

Read Married at First Sight Chapter 2665

Married at First Sight Chapter 2665-After Erika thought for a while, she said to Anya, "Come into my room and talk."

With that said, Erika turned back to her room. Anya followed her in.

After closing the door, Anya whispered to Erika, "We can work together to drive Shiloh out. I want to tear her apart now when I see her. Unfortunately, even if mom is angry, she still loves her very much. Shiloh has been loved by mom and dad since she was a child.

Do you have any way to drive Shiloh out? As long as mom gives up on her and no longer likes her but hates her, she will be kicked out of the Farrell family and will no longer be the daughter of the Farrell family. It's better to be unable to survive in Jensburg and have nothing."

The two young ladies were not good people either. Shiloh helped her three brothers and offended her sisters-in-law. They now wished that Shiloh would lose everything.

Erika said, "I have an idea. I don't know what you think. I will tell you, and you will listen. If it is feasible, we will implement it."

Anya: "You tell me, and I listen."

Erika said in a low voice, "Dad, why was he beaten and punished this time?"

Anya was stunned for a moment and then replied, "It's not like dad went out to steal food and was caught by mom. As children, they gave money to dad when he went out to eat and was implicated, so he was caught and punished by mom."

Erika said: "It can be seen that mom's bottom line is the same as ours; that is, her man is not allowed to have other women. I think all women who are wives don't want to see their men go out to find other women."

Anya: "What do you mean? Sister-in-law, let Dad go out to eat secretly again and ask Shiloh to give him money?"

Erika sneered and said, "Do you think Shiloh is stupid? She is caring about her father now and playing the role of a filial daughter. She knows very well that in this family, only mom is worth pleasing, and it is only from her that she can get practical results. the benefits of.”

“How could she give the old man money to go out to eat secretly again?” Anya asked, “What should we do?”

Erika whispered into Anya’s ear, “Let’s go get some of that medicine and come back. While Shiloh is bringing food and drinks to Dad, find an opportunity to add some medicine to the wine and let them both drink it. Haha, that would be wonderful, whether it succeeds or not; Shiloh can’t even explain it with all her words.

I noticed that Shiloh would bring wine for Dad to drink with every meal. It’s normal for something to happen if he gets drunk. Mom wouldn’t suspect that there was something wrong with the drink. Besides, Dad was resenting Mom in his heart. He didn’t show it, and we could guess it.

Shiloh is also in a bad mood. The two of them might be secretly talking bad about mom.”

Anya said, “Sister-in-law, this is such a vicious plan; you actually let the father and daughter...”

Erika said, “They are not father and daughter. Shiloh is not a child of our Farrell family. She is just the daughter of a servant. She is a b*tch!”

Erika had a grudge against Holden, the father-in-law.

Anya whispered, “Will our plan succeed? Mom is so powerful. What if she is discovered and traced to us?”

Erika said, “Mom has been mad since she saw that scene. How could she have thought that they were being plotted? Otherwise, why would I have said that they both had to drink alcohol? Having s*x after drinking, let them have nothing to say.”

Anya gave a thumbs up to Erika: “Sister-in-law, your vicious plan is so powerful that I couldn’t even imagine it.

Thinking about how the father and daughter treated us during those days when mom was not at home and how arrogant Shiloh was, I hate them so much that I finally have a chance to take revenge. I can't miss it, and I won't let Shiloh go. Drive away; I can't even swallow this bad breath."

Holden would likely be kept if the matter was over, but Shiloh would definitely be sent away.

Even Holden would probably be kicked out of the Farrell family mansion by Matriarch Farrell and driven back to the Janzen family.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2666-Erika was also very disgusted with Janzen's family. When a bunch of country bumpkins came over, they were asked to wait on them, treating them as maids.

Those people were greedy for petty gains. Every time they came, they were like bandits raiding the place and wanted to take everything away.

Fortunately, Matriarch Farrell didn't like the Janzen family very much, so the bandits didn't dare to come without her permission.

Otherwise, Erika would go crazy if she often dealt with these people.

Anya: "Sister-in-law, do you have a way to get that medicine?"

When she mentioned the favoritism between Holden and Shiloh after her husband cheated on her, Anya became angry and decided to plot against Shiloh with Erika, and they worked together to drive Shiloh out of the Farrell family.

Anyway, they couldn't expect their husbands to become the head of the Farrell family. Since it's not their turn, they would stand by Kathryn's side and help Kathryn drive away Shiloh.

When Kathryn wanted to settle accounts in the future, considering that they had helped, she wouldn't be too ruthless.

Erika said, "This is easy to handle. Just ask people to go to those romantic places to get some and bring them back. Call Amora, the third young mistress, and tell her about our idea. The three of us will be twisted into a rope. Can't we deal with that impostor?"

Anya: "Do you want to tell Kathryn? After the incident, there is someone who can protect us."

Erika said, "You don't need to tell her. Although she is cruel, she still has very upright views and will not use such despicable means."

Erika had some understanding of Kathryn's character.

She knew that Kathryn would not use such despicable methods to deal with Shiloh.

Anya said, "Then I will go find Amora now. The three of us are tied together, and we are not afraid."

Erika nodded.

After discussing the plan, Erika and Anya came out of the room and met Amora coming upstairs. When she saw the two sisters-in-law, she asked casually, "Elder sister-in-law, second sister-in-law, where are you going?"

Erika: "I haven't gone anywhere. I just had enough to eat and want to go for a walk. Let's go together."

Amora thought for a while, then followed the two sisters-in-law and went downstairs again.

At the same time, the Farrell Group

Kathryn knocked on the door of the CEO's office. After getting her mother's permission, she pushed the door open and went in.

Matriarch Farrell didn't have an office; she was sitting at her desk, puffing away.

Glancing at the ashtray on the table, it was full of cigarette butts. Kathryn persuaded her mother: "Mom, don't smoke so many cigarettes."

Matriarch Farrell said, "I'm used to smoking. I smoke whenever I want. I'm so old. If I'm really sick, I won't be afraid of death."

Kathryn said, "Mom, It's auspicious that you will be healthy and live a long life. Mom, everyone is off work. Let me go to dinner with you. You have a bad appetite today. I see that you didn't eat much at noon."

She knew that Matriarch Farrell was sad because of Holden's affair.

Reporters in the entertainment industry posted the Fortress Hotel incident where Matriarch Farrell caught an adulterer and beat up Holden and that girl online. It even made the trending search for a while, but she quickly suppressed it.

Suppressing hot searches does not mean that everyone is suppressed.

Matriarch Farrell was the topic of conversation among people in Jensburg after dinner.