

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 1954

Chapter 1954

"Mister Thompson, wait! The Golans and the Hiltons are here for me. I'll go with you two to see them," Leon said seriously.

Even though he was in his weakened state and could not fight back, there was still no way he would just stay back and hide when the Golans and the Hiltons were specifically asking for him.

Furthermore, he still had the Cuff of Doom and the unbeatable Potential Energy as trump cards. It would not be easy for those two families to deal with him!

There was no reason for him to be afraid!

After that, Iris and Snow pushed Leon's wheelchair as they walked outside with Yuri, Damian, and the others.

Before they left, Yuri did not forget to have two of the guards from his family look after Darius in case anything happened.

In the main hall of the Scammells, Sebastian and Joel were standing there with over a dozen experts from the Scammells. Eliam was also there with Seth, and there were two to three dozen experts from the Golans. All of them were waiting in the hall in a threatening manner.

Facing Joel and the others was Patrick and the other experts from the Scammells who were already notified.

There were about four or five meters between the two sides, and the atmosphere was incredibly tense.

"Elder Hiltons, Elder Golan, the Scammells never had any trouble with your families, and we've never had any relationships! Why did you barge into our family and hurt our guards?! What is the meaning of this?" Patrick said unhappily.

"Elder Scammell, let's be honest with each other! Leon barged into our household and was crippled by their grandson's legs. He even took away my grandson's power. He was just too cruel! In the end, since we're both ancient martial arts families of the Southern region, I'll give the Scammells one chance! As long as you hand Leon over for us to deal with, then I won't drag your family into this! Otherwise, we'll make sure the Scammell name is wiped away from the Southern region today!" Eliam said in a sinister manner.

As he said that, he pointed at Seth, who was laying on a stretcher. The threat in his voice was evident!

"What? Something like that happened?"

Patrick was shocked to see the state Seth was in.

He did not know anything about how Seth kidnapped Iris at all, nor did he know about what happened between Leon and the Golans!

However, Leon was a part of his family, and Leon constantly saved the Scammells from danger. Their family owned Leon a lot!

There was no way he would hand Leon over just because of a few threats from Eliam!

"Elder Golan, I don't know what happened between Leon and your grandson, but based on the unwritten rules of the Southern region's martial world, conflicts between the youths should be settled between them. The older generation should not interfere! Furthermore, fists are blind. Leon accidentally injuring your grandson in battle is something unavoidable! The only person to blame is your grandson for not being as strong as Leon. You can't blame Leon for this at all! Yet, your family decided to mobilize even the Hiltons against Leon and the Scammells! Aren't you crossing the line?!" Patrick shouted out.
