

Read Married at First Sight Chapter 2664

Married at First Sight Chapter 2664-Serenity couldn't help Zachary with his business matters now.

After wandering around for a while, Serenity got tired, so Zachary took her and Sonny out of the Lewis family villa and returned to the big villa where he lived before marriage.

Since the wedding leave was about to end, the couple had to return to their normal lives. In order to facilitate commuting to and from work, they decided not to live in Wildridge Manor.

As soon as they entered the house, they heard Grandma May's angry voice.

The couple looked at each other. They didn't expect to see Grandma May when they got home.

"Grandma."

Sonny was very happy when he saw Grandma May. He left Serenity and Zachary and ran to Grandma May.

Grandma May smiled and opened her arms, waiting for Sonny to run over and plunge into her arms.

"Brother, sister-in-law."

In addition to Grandma May, there was also Evan in the room.

Serenity heard Grandma May's angry voice, which was Grandma May scolding Evan.

They didn't know why Evan angered Grandma May.

After calling grandma, Zachary pulled Serenity to sit down and asked Evan, "Are you making grandma angry? We heard Grandma's angry and cursing voice while we were at the door of the house."

Evan looked helpless and aggrieved.

Seeing this, Zachary guessed what was going on. He reached over and patted his brother on the shoulder without saying anything else.

With Sonny present, Grandma May said nothing more about Evan.

Seizing the opportunity, Evan ran away quickly.

Grandma May didn't leave him alone; she just hummed twice.

Evan understood what Grandma's two groans meant. He could escape, but the monk could not escape the temple. Unless he completely broke away from the York family, that would be impossible! He doesn't want to be an unfilial son or grandson. Sometimes he would go out of his way to make Grandma scold him.

As someone who is nearly 30 years old and still has his grandma scolding him, that is also a kind of happiness.

....

Farrell family.

Shiloh carried the tray upstairs and knocked on her father's door.

Holden was so embarrassed that he didn't eat or drink all day after Matriarch Farrell went out.

Of course, Matriarch Farrell knew that her husband had lost face and had resentment in her heart. After she returned to the company, she didn't care if her husband refused to eat or drink. She pretended not to know and let him go without eating or drinking to see if he could insist on starving to death.

In fact, Holden did not want to go on a hunger strike to protest, but he was beaten so severely that the pain made him unable to eat. He laid in bed all day without eating or drinking.

Erika just came out of the room and saw Shiloh knocking on Holden's door. After a while, Holden opened the door for Shiloh, and Shiloh went in with a tray.

The door closed immediately.

Erika curled her lips and saw the Second Young Mistress, Anya, also coming out of the room. She said to Anya, "Shiloh went to bring food to Dad. She's really filial."

After Shiloh was also punished, Erika felt that the bad breath she had been holding in her heart had subsided a little.

If Shiloh could be even more unlucky, it would be better if she completely angered Matriarch Farrell and was kicked out of the Farrell family, and she would no longer be a young lady of the Farrell family.

Anya said: "She is a flatterer now, and her parents are often coaxed into running around by her, which is too bad for Kathryn. Sister-in-law."

Anya came close to Erika and whispered, "Do you have a way to ask mom to drive away Shiloh? It's best to leave Shiloh with nothing. She is not from our Farrell family in the first place, and I don't know what my parents think. If we keep her, she will often target Kathryn and cause trouble for Kathryn.

Kathryn is our real sister-in-law. Shiloh is nothing but a servant's daughter, but now she is our equal and sometimes bullies us."

The main reason was that their husbands loved Shiloh and were partial to her. If they, the sisters-in-law, had conflicts with Shiloh, their husbands would always turn to Shiloh. They used to please Shiloh, but after their husbands cheated on them, they realized how hateful Shiloh was.