

Chapter 959 Fuck The Car

When Zakai returned from the restroom, his face was red, and he looked very excited.

"I'm back."

He sat back on his chair and glanced at Sally's plump figure unscrupulously.

He looked at her perfect figure, fantasizing about possessing her beauty. His mouth and throat suddenly felt dry.

He picked up the glass of wine and took a sip to moisten his throat.

Trevor watched him quietly, the corners of his mouth secretly curved into a smile.

He wondered what kind of absurd things Zakai would do after drinking the drugged wine.

Zakai had no idea that his wine was drugged. He continued to say some words he thought were humorous, trying to amuse Sally and buy time. He was waiting for Sally to lose consciousness, so he could do whatever he wanted.

But as he kept talking, he felt that his body was becoming hotter and hotter.

However, he mistakenly thought it was the Viagra he had secretly ingested in the restroom just now.

Zakai became even more excited.

He thought the drug he had taken was really effective. The effect was even earlier than he expected. Today must be a good day for him. He would definitely have fun.

Zakai looked at Sally even more lewdly. He did not intend to hide his desire anymore.

When Trevor and Sally noticed Zakai's lewd expression, contempt and coldness filled their eyes.

Zakai only sensed that something was wrong after a while.

But he was already controlled by the drug.

Trevor looked at Zakai with a sneer, raising his eyebrows.

Then he pulled Zakai up, carried him out of the private room all the way to the parking lot, and put him in the back seat of the luxury car.

Zakai struggled to take off his clothes and let out a disgusting groan.

Trevor witnessed how Zakai took off his trousers and rubbed himself against the leather seat of the luxury car. The drug was taking effect now.

Zakai's movements became so exaggerated that even the whole car began to shake.

He was fucking the car!

Such a strange scene made Trevor sneer with more contempt.

He took out his phone to record Zakai's ugly performance.

The luxury car totally lost its grandiose appearance. It was a mess and very unsightly.

There was even a disgusting smell.

However, Zakai seemed to be indulged in it. He even became more and more presumptuous as he fell into intoxicated illusions.

He roared and ejaculated before passing out.

Trevor sneered coldly. He put away his phone and hid himself in the dark.

After waiting for almost an hour, he heard horrific screams and curses from the car.

"What the fuck! What the hell is this? Who the fuck did this to me? Fuck!"

The screams and curses came from Zakai, who had already woken up.

Trevor came out of his hiding place and pretended to have just arrived. He put on a surprised look and asked, "Zakai, are you okay?"

Zakai picked up his dirty clothes in a panic and covered his lower body. Then he asked hastily, "Dragon, what the hell happened? Why am I here? Who took me here? Where is Sally?"

Trevor put on an innocent and confused expression. "I don't know. I was the one who took you here. Just now, I saw that you were in bad condition and almost fainted in the private room, so I immediately helped you to the car to rest. But my stomach suddenly hurt, and I couldn't hold it anymore, so I went to the restroom."

Zakai's eyes widened in disbelief. He asked, "What about Sally?"

Trevor shook his head. "When I recovered, Sally was already gone. Isn't it so weird? Do you know who Sally really is? I suspect she may have seen through the powder you gave me."

Zakai thought Trevor's words made sense. He said remorsefully, "That's right! Sally is a doctor, so she must have discovered it. And in turn, she drugged me."

Seeing how remorseful Zakai was, Trevor couldn't help turning his body and sneering.

As for Sally, Trevor could only feel sorry for her for the time being.

For him to take revenge, he had to investigate Dooley. And he needed to use Sally to take the blame.
