

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 1907

Chapter 1907

"Kid, I don't care who you are. You have one chance! You'll cooperate while we take you into custody, or I'll show you no mercy!'" The Fifth Elder said coldly.

Though Leon was an enemy to the Golans and the Hiltons, he was a senior and did not wish to attack a junior, so he made a warning ahead of time to give himself an excuse to attack later on.

"As if I'd be scared of you! What a joke! Get off your high horse, old man! You should all just come at me at once and save me some time!" Leon pointed at the people before him with a contemptuous look on his face.

He was in a hurry to rescue Snow and did not have time to waste, so it would be easier if all the Golans attacked at once.

"How arrogant! I should be able to deal with a brat like you without getting help from the others!" Enraged by Leon's attitude, the Fifth Elder stepped forward.

As Leon and the Fifth Elder stared at one another, tension rose in the air.

"Fifth Elder, this kid has injured me multiple times and I want him dead! Now is the chance to do it. Destroy him and show no mercy!" Seth, who was hiding behind them, gritted out viciously.

He knew that Leon was supported by the Thompsons and he would never dare to kill Leon out of fear of the Thompsons. However, Leon barged into the Golans Mansion, giving the Golans the perfect excuse to eliminate him without having to worry that the Thompsons would get involved.

Seth refused to let such a great opportunity slip.

"Yes! Take this, kid!" The Fifth Elder scoffed and charged toward Leon at the speed of lightning.

Leon did not intend on countering the attack directly and simply backed away with Iris in his arms.

Under the effect of the Dragon Pill, his power level rose to the Initial Emperor State and would stand a chance in defeating even martial artists in the Intermediate Emperor State.

With the Mirror of Sovereign, even martial artists in the Peak Emperor State would struggle to break past Leon's defense, so he had nothing to fear from the Fifth Elder.

However, since their power rivaled one another, it would be difficult for Leon to defeat the Fifth Elder either. Hence, he backed away and left his chest area unprotected to lure the Fifth Elder into attacking him in the hope that he could hurry to Snow's rescue in time.

"Here I thought you were invincible, but you're just in the Initial Emperor State! Die!" The Fifth Elder sneered and narrowed his eyes maliciously.

He could not detect Leon's power level through Leon's spiritual energy but concluded that Leon was in the Initial or Intermediate Emperor State based on Leon's speed and explosive power, which meant Leon was hardly a match for the Fifth Elder.

When he spotted a chance to attack, the Fifth Elder did not hesitate to strengthen his attack and struck Leon in the chest to destroy Leon with a single blow.
