

Chapter 853 Celebrate In Advance

The matter didn't affect how the finals of the tennis mixed doubles started.

Trevor and Cecelia were the first to serve in the first around.

Without a doubt, they were facing star players. Their opponents had a high level of fitness and skill level.

Reynolds was especially powerful when he hit the ball.

He returned the ball with great speed and momentum, and it surged back across the net like a cannonball.

"Hey!"

With a mighty swing of his racket, Reynolds hit the ball straight towards Trevor's face and let out a menacing roar.

It was a vicious attack.

If Trevor was distracted by the roar, he might get hit in the face by the tennis ball.

Reynolds put all his strength behind the ball, and it flew swiftly towards the other side of the court. If Trevor got hit in the face by the ball, he would surely be injured.

Fortunately, Trevor was able to keep his focus despite Reynolds' taunts.

He took a step back and hit the ball successfully.

The impact of the ball was so powerful that Trevor felt like a shockwave went through his whole arm, making it numb.

He grimaced a bit as he braced himself.

He realized that Reynolds had great strength indeed. It was going to be difficult to deal with him.

Anyway, Trevor and Cecelia would not give up easily. They cooperated with each other and tried their best to hit the ball.

Reynolds' face gradually darkened as the game went on.

He had already made up his mind not to let Trevor score a single point. But as things stood, the gap between the two teams' points was very small.

There were even several times when Trevor was able to react quickly to the vicious attacks and won the audience's warm applause.

Hearing how the audience admired Trevor's skill, Reynolds felt even more pissed off. In his mind, the praises for Trevor were like boos for himself.

"Tatiana, pay attention!" Reynolds felt a little anxious when their team failed to hit the ball again.

It appeared that Trevor wasn't as weak as he first thought, and Cecelia was even more skilled than Tatiana.

However, Reynolds didn't dare to say anything harsh to Tatiana since he wanted to pursue her.

Tatiana was anxious as well, and she just nodded at him without saying anything.

Under the pressure of the tense and nervous atmosphere, Reynolds and Tatiana were finally defeated in the first round.

This caused a heated discussion among the audience.

"I don't think Reynolds and Tatiana are set to win the championship. The players of Bella University seem to be giving them a lot of problems, and they look like they're going to win!"

"Cecelia is so cool. Not only is she beautiful, but she's also good at playing tennis!"

Hearing the discussion among the crowd, Tatiana felt gloomy even more.

With her head bowed, she went to the rest area and drank a mouthful of water.

Reynolds hurried behind her and said, "Tatiana, it doesn't matter. It's only the first round. They won't be able to enjoy their win for long. I'll wipe those smiles off their faces!"

He also took out a bottle of water and gulped it down. Looking at Trevor who was sitting in the rest area on the other side, he couldn't help smiling wickedly.

"Don't worry. My friends put some purgatives in their water. They won't be able to play against us for long. Brilliant, huh?"

"Really?"

The gloom on Tatiana's face immediately faded away. It looked like she didn't have any problems with those dirty tricks at all.

They looked at each other with wicked smiles. They were both overjoyed when they saw Trevor and Cecelia drinking the water.

"Ha-ha! We'll surely win!" Reynolds said, laughing.

His friends also cheered among the audience. They raised their water bottles and cheered for Reynolds and his inevitable victory.

"The championship is already in the bag! Cheers!" With a big smile, Reynolds seemed to be very satisfied. He chuckled lightly before gulping down another mouthful of water.

Seeing Reynolds' strange behavior, Trevor could not help raising his eyebrows.

He wondered why Reynolds was celebrating after losing the first round.

Rubbing his chin, he thought for a while and sensed that Reynolds must have some dirty trick up his sleeve.

At this very moment, Trevor suddenly received a message.

He opened his phone and was slightly surprised to see that the message was from Harmoni.

"Trevor, does the water taste sweet? If you succeed in winning the championship, don't forget that I helped you secure that victory."

There was even an emoji of a smiling face at the end of the sentence.

Gradually, Trevor's frown turned upside down.

Water? He had a rough guess of what was going on.

Reynolds might have drugged their water.

Fortunately for them, Harmoni was able to figure out his scheme and might have even done something to teach him a lesson.

Now, Trevor couldn't help being curious about what dirty trick Reynolds had planned for him.

"What are you laughing at?" Cecelia asked curiously.

Trevor smiled and said mysteriously, "I just thought of something interesting. Maybe you'll find out later!"
