

Chapter 752 They Finally Got Married

The next day, Liam seemed to be in high spirits today as he was seen donning his suit. Planting a gentle kiss on Julie's forehead, he said, "I have to head out now to prepare for the wedding."

Suddenly, Julie felt ashamed as she whispered, "B-But... my face... It's so ugly! I'm afraid that I might embarrass you or your grandfather in front of the guests."

"It's okay. I'll take care of it," Liam replied with a smile.

Liam had been entertaining a bold idea at the back of his mind ever since his return.

After absorbing so many powerful drugs, he was certain that there were some neutralized components in his bloodstream that could potentially remove Julie's scars!

With this idea in mind, Liam immediately got down to business. With his blood as the main ingredient, he quickly developed a pill for Julie.

Then, he took the pill and gave it to Julie so she could

After a short while, her body started to emanate heat as a gentle, warm mist slowly enveloped her.

It was this precise moment that Julie's skin started to change. The scars that were once etched on her skin started to heal till it was flawless and radiant.

Liam was overjoyed. "It really works!"

When the mist dissipated, Julie nervously snuck a glance at the mirror. The moment she saw her radiant skin, she couldn't help but shed tears of joy. "I can't believe it! My skin looks as good as new!"

They hugged each other tightly. At the moment, the last trace of sadness in Julie's heart disappeared into thin air.

Apparently, this method could be used to treat Jaxtyn as well. However, Liam planned to wait it out. After all, if Jaxtyn were to regain consciousness, he would learn of Annie's death. That was not necessarily a good thing for him!

Twenty minutes later, in Sergio's bedroom, Liam was seen making his way toward him. After giving him a slight bow, he asked respectfully, "Grandpa, previously, Julie and I held a small wedding only because of the circumstances we were in. Moreover, the wedding was ruined. As such, I wish to hold a grand wedding

Sergio nodded with a smile and said, "That's exactly what I was thinking. We must do it well this time and take this opportunity to get rid of some of the bad luck!"

With that, Sergio barked out his orders toward Theo, who was standing beside him. "Theo, you are experienced in this matter. As such, I am entrusting you with this entire affair."

Theo immediately swore, "Don't worry, sir! I will make sure everything is in order!"

With that, he left to make the wedding preparations.

As the butler of the Hoffman family, it was a piece of cake for Theo to complete his task. In a few days, a grand wedding reception was prepared, and the wedding invitations were sent to all the major families in Invone.

The situation in Invone had changed. Now, the Hoffman family was at the apex of its power. Hence, no one dared to be absent from the wedding.

On the day of the wedding, even the Sandoval family and the Padilla family had to force themselves to be in attendance with a congratulatory smile on their faces.

Javier prepared a handsome gift to congratulate Liam. Other than offering his blessings, the gift was also a way to show his gratitude toward Liam. If it weren't for him, the Ramirez family might have been completely destroyed.

Even the senator attended the wedding. However, he wasn't here as a senator; instead, he came here as a regular guest to offer his congratulations. As such, Liam had politely invited him to take a seat at the VIP table.

Under shower of flowers raining from the sky, Liam and Julie were seen gazing fondly into each other's eyes.

In front of numerous spectators and the priest, the two made solemn vows.

"Mr. Liam Hoffman, do you take Miss Julie Fiber for your wife? For richer or for poorer, will you love, honor, comfort, and cherish her from this day forward?"

Looking at Julie affectionately, Liam said firmly, "I do."

"Miss Julie Fiber, do you take Mr. Liam Hoffman for your husband? Will you love, honor, comfort, and cherish him from this day forward, forsaking all others, keeping only unto him for as long as you both shall live?"

Julie smiled and replied affectionately, "I do."
