit." Leo Alexander lied.

“No one’s friends, let’s go, let’s go!” The middle-aged man looked impatient.

“Hey! I’m warning you, don’t be shameless!” Leo Alexander’s face darkened.

A little villager dared to block his way. He really deserved a beating.

“Hey! What’s going on? Looking at your posture, are you going to take action?”

The middle-aged man stamped the iron rod in front of him and shouted: “Come on, come on! If you have the guts, try it. I’ll see if you can get out safely. Village!”

If a desert village can stand here for many years, how can it not have any influence?

In the past, no one made trouble, but in the end they were beaten out.

“Captain Leo, please be patient.”

Margaret quickly stopped Leo Alexander, then took off his jade bracelet, stepped forward, handed it to the middle-aged man, and said: “This here, this is just a petty thing, it is not respectful, we I really have something to ask of you, so please make it easier for me.”

The middle-aged man took the bracelet, looked at it carefully, his eyes lit up, and he said tentatively: “Hey! This jade bracelet looks old, it should be quite valuable. Bar?”