An Understated Dominance by Marina Chapter 1973

Chapter 1973

“Ah?”

Kevin Snow couldn't help but froze for a moment as he looked at the figures running for their lives in the distance.

He really didn't expect that Lily Zhang and the others would run away so easily.

Not even a greeting from beginning to end.

Even if it's a retreat, you have to tell it in advance, right?

What does that count now? Selling teammates?

“Brother Kevin risked his life to go to the rescue, but the disciples of the Yuanyang Sect turned around and ran away. What a bunch of ungrateful people!”

Not far away, Leo Alexander, who was hiding in the dark, couldn't help but shook his head with contempt on his face.

“People's hearts are unpredictable. It seems that Brother Kevin's fiancée is not a good person.”

Poor Kevin, because of a few white-eyed wolves, he got himself involved.”

...”

Everyone was talking. tongue, there was a lot of discussion.

It is said that the Golden Blade Clan and the Yuanyang Clan are family friends, and Kevin Snow and Lily Zhang are engaged.

Normally, if there is danger, the two of them should work together to fight the enemy and create a good story.

The results of it?

Lily Zhang sold Kevin Snow backhand without hesitation at all.

This cruelty is really chilling.

“Senior Brother! Senior Sister Lily and the others seem to have escaped. What should we do now?”

As they were beating, the disciples of the Golden Blade Sect quickly discovered something unusual, and all of them looked ugly.

They went through fire and water for the disciples of the Yuanyang Sect, but they didn't expect that the disciples of the Yuanyang Sect didn't even say hello, so they fled for their lives first, leaving them here to fight alone.

No one would be able to bear this kind of betrayal and betrayal.

“At this point, I have no choice but to fight with them!”

Kevin Snow gritted his teeth and fought even more fiercely.

“Hey! Are you Golden Blade Sect disciples stupid? People have sold you out, and you are still working hard here. What's the matter?” The middle-aged man couldn't help but curse.

It's really unlucky to have such a bunch of stupid young people in the stall.

“Stop talking nonsense! If you want to fight, fight. Our men will see the truth!” Kevin Snow shouted.

“Fuck! What a bunch of lunatics!”

The middle-aged man yelled and ordered to the people around him: “You two, each lead a team of people to chase that bitch back. The baby is still in her hands. We can't let her run away!”

“Yes!”

The two people on the left and right responded, then led a dozen members of the Illusion Sea Alliance and quickly chased in the direction where the Yuanyang Sect disciples disappeared.

The remaining members of the Illusion Sea Alliance continued to surround and kill the Golden Blade Sect disciples.

Even if more than a dozen people showed up, the Illusion Sea Alliance still had an absolute advantage in terms of numbers.

Fortunately, Kevin Snow and his team were very strong, and they were particularly brave when fighting.

For a while, the members of the Illusion Sea Alliance did not dare to push too hard.

Of course, the main reason is that in their eyes, the disciples of the Golden Blade Sect are already the turtles in the urn, and there is no need to risk their lives.

Using the human sea tactic to fight at all costs is the safest choice.

“Brother Kevin, they can’t hold it anymore, everyone goes to support!”

Seeing that the disciples of the Golden Blade Sect were in danger, Margaret no longer held back and immediately gave the order to attack.

In an instant, nearly a hundred people immediately swarmed out and rushed to the battlefield ahead.

The sudden change caused the members of the Fantasy Sea Alliance to be in chaos.

“What’s going on? Where did these people come from?”

“Damn! They seem to be reinforcements from the Golden Blade Sect!”

“Fuck! Another wave of forces has come. We are really unlucky today!”

The members of the Illusion Sea Alliance cursed and were particularly unhappy.

They just wanted to snatch the treasure from the Yuanyang Sect, but they didn't expect that a group of Kevin Snow's disciples would appear first, followed by a group of guys of unknown origin.

Until now, not only have I not gained anything, but I have also lost a lot of brothers.

"Elder Huang! What should we do now? These people are well-trained and obviously not good people!" one person asked hurriedly.

"What can we do? We are outnumbered, so of course, we have to retreat!" the middle-aged man said angrily.

As long as the green hills remain, there is no need to worry about running out of firewood. There is no profit here anyway, so there is no need to work hard.

"Retreat! Retreat quickly!"

After receiving the order, the members of the Fantasy Sea Alliance fled without saying a word.

Before leaving, he didn't forget to throw down a bunch of smoke bombs as cover.

They are professionals when it comes to escaping.

"Don't chase after the poor bandit!"

Margaret stopped the escort members who were about to chase him.

Her goal is to save people; there is no need to add extraneous matters.

"Brother Kevin, are you okay?" Margaret stepped forward and asked.

"It's a small injury, it's okay." Kevin Snow glanced at the cut on his arm and didn't pay much attention to it.

Just now, he took the lead and took most of the pressure. Fortunately, he was strong enough to withstand the situation.

“Come here! Bandage Brother Kevin !” Margaret called the medical soldiers to treat the wounded.

“Ah~!”

At this time, a scream suddenly came from the distance.

“No! Lily Zhang is in danger!”

Kevin Snow’s expression changed, and he didn’t care about his own wounds. He picked up the knife and prepared to go over for support.

“Elder brother!”

A Golden Blade Sect disciple immediately stopped him and said, “Those people from the Yuanyang Sect are all ungrateful people. Do you still want to help them? Don’t forget, it was them who just left us alone. Escape for your life. Even if you encounter any danger now, you will bring it upon yourself!”

“You can’t say that. The disciples of the Yuanyang Sect were seriously injured. Maybe they chose to retreat because they were afraid of hurting us.” Kevin Snow tried to argue.

“Elder brother! Don’t be stupid! They clearly don’t care about our life or death!” shouted the disciples of the Golden Blade Sect.

As long as you have some loyalty and know how to be grateful, you will not do such a treacherous thing.

Even if you really have to run away, you have to at least say hello to them.

“We’ll talk about this later. Now Lily Zhang’s life is in danger. I can’t just die without saving her!”

Kevin Snow was a little anxious. He pushed his junior brother away, then rushed towards the source of the sound with a knife.

“Senior Brother! You are so confused!”

Several disciples of the Golden Sword Sect gritted their teeth and stamped their feet, looking like they hated iron.

But they had no choice but to drag their injured bodies and follow quickly.

Although they hated Lily Zhang's betrayal, they couldn't just watch their senior brother take risks alone.
