

Chapter 244 Who Will Compensate

The girl's high pitched scream attracted everyone's attention.

Only then did Trevor realize that he had bumped into someone.

When he looked ahead, he saw a well-dressed girl who was covering her chest with her hands in anger.

Her clothes were now stained with milk.

Seeing the girl, Trevor said apologetically, "I'm so sorry. How much is your clothes? I'll compensate you." ①

However, the girl on the other side got even angrier when she heard his words. Then, she said fiercely, "My clothes are Chanel's haute couture. Do you think you can afford it? Actually, a man like you is disgusting. You are so lewd to fake an accident to harass me!"

Hearing it, the other girls around her agreed.

"She's right. I think he's a jerk who has never had a girlfriend before. Shame on you!"

"How dare you harass Penny? Do you want to die? Don't you know who Penny's father is? He is the vice president, Boris Cohen. He can make you drop out of school easily!" ①

The girl named Penny Cohen stood still while gritting her teeth. She looked annoyed with Trevor.

After all, she had suffered an undeserved catastrophe and she was touched on the chest by a wretched man who was obviously a loser.

Therefore, she couldn't stand it.

The aggrieved look on Penny's face made the onlookers resentful and all of them condemned Trevor.

A few people who were talking about Keanu recognized Trevor.

One of the them said with a gloating look on his face, "The loser offended Keanu yesterday and he was lucky not to be punished. But I didn't expect that he would harass a girl like this in public. He should be ashamed."

"I think he is unlucky today. He took advantage of Boris's daughter. I bet he is going to be expelled today!"

When the crowd was discussing, someone had already brought Boris here.

Boris walked towards the crowd angrily which made everyone around stop talking.

The whole morning, he had been busy with his work in his office.

Then, he suddenly heard from a student that someone harassed her daughter by touching her chest in the canteen.

It was intolerable!

Once he walked into the middle of the crowd, the first person he saw was none other than Trevor.

Immediately, the anger on Boris's face disappeared.

Instead, his expression softened and changed into a kind look as he greeted Trevor.

Looking at Trevor, he asked politely, "Umm...Good morning, Trevor. I was reported that someone in the canteen harassed a female student. Do you have any idea who that is?"

However, to his surprise, Trevor pointed at himself and smiled awkwardly while saying, "They are talking about me."

Furrowing his eyebrows, Boris asked in confusion, "What do you mean?"

When he turned to look at his daughter, Boris found that there were indeed some white stains on Penny's clothes. 'Damn it! Did Penny really have a conflict with Mr. Sanderson?'

At the thought of it, Boris's scalp tingled and his face darkened.

Seeing the dark look on Boris's face, the onlookers all thought that Trevor was going to be in big trouble. Therefore, most of them were excited to watch the scene. However, what happened next shocked everyone!

Pulling a long face, Boris scolded his daughter, "Penny, are you using my name to bully others again? Apologize to Trevor now."

After all, Boris knew his daughter very well.

Usually, Penny was very unruly and she was unkind to the boys.

Which was why Boris judged that there must be an accident between Trevor and his daughter, and as a result, she accused Trevor of sexual harassment for touching her chest.

Because of her father's sudden criticism, Penny didn't know what to do. In a loud voice, she said, "No, father. It's that loser..."

Hearing that his daughter had called Trevor a loser, Boris shivered with fear and scolded immediately, "How dare you talk back to me?"

As she was scolded in front of everyone, Penny shut up immediately. However, her face was filled with disobedience and her eyes became red.

Boris didn't show any mercy towards his daughter. Instead, he ordered, "Apologize now. You even stained Trevor's clothes. Hurry up and pay for it!"
