

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 1906

Chapter 1906

"Don't!" Seth was terrified and rolled off the ground in an attempt to dodge the daggers.

However, Leon's power level rose to the Initial Emperor State, which made him far more powerful than Seth.

Though Seth reacted in time, he only managed to dodge two of the daggers, and the third dagger stabbed into the back of his knee.

Seth fumbled in pain and collapsed onto the ground in a discomfited manner.

Leon took the opportunity to catch up to him. "Seth, you despicable scum, die!" Leon lunged at Seth with a powerful strike.

"It's over!" Seth froze in fear.

"Don't you dare!"

Just then, a stern roar echoed in the air.

Two old men along with a few martial artists hurried over from the distance.

When they saw that Leon was about to attack Seth, one of the old men released his tremendous energy toward Leon in an attempt to protect Seth.

"The Peak Emperor State!" Leon gasped when he sensed the powerful energy oozing off of the old man.

Leon was powerful enough and had no fear for his opponent, but had to leap and give up on the chance of destroying Seth out of concern that the old man would hurt Iris.

"Fourth Elder, Fifth Elder, you're finally here! I'm so glad!" Seth was overjoyed and crawled his way toward the old men frantically.

"Damn it!" Contrary to Seth's excitement, Leon's expression darkened.

Because of Seth and Noah, the other Golans were given the time to gather and a battle was about to erupt, which would only delay Leon further in his attempt to rescue Snow.

"Who are you, kid?"

"How dare you barge in here and injure our people! You must've a death wish!"

The two old men turned their attention to Leon maliciously.

They were two of the elders of the Golans and arrived with a few other skilled martial artists who were responsible for guarding the mansion.

Once Seth triggered the alarm, they were the first few who reacted right away but did not know what exactly happened.

"Fourth Elder, Fifth Elder, he's the chairman of Elegante Group, Leon Wolf," Seth explained.

"So that's him!"

The others nodded in realization.

News that Elegante Group was framed was known throughout the southern region and all families in the southern region were shocked when the eldest son of the Hiltons, Joel, came forward to apologize to Elegante Group.

The Golans were aware of the recent development and knew Leon was an enemy of the Hiltons. Since the Hiltons and the Golans were related, Leon was naturally seen as an enemy to them as well.
